

5TH DIVISION MEN VOTED IN VAIN TO CUT POWER CHAINS

Hoped To Be Released From Command Seekers' Lust.

"FED UP" ON SYSTEM

Incompetent Colonels and System Bitterly Condemned by One N. C. O.

Letters from officers and men who left Western Ontario a year ago with such units as the 152nd (Wellingtons) and 149th (Lambtons), and who are still in England as part of the famous Canadian 5th Division, are bitter in their condemnation of the present system.

"It is quite true that we, or many of us, voted for Union Government," writes one N. C. O., "now attached to the 152nd Battalion, and who reverted to the ranks from an officer's commission to get to France. We hoped that we would be changed in the military system here. So far it doesn't look like it. We have been kept in England for more than a year while men are being pulled out of hospitals and convalescent homes to keep up the battalions at the front. Those of us who made a sacrifice of rank to see active duty are more than 'fed up' on the present way of handling this 5th Division."

"I notice that it has been charged in some Canadian papers that the 5th Division was sent to France for the purpose of giving political favorites a staff job or high commands. This sentiment will be increased by a good many members of the said 5th. Take Lieut.-Col. Blank, who, as you know, was sent to France when he was appointed, but who never did more than a few days' drill with a volunteer organization, and was in trouble in Canada, with Newburn in control and Perley's wings clipped, and he would get action, but it would seem different."

"I would be unfair to say that the officers, whatever their qualifications or pull, don't want to go to France. They do. I'll give Col. Blank credit for that, but what in the world is the militia department doing to keep such men here when they are sending home qualified men. It is too much of a good thing. We have been kept here in England for more than a year while men are being pulled out of hospitals and convalescent homes to keep up the battalions at the front. Those of us who made a sacrifice of rank to see active duty are more than 'fed up' on the present way of handling this 5th Division."

Unusual Plea For "Mother" Bringing Many Answers

"Lonely Soldier" Touched the Heart Strings of London
Women.

"Lonely Soldier Boy," who has lost all his immediate relatives—father, three brothers, sister and last of all, a dear mother over in England, is evidently not the only lonely-hearted person in London. Following his unusual appeal in "The Advertiser" on Monday, "Wanted, some elderly woman, or mother, who has lost her own son in the war, on whom he might transfer the affection he would normally give to his own mother," half a dozen women have answered the advertisement.

LIBERAL WARDEN FOR MIDDLESEX IN 1918 IS ASSURED

Big Majority of Members of This Party Indicates It.

FOUR ASPIRANTS IN RACE
Every Prospective County
Head Has Long Municipal Experience.

The next warden of Middlesex County will in all probability be again Liberal, the political lineup of the present council showing 13 Liberals and 12 Conservatives.

With the decided Liberal majority, it is certain that one of the councillors of this political stripe will be selected for the highest honor in the gift of the county fathers.

Four councillors are mentioned for the wardenship, and those in a position to know think without a doubt that one of this quartet will be appointed, this year. The four aspirants are: Donald A. Graham, reeve of Carleton Place; John Currie, reeve of Adelaide; Fred Barrett, reeve of West Williams; and David Smith, reeve of Dorchester.

Each has a strong following, and one of the keenest contests for the wardenship in years is anticipated. The council will meet on Monday, January 28, when the selection of the warden will be proceeded with first of all. After the warden has been selected, the committee will be appointed, followed by whatever business the council has to transact.

The four aspirants for the wardenship are all men of considerable municipal experience, and each would fill the warden's chair with credit to himself and the county. Each will be strongly supported, and even those most familiar with county affairs decline to hazard a guess as to who will be the one selected. The present council politically is as follows:

Liberals—Reeves: John Morgan, Alton; John Currie, Adelaide; Donald A. Graham, Carleton Place; Alton Hyckman, Delaware; David Smith, Dorchester; Daniel E. McCallum, Ekfrid; Daniel Hyman & Mills, builders' supplies, and Campbell, Lobo; Ellis Rycraft, Moss.

Though Only 18 Years Old, He Passed All Exams. in Texas.

If persistency counts for anything, Jack Flanagan, who has just returned from the aviation camp in Texas, with his wings and commission as a member of the Royal Flying Corps, should be one of the world's greatest birdmen. He is at present at home on leave, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.

OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—In the list of decorations appearing in today's cable from London in the newly created Order of the British Empire is the name of W. A. M. Goode. Mr. Goode is well known all over Canada. He represented the Associated Press in the Spanish-American War and afterwards was its manager in London, England. When the London Standard was taken over by the Chamberlain party, Mr. Goode was named managing editor and took an active interest in all that makes for empire. For a time he was manager in Canada of the Standard of Empire. He is honorary secretary of the West Indies Club in London, and is married to a daughter of Dr. C. A. Sippl, of London, Ontario.

Mr. Goode was well known in London and Toronto about 1882. At that time he was managing the "Standard of Empire." He was an ardent cricketer, and came to London many times to play on the old asylum cricket team. It was during these visits that he met Miss Cecilia Sippl, whose father, Dr. C. A. Sippl, was in charge of the asylum. Arthur Sippl is a brother-in-law.

CARD OF THANKS.
The family of the late Mrs. Anna Maria Cadoo wish to thank the many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent sad bereavement, also for the beautiful floral tributes sent, especially from Messrs. Hyman & Mills, builders' supplies, and the Canada Overall Company.
