

-o- UNWILLING GUESTS OF THE HUNS--SOME LOCAL UNITS -o-

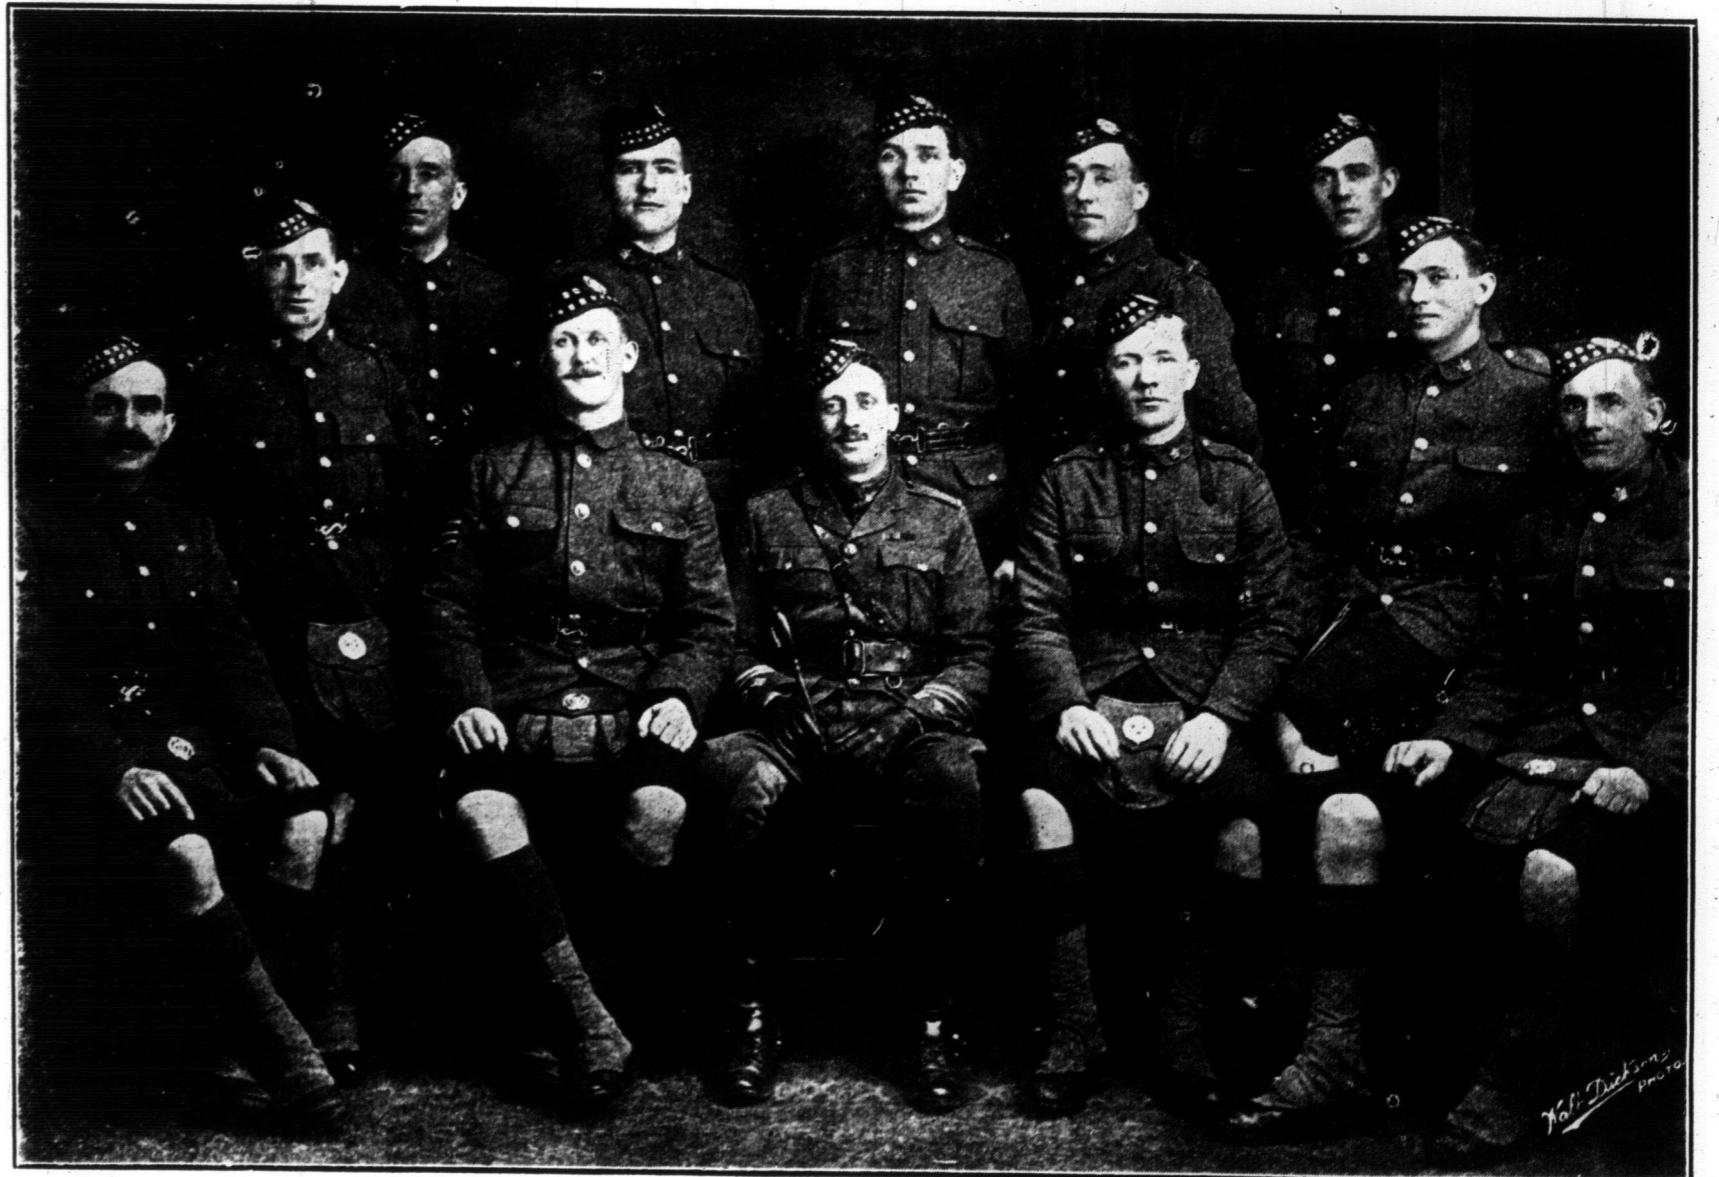

Corp. A. F. Lamerton, 48th Highlanders, with a group of prisoners at Giesen camp.

The medical inspection staff of Toronto's board of education. One of the largest of any city on this continent. Sitting (from the left)—Drs. W. A. Graham, F. J. Munn, F. S. Minns, Alex. MacKay (chief medical officer), H. C. Wales, A. S. Lawson, W. Morrison. Standing—M. A. Pollock, G. P. Jackson, E. O. Smith, J. T. Phair, Margaret McAlpine, C. M. Hincks, C. P. Woodhouse, C. B. Parker, W. H. Nelson, W. M. Ecclestone, R. J. W. Brooke.

Pictures sent by Pte. W. J. L. Westover, of Swansea, now a prisoner of war at Geissen, Germany.

