

A Cause for Weeping.

In the theatre:

"But why do you weep? The acting is certainly not so touching."

"Excuse me, I am bewailing the money I paid to come in."

The Effect on the Patient.

Young physician (pompously)—Yes, I've called at Mr. Brown's three times a day for a week. He is a very sick man, Miss Smith.

Miss Smith—He must be by this time.

LIVER DISEASE CURED.

St. Brigide, Que., May 7th, 1887.

A. J. WHITE & Co.

GENTS—Miss Azilda Lomme, daughter of Mr. Pierre Lomme, of St. Brigide, has been cured of Erysipelas in the head, by the use of one bottle of your Seigel's Syrup, one box of Pills and one box of Ointment. I cured myself of Liver disease with two bottles of Seigel's Syrup and one box of Pills. I can say that almost every one who has tried the remedy has received entire satisfaction with it, so I think that it is my duty to make known the efficacy of the remedies.

Yours truly, DAVID LAFOND.
