MENS CLOTHES

Be Business-like! Take Elevator-Save $10

There is no mystery about our Upstairs plan of selling clothes—all you have to do is to realize the difference between our UPSTAIRS RENT AND SELLING EXPENSE and those of "ground floor" stores. You can see at once why "ground floor" stores must ask $25 to $35 for the same clothes we sell at OUR UPSTAIRS PRICES OF $15 to $25.

Don't leave your common sense behind when you start out to buy clothes. Remember that retail prices are based upon three things—manufacturer's price, selling expense, and profit. We've cut our selling expense down to the bone through being located upstairs away from high ground-floor rent and expenses, that's why we can save you $10.00.

Light Weight Summer Suits AT OUR UPSTAIRS PRICES $10, $12 and $15

We have Palm Beach, cool cloth, home-spuns, serges, flannels, and other summer fabrics. All the fine ones—hand tailored, unlined. Everything that's worth while in style and fabric.

BRYNLIMAHWON IN FURIOUS DRIVE

Seventh Race Furnished the Thriller on Third Day at Hamilton Track.

Hamilton, June 28.—There were several features on an attractive card here this afternoon, but it remained for the last race to furnish the real thriller. The seventh was for 3-year-olds and up at 1-16 miles and the seven accepted conditions. Brynlimahwon was the favorite and broke none too well. Reno and Fairy Legend raced together in front for a mile until Brynlimahwon came into the stretch on even terms full of resolution and then occurred the favorite having the most left, outkicking Reno, that was second, with Fairy Legend third.

The Juvenile Plate had the most added money, and the running was unfortunate, as Flame, the favorite, was not only left at the post, but wouldn't even start after the field. Red Admiral, the longest shot of the day, was much the best or he likely would have been disqualified for crowding the bogland at the break. The latter finishing second and Thomas G. third.

New Haven and Tropaeolum were out in front in the first stepchase of the meeting, but Early Light, that was coupled with Welsh King, ran over them from the last jump and won going away. Salvestra came from behind to win the first in a fair finish, with Miss Bryn second and Hasty Mabel third, the favorite, Cobrita, outside the handicap was a gift to Water Lady. Tyrant, the pacemaker, finished second, and Waukeag third.

The fifth at a mile was easy for Gainer, a winner at every post.

Easy Lou was a lucky filly in the sixth, and the others couldn't keep up. Philistine, the favorite, finished second, ahead of Scheme. This race had a long field of an even dozen.

The Burlington Handicap and the Brittain's Stakes are the features on the Friday afternoon card.
