

15.—Duties of the Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall have the custody of all moneys of the Society, shall keep account of the same and submit these to the Council at its meetings, and shall receive subscriptions, grants and donations, and make disbursements as shall be ordered by the Council.

It shall be the duty of the President, or in event of his being unable to do so, of the Vice-President, to prepare an address for each annual meeting.

It shall be the duty of the President of each section, or in event of his being unable to do so, of the Vice-President, to prepare an address, having reference to the special objects of the section, for each annual meeting.

The Society in general session, or any of the sections, with consent of the Society, may appoint committees to prepare reports on any special literary or scientific matters, or on the progress of literature and science, or on works published in Canada, and to suggest such honorary notice as may seem desirable in the case of meritorious works or researches.

The ordinary committee of the section shall be limited to three in number, and consist of the officers of the section or any members that the section may select to make up the number.

17.—Reading of Papers.

I.—The representatives of each section in the Council shall be the judges of the papers to be accepted or rejected. No paper shall be read in any section, at any general meeting of the Society, unless it has been presented, either in full or in abstract, at least three weeks before the first day of the meeting, and formally accepted by the Council, in accordance with rule X of the Society, except by special permission of the Council. The publication of any paper not so accepted, as having been read before or presented to it, may be disavowed by the Society.

II.—No paper already published shall be accepted by the Society except in cases where it shall have been entirely recast.
