

C O N T E N T S

OF THE

SECOND VOLUME.

B O O K III.

Of CANADA, acquired from the FRENCH.

CHAP. I. General face of the country. Climate. Government, customs, virtues and vices of the Indians,	Page 9
CHAP. II. Wars of the Indians. The colonists embroil themselves therein,	49
CHAP. III. Of the Furs,	54
CHAP. IV. In what places, and what manner, the fur-trade was carried on,	72
CHAP. V. State of Canada at the peace of Utrecht,	80
CHAP. VI. Population, agriculture, manners, government, fisheries, industry, and revenues of Canada.	81
CHAP. VII. Advantages which France might have derived from Canada. Errors which deprived her of them.	100
CHAP. VIII. Origin of the wars between the British and the French in Canada,	110
CHAP.	