Price changes were irregular thruout, steels and motors making extreme recessions of one to three points, the latter group again owing its depression to adverse trade reports.

Shupings were variable, Marine preserved manifesting moderate strength, while Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies and imerican international Corporation averaged one point declines. Rails were a stilgible factor, some of the better sown sharss of that division remaining anyoted. Active tobaccos rose one to be a sumational Cigars at 125½. High-ricad shares of the same class, notably orillard and Liggett and Myers, were pur to almost five points under. Short evering effected the usual price readurance at the close.

Weekly trade reports were of a less ensurance tenor, uncertainties at Washigton causing a further let-up in many net of trade.

The bank statement reflected to an usual degree the very heavy financial assestions of the week, actual loans in.

CROESUS IN MUNRO

Munro, the Walsh vein, thought be an extension of the Croesus rein, was picked up to the south.

If the drifting on it for about twentyive feet a bad flow of water was truck which flooded the mine. As the mine is now being rapidly pump-d out work will be resumed on this ein again shortly. It is understood hat while no spectacular specimens have been found in the Walsh vein et, that values are very good. Mill heads of the Croesus are runing higher than was expected, aver-cing well over fifty dollars a ton.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

Winnipeg, Aug. 11.-Trade was dull today and narrow. There was no slack-ening in the demand for cash wheat and ening in the demand for cash wheat and cats, and prices were one cent better for some grades of wheat. Offerings continued light. Prices were rather easier in the trading for future delivery, but firmed up at the close. The volume of business done was small.

Cash wheat closed $2.40 for No. 1 and No. 2 northern, and from 1c to 2c higher for some of the lower grades. October oats closed $6c, %c lower; December 62%c, unchanged. October flax was $3.35%, half cent lower; November $3.28, %c lower; December $3.29; 1c lower.
