

1st. That the Union be called the General Union Society of the Baptist Denomination of New Brunswick.

2d. That the affairs of the Union be conducted by a Secretary, Treasurer and Board of Directors, consisting of seven Members, to be chosen annually by the Society—the Board to have power to fill up any vacancies that may occur, and that every Minister who has a Union Society in his Church be an ex-officio Member of the Board.

3d. That any person paying twenty five shillings or upwards into the Funds of the Union, annually, to be divided as follows, viz: nine shillings to Domestic Missions, four shillings for Foreign Missions, four shillings to the Education Society, four shillings for the support of superannuated Ministers, and the destitute Widows and Families of deceased Ministers, and four shillings to assist our Baptist Missionaries in the circulation of the sacred Scriptures in Heathen lands, will be considered a Member thereof. Any person paying five pounds, or upwards, at any one time, will be a Life Member; and the payment of twenty five pounds, or upward, at any one time, will constitute a Life Director; the whole to be divided in the proportions before mentioned; and that subscribers who may wish to pay more than twenty five shillings annually will be at liberty to direct its application to the several objects united, or to any one or more of them, separately, at their own discretion.

4th. That any Local Union Society, founded upon the principles contained in the Rules submitted for the government of Local Societies, and paying into the Funds of this Union not less than five pounds annually, will be Members of the General Union, and be entitled to send one Delegate to attend the General Meetings of the Union, and one additional Delegate for every additional five pounds so paid.

5th. That a List for Subscribers be opened with six columns—the first column for the several objects united, and the other five for the different objects separately.

6th. That all monies received by the Local Societies be paid over to the Treasurer of the General Union, except amounts received for Domestic Missions, which may be paid over to the Treasurer of the Local Missionary Board in the District where the same has been collected, and a receipt for the amount forwarded to the Treasurer of this Union; and that all monies received by the Treasurer of the Union from Subscribers, Local Unions, or otherwise, be paid over under the direction of the Office-bearers and Board, as follows, viz: the amount received for Domestic Missions to the Treasurer of the General Missionary Board; the amount received for Foreign Missions and the Bible cause, to the Treasurer of the Foreign Missionary Board; the amount received for the Education Society, to the Committee of Management for the Society; and the amount received for the support of Ministers and their Families, be appropriated to that object, under such regulations as shall be adopted from time to time by the Union.
