Chapman's Record.

Raymond Chapman, killed by a pitched ball a few days ago, was born in McHenry, Ky., July 18, 1891. He had been a member of the Cleveland American League team since August 30, 1914.

He was considered one of the best shortstops and most popular players in the game.

Chapman played his first professional baseball in 1909 with Mount Vernon, Illinois. In 1910 he went to Springfield, Ill., and from there to Davenport, Iowa, in the Three I League.

Cleveland first obtained Chapman from Davenport in 1911 and sold him to Toledo in the American Association on option. He was recalled to Cleveland in 1912 and had played in more than 1,000 games in an Indian uniform.

Chapman was one of the fastest men in baseball. On Sept. 27, 1917, Tim Lincecum day at Boston, he won a loving cup for the fastest time in circling the bases, doing it in fourteen seconds.

In 1917 he broke all major league sacrifice hit records with a total of 97, and led the American league in sacrifices in the following two years. He had a record of ten seconds for the hundred yards.

Pitches No Hit No Run.

Fanjoy, star twirler of Stetson, Cutler & Company's baseball team, pitched a no hit no run game against Simms team in the Industrial League last evening. The score of the game was 11 to 0. McAvity's and the Nashua Indians play this evening.

All Stars Defeat Pirates.

The All Stars defeated the Pirates on the South End diamond last evening by a score of 7 to 5. The batteries were Doherty and Moran for the winners, Kerr and Cox for the losers.

R. Green made a triple play unassisted in a game played at Rothery last evening between the home team and the Y. M. H. A., the latter winning by a score of 18 to 4.

THE RING.

To Oppose Dempsey.

Chicago, Aug. 18—Billy Miske arrived here today to go into training for his fight with Jack Dempsey at Benton Harbor (Mich.) on Labor Day. Miske, looking fit, said he would spend several days here before going to Benton Harbor, where Dempsey is in training.

Bout Stopped.

Montreal, Aug. 18—Referee McKinney stopped a bout between Eddie O'Hara of New York and Willie Heimers of Buffalo here tonight in the second round to save Heimers from further punishment.

O'Hara scoring a technical knockout. The men are middleweights. Two local lightweights, Lewis and Glidden, fought a ten round bout in which the former had the margin by a shade.

Wrist Broken.

Detroit, Aug. 18—Soldier Bartfield, New York, suffered a fracture of the left wrist in a bout here tonight with Briggs Downey of Columbus. The tenth and final round had given Downey the unofficial decision. Bartfield insisted on finishing the bout, sparring with his right.
