Foreigner Died Instantly When Drain Walls Collapsed and Several Others Were Badly Injured-Rev. Father Gallagher's Funeral To-day Motor Car Damaged.

Shortly before ten o'clock yesterday morning the cave-in of a trench which was being dug for a water main at the corner of Rowntree-avenue and Black-therne-avenue resulted in the death of one of the workmen employed, while three others were more or less seriously

The men were digging at the floor of the trench 15 feet below the surface of the street when the whole side of the lich collapsed and slid into the excation burying Felan Nikeloff of 5 lanover-place and pinning three other abovers who were working near. The ames of the injured were B. Bimble of lanover-place, whose arm was broken; hris Cressi and M. Allister, who were adly bruised. The men were employed by the McKnight Construction Company.

speer's ambulance was immediately immoned and the remains were taken his undertaking pariors on Dundas-rect. They were later removed to the orgue where an inquest will be opened to-night.

Motor Car Damaged. Motor Car Damaged.

At 12 o'clock yesterday a collision occurred at Dundas and Keele-streets between a motor car driven by Harry Walters, license No. 527, and a delivery wagon of the Swift Canadian Company driven by Harry Cox of 71 Cooper-avenue. The horse apparently became frightened at the noise of the horn and jumped forward making the rear of the wagon collide with the tonneau of the auto. The rear seat of the motor car was torn completely off the body and thrown to the pavement together with the father of the chauffeur, who was sitting on it and who sustained a slight sprain of the back and a severe shaking up. No other damage resulted.

New Dundas "Y."

A large gang of workmen commenced

A large gang of workmen commenced resterday tearing up the old "Y" at Dundas-street and Humberside-avenue. It will be replaced by a new one and when completed it is expected that work will be commenced on the double-tracking of Dundas-street from Wood-ville-avenue to Keele-street. The railway company expressed their intention of doing this some months ago and doing this some months ago and Building Record. The first fifteen days of July have shown another record in the building trade in Ward Seven. During this period 24 permits were issued, including 30 dwellings and a pair of stores and dwellings. The total cost of these amounts to $95,940, which shows an increase of $41,740 over the total for the corresponding half month last year. During this time the number of permits was 21, with a total cost of $54,200.