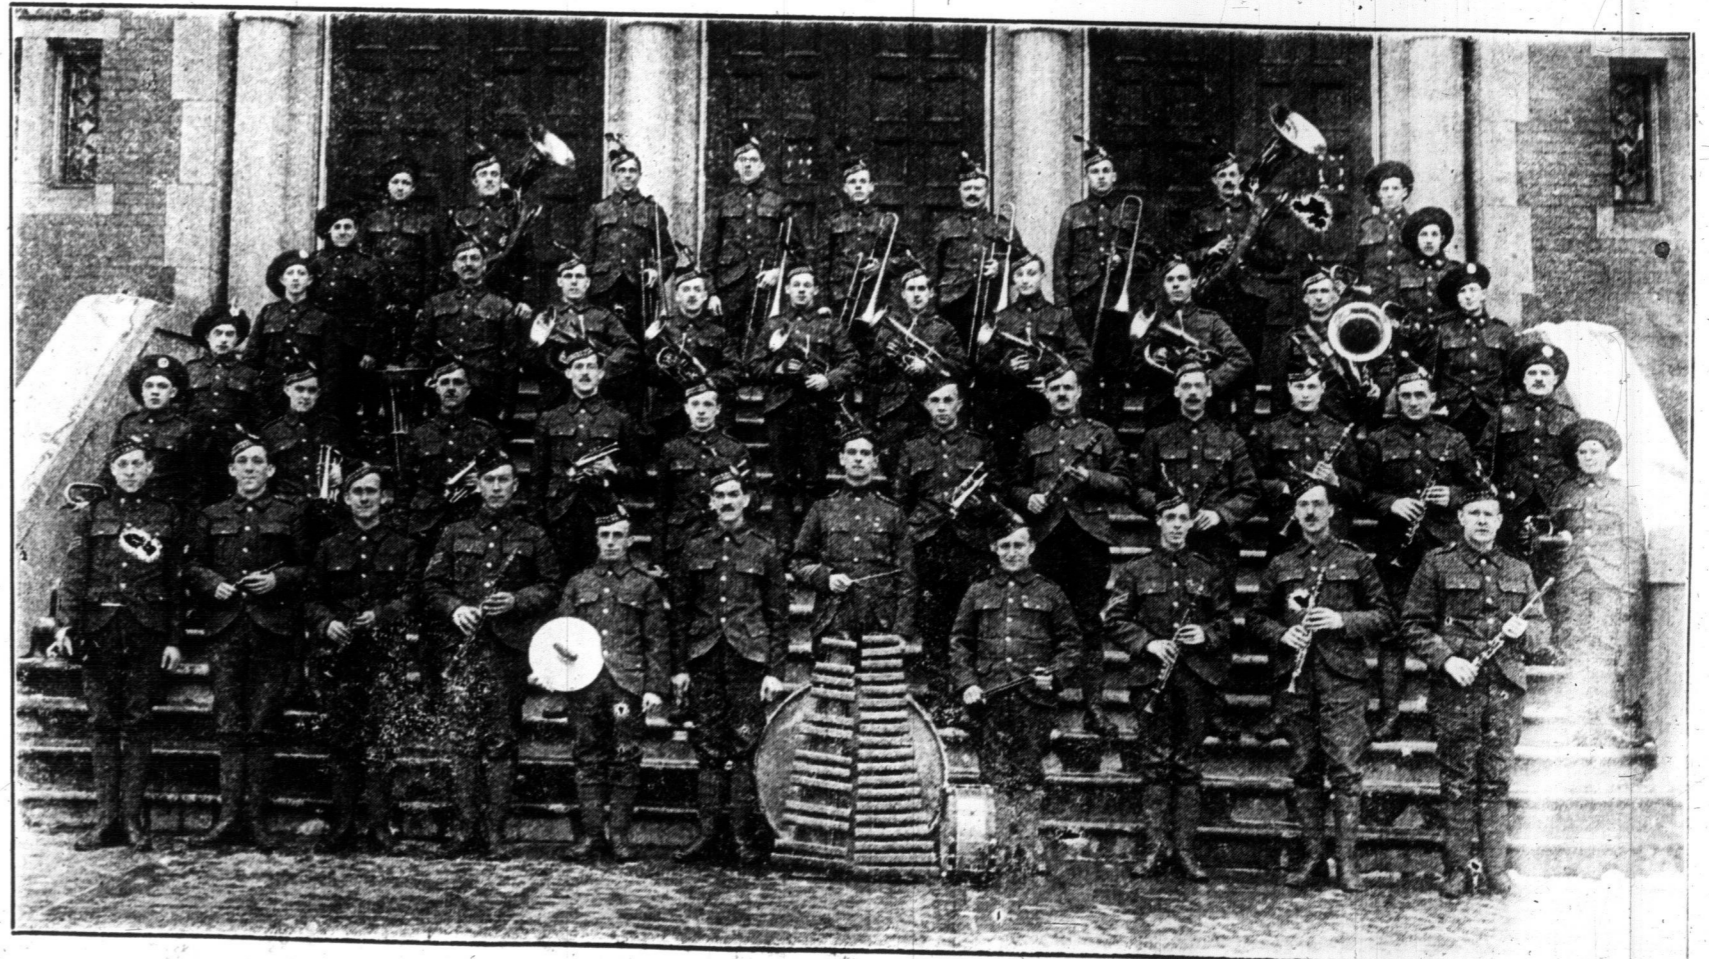

Pioneers of the 92nd Battalion Highlanders, with Captain T. H. Banton.

With Laidstun's Guards. Pte. Joseph Baxter, Toronto, and other Canadian and British prisoners at Geissen.

Pte. George Pearce, 19 Bodwin avenue, West Toronto, 48th Highlanders, prisoner of war at Hanover, Germany.

Band of the 134th Battalion, C. E. F., in charge of Bandmaster Boyd M. Selvester. —Photo by Alex. J. McLeod.

TO... GRA...
BA...
67-A...
RIDER...
PICT...
The Su... to face...
others, p...
subjects...
news int...
Add...
ILLUS...
S...
W...
THE...
IF...
N...
What...
propert...
glasses...
eyes...
The...
are pro...
Do yo...
so, don...
but com...
Man...
Optic...
H...
JEW...
150 Y...
G...