HON. GEO. PERLEY'S VISIT TO LONDON

First of New Government to Visit Old Country—Notes on Some Canadian Matters

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, Jan. 17—Among the recent arrivals in London is the Hon. George Perley, who, as the first of the new dominion cabinet to visit London, is receiving many social attentions and will undoubtedly have the opportunity of meeting the first lord of the admiralty and other members of the government, though Ottawa despatches relate he has no official mission here.

Mr. Perley who has been staying at Cannes, gave a dinner to his Canadian friends, who are holidaying on the Riviera, at the Casino restaurant the other evening. Among those present were Lady Clouston and her newly-married daughter, Mrs. Todd, who with Doctor Todd received many congratulations; Mrs. John Galt, Mrs. Shelton, Miss Galt, Eliot Galt and J. Redmond.

We also have a prominent member of the dominion parliament with us in the person of R. B. Bennett of Calgary, and Mr. Edmund Bristol, K. C., M. P., is expected soon from Toronto.

Just now Calgary is having quite a boom over here on account of the publicity it has received from the C. P. R. shops being located there. Many real estate people are taking advantage of the faith in all C. P. R. doings to unload all sorts of propositions, to some of which Canadians who know the district are not very favorable.

A prominent member of the Harmsworth group expressed surprise the other day that timber propositions were not more popular. "We know that timber won't run away," said he, "and that it is improving all the time it is standing, also that it will become increasingly scarce, therefore, lumber propositions emanating from responsible parties certainly deserve more consideration than some of these town lot schemes."

The richest building in the world is the United States mint at Denver. In its vaults at present are $443,000,000 in gold coin and gold bullion, or more than the total production of the world for 1908.

There Is No Mystery About Our Premium Plan

We manufacture about 400 lines of our own and they are the goods that we are forcing the sale of.

To sell these goods by the usual plan is to send out travelers and carry on expensive advertising, etc., which will cost over 40 per cent. We have discontinued all advertising except what applies to our store, and are taking our travelers off the road and are instead giving the purchaser of goods from us 20 per cent and making the other 20 per cent ourselves. Is this not a good business proposition?

On lines that we sell that are not of our own manufacture, we give the consumer about all of the profit, through our coupons, but we do this in order to have in our stores sufficient lines of steady consumption to enable a family to secure coupons fast enough to enable them to get many articles of value in a short time free. So you see that our plan is the only one that really solves the cost of high living and still gives us a living margin.

The Asepto Plan of Doing Business is the only plan of its kind in Canada.

It works itself out in this way: If you spend five cents you get a check worth one cent. If you spend twenty-five cents you get one worth five cents. If you spend $1.00 you get one worth twenty cents. If your purchase amounts to $5.00 you get one worth $1.00 and so on. These goods we sell to you at the same price that you would pay for them at any other store in the city, instead of giving you a small cash discount we give you a check worth 20 cents for every $1.00 you spend. We make a profit on the goods you purchase and pay for, while the goods you purchase afterwards with our checks are given you at the wholesale price. To get you to make the first purchase costs us something, while the second purchase, with our checks, you are bound to make from us. There is no selling expense attached to the latter.

A kindly newspaper man stopped a well dressed stranger in the street in London last week and, begging his pardon, called the man's attention to the fact that his derby hat was dented. The stranger thanked him and asked him for his card. The next day the newspaper man received a postal order for $5. The man said he was a commercial traveler and would have looked a large order if he had called on a certain firm with his hat dented.
