A CIRCULAR LETTER
From the American Fashion Company Who Publish the "Pictorial Review Patterns"

APRIL FASHIONS
So lovely, so chic, so altogether charming are the fashions presented in Pictorial Review Patterns for April that they stand in a class by themselves, as far removed from the ordinary paper patterns as is day from night.

New Styles Features
The Japanese Collar—This clever novelty will be found on 5589-5596 and 5598. It is becoming to all types of women, stout and thin, young and old.

Morning and "Trotteur" Dresses
Very smart in their simplicity are dresses 5607-5611-5615-5605 and 5616. These can be recommended for serge, poplin, linen, etc., and 5616 is also charming for a linen frock.

Women's Dancing Frocks
For a pretty frock on simple lines to be made of taffeta or foulard, I recommend 5618, with frills of lace or no blouse, 5619 and 5620 without pelm, combined with skirts 5598-5599 or 5601 will make adorably pretty dancing frocks.

Skirts
One of the newest models is 5618, featuring the draw-up-in-front-effect, and this is being shown in wool and silk fabrics, 5601 is another chic style with new scalloped pelm, and equally smart is 5608 with the new panther. Then there is 5608 with double tunic. Only slender women should wear these "hat" skirts, 5618 in modified pop-top style; three, 5618 in modified pop-top style; and 5676, tucked below the hips, are attractive skirts for serge, linen or silk.

Short Coats
Paris says "short coats," and they are being worn in wool, crepe taffeta and moire, as well as novelty cottons. New style notes are the raglan shoulder and ruffled waistcoat of 5617, and 5620 shows vest and collar in one.

Wraps and Sport Coats.
5584, one of the most fashionable wraps of the season, in taffeta and moire, will be worn over lingerie and foulard gowns. For sports and outing wear, the "Bainacoon" in large plaids is the newest thing. I recommend 5589 as the best example of this type. It is a March pattern, but as always, Pictorial Review was far in advance in presenting it.

For Stout Women
The following patterns are recommended for stout women, 5616, 5605.

AMLAND BROS., Limited 19 WATERLOO STREET

5615, 5607, 5611, 5673, and 5598 with the tunic omitted.

For Misses
The Japanese collar is charmingly shown in 5582, 5598, and 5604, the latter with quaint scalloped tunic. These cannot be surpassed in simplicity and style.

Dancing Frocks for Misses
5602 with graceful panther and 5569 are pretty frocks for net or taffeta, and 5591 with skirt, 5618, as well as 5594 and 5618 are expressive of the newest modes. In fact I saw 5604 made up in taffeta and worn at the charity ball at the Waldorf Astoria by one of the smartest of the season's debutantes.

Tailored Suits
For wool, silk of linen, 5619 and 5599 would combine effectively with all sorts of skirts, and are what the best model houses of Paris are showing for spring and early summer.

For Foulards, 5591, 5569, 5602, 5600 and 5608 will make up delightfully pretty frocks.

Sports Blouses
Middy blouse 5599 with Japanese collar, is an exact copy of a Paris model. A simple demi-tailored dress for serge, poplin or taffeta is 5600.

Notice the little Dutch kids' suit, 5574, the very latest for small men.

Very truly yours, THE PICTORIAL REVIEW CO. V. P. Annetto, president.

P. S.—The latest telegrams as reported in the New York papers describing the new spring models just exhibited in Paris, state that the special feature is the collar which sits away from the neck; in other words, the Japanese collar, which Pictorial Review has shown now for the last sixty days.

Note—All the above numbers may be found in the April fashion sheets "Pictorial Review patterns"—F. W. Daniel & Company agents for St. John.
