Graduation Exercises Held at Hospital for Sick Children

The annual graduation exercises of the training school for nurses were held last evening at the Hospital for Sick Children. The conferring of diplomas, scholarships and prizes took place in the reception room of the new wing, which was tastefully decorated with flags and palms. J. Ross Robert, son, chairman of the board, gave a short address, and mentioned that he was the 31st anniversary over which he had the pleasure of presiding.

An address was given by the following graduates: Olive E. Dunham, Ingersoll; Mamie Denison, Parth; Hazel E. Elliott, Stirling; Alice E. Fenton, Toronto; Edna A. Jamieson, Westmount, Que.; E. Anzures, Haines, Beeton; Marjorie Hunter, Toronto; Edith McDonald, Goderich; Edith McIntyre, Toronto; Margaret V. M. Stevenson, Montreal, Que.; Jean G. Vining, Toronto; Wilhelmina H. Yates, Kingston; Geraldine Conley, St. Thomas; Ella M. Meiklejohn, Toronto; Florence McMillan, London; Beatrice A. Pridham, Goderich; Margaret Wood, Port, Dabousie; Mary Wilson, Oakville; Vera B. Wyatt, Toronto; Ruth D. Widder, Megantic, Que.

The exercises were followed by an informal reception by Miss Potts, the superintendent of the hospital, and her staff.

During the evening two pleasant happenings not on the program were the arrival of Dr. Clarence L. Stair, who had just reached the city, having been overseas for the past year and a half, and the presence of Mrs. St. Clair Stobart, who addressed the nurses on her work for her beloved Serbia.

STREET CAR HITS MOTOR.—Traveling east on Queen street yesterday afternoon a Parliament car ran into a motor going in the same direction, driven by John P. Coleman, 276 Wright avenue. The collision caused the motor to jump the sidewalk and crash into the window of the Diamond Cafe, which is managed by Lee Kee, a Chinaman, dealing the big plate glass window, and giving the occupants a big scare. Fortunately, however, nobody was injured. The property is owned by Mr. Singer.

FALLS FROM STREET CAR.—While trying to board a west-bound Kingston last night, Frederick Opekanika, 35 William street, slipped and fell to the pavement, sustaining severe injuries to his back and side. He was removed to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance.

While riding north on the Vaughan road on a bicycle yesterday evening about 7.30, Arthur Detective Carter, who is attached to No. 11 division, was seriously injured when he was struck by a motorcycle driven by John Lowe, 244 Alameda avenue. Fisher, both men were removed to the General Hospital in a serious condition.

As far as can be ascertained, Detective Carter was proceeding up Vaughan road at a slow rate of speed when the motorcycle came up Bathurst street, which at this point joins the Vaughan road, both meeting squarely in the centre of the road.

The authorities at the hospital last night stated that Mr. Carter was suffering from concussion, a fractured jaw, a severe scalp wound and shock, it being understood that he has a fighting chance, while at a late hour last night Mr. Lowe had not regained consciousness.

THE TORONTO WORLD WANTS TO KNOW FROM ITS READERS WHY PEOPLE SHOULD BUY VICTORY BONDS.

If you have bought a bond, The World wants to know why you bought it.

If you intend to buy a bond, The Toronto World wants to know why you are going to buy it.

If you are going to buy or have bought bonds for your children, The World wants to know why you did and why you think other people should do the same thing.

Letters must not exceed 100 words and must bear the writer's signature. Send them in today to "Victory Bonds," care The Toronto World.

VICTORY BOND LETTERS

FIVE MORE REASONS. Editor World: In answer to your question, "Why I Bought Victory Bonds," here are five reasons:

a. Because I felt it to be my patriotic duty.

b. Because I realize the need of helping the government to fulfill its obligation to supply our forces with food, clothing and equipment commensurate with their need.

c. Because these bonds represent the best investment in Canada.

d. Because for the security behind them they pay a wonderful interest rate of 5 1/2 per cent.

e. And if the allies' effort fails no other security will be worth more than "a scrap of paper."

Wm. Harper.

FOR WAGE EARNERS.

Editor World: For wage earners have complained because money was all in the hands of a few. They knew the condition was largely due to the basic principle that money makes money. It must have it. The more the wage earners subscribe the less will be allotted to capitalists. As a wage earner without any antipathy towards capitalists I intend to buy not only as many Victory bonds as I can think I will be able to pay for, but just one more.

Chas. H. Reid.

HE LOVES CANADA.

Editor World: I have a dozen reasons why I am going to buy Victory bonds. The principal one is: I love Canada. Thos. Wm. Lyndon.

FOUND THE WAY.

Editor World: At first I said I would not take a Victory bond. Every dollar we have seems to be working overtime or else tied night up, and I did not see how we could take any. But my wife said, "I do not like that kind of talk; we must help some."

"Where is the money coming from?" I asked.

"Money or no money, how will it look when the other men at the shop are signing up for you to be standing with your fingers in your mouth? And further, I positively refuse to say 'No' to the canvasser when he comes."

When a man gets a little hint like that he might as well get busy. Next day I hunted up the foreman and asked for an application form, which we filled in to King George's taste. And I am going to let the money to pay for that bond if I have to "bust" every button on my vest.

After supper my wife asked if I had heard anything more about the bonds. "Yes," I replied, "I have some ideas in my pocket," and I handed her the paper.

"Why," said she, "it is an application, and you have signed it, and you have really bought some after all!" "Isn't that what you wanted?"

"Of course it is, and it shows which side we are on anyway."

Believe me, "fellows," I just had to buy a Victory bond anyway, so I could get one of those dinky little buttons to wear on my coat. W. S. P.
