Fans Grow Peeved At Kitchener Tactics As They Ride Franklin and Forget Bas eball-First Comes 10--5 and Seco nd 3--2.

London took both games of the double-header staged with the Kitchener team Saturday afternoon ebfore one of the biggest crowds this year, copping he first by a score of 10 to 5 and the second by a 3—2 verdict. There was nearly four hours of it and about 48 minutes of baseball. Kitthener lost two games and the good opinion of London ball fans. About 20 minuest more of that sort of action and the Kitchener outfit would be lucky if that was all they lost. Prior to Saturday Kitchener had borne the reputation of a gingery, fighting bunch of ball players, but on Saturday they spilled over into the little veteran was finally knocked cold by a foul off Neitzke's bat in the little veteran was finally knocked cold by a foul off Neitzke's bat in the little veteran was finally knocked cold by a foul off Neitzke's bat in the little veteran was finally knocked cold by a foul off Neitzke's bat in the self-st inning. It's true that Crichlow started the trouble when he spluttered himself out of the game in the London first half, claiming that he didn't run on a third-base grounder because the ball hit his foot. He waxed so eloquent that Franklin tent him to the showers to cool off. But the Mississippian's explosion was a toy pistol cap when the visitors opened up their heavy howitzer growis. It was just three party conventions rolled into one with a sound amplifier on the Brady, s. s. 4 Byrne, r. f. 5 bye, l. f. 5 n hard one shot down by Crichlow and it traveled up his arm uppercutting him in the jaw for a painful out.
