THE LATE THOMAS YOUNG. Coroner Berrymann has not yet decided what will be done in connection with the death of Thomas Young, who was killed at Sand Point on the 14th inst. The steamer Lake Champlain, on which he was working at the time, sailed before the coroner had interrogated the captain or members of the crew, and although the C. P. R. furnished the coroner with a copy of the statements made by a number of officials, he is not yet satisfied that an inquiry should not be held. A jury was sworn and the body viewed, and a judgment made until such time as the coroner should decide to again take the case. Much depends on testimony that might be given by fellow-workmen, and also as to the time when the steamer would return here.

ATTRACTIVE WIDOW SAYS HOCKEY PLAYER ROBBED HER OF JEWELS

Robt. J. Davidson, formerly of Ottawa, Under Arrest in Philadelphia Charged by Mrs. Fannie Caldwell

(Canadian Press) Philadelphia, Pa., April 24.—Robt. J. Davidson, a former Ottawa Hockey player, has been arrested at the instance of Mrs. Fannie Caldwell on the charge of robbing her of $4,000 in jewels. She says she first met the man last winter in the St. Nicholas rink. Davidson was a member of the New York Hockey Club and was able to play the game better than any other player in the city. It is said there was not a game last winter in which Davidson participated. He was an expert skater himself. She is a handsome brunette about forty-five years old, and has a son of 25, which is also Davidson's age.

Mrs. Caldwell said Davidson proposed to marry her, and when she refused, he seized her jewelry. Davidson, who is an orphan, lived with an aunt here until six years ago, when he went to New York. He formerly played hockey on several of the local schools.

There has been little talk as to the position of deputy mayor, but it is thought that Alderman Russell or Seely might be given the honor. The indications are that the caucus will not be by any means satisfactory to all, however it turns out.

ALDERMEN IN CAUCUS THIS WEEK OVER THE CHAIRMANSHIPS

A caucus will very likely be held sometime this week to decide upon the chairmanship and membership of the boards and committees of the new common council.

There is considerable rivalry for the position of chairman of the safety board, which is rendered vacant through the enforced retirement of Ald. Vanwart.

Alderman Christ is said to be anxious to succeed to the position, with Alderman J. B. Jones and Ald.-elect G. H. Green are also mentioned as desirous of undertaking the duties.

There does not appear to be a very strong desire on the part of any of the aldermen to assume the responsibilities of the water and sewerage department, left vacant through the retirement of Ald. Kelly. Nor do any of the members seem to be scrambling for the post of chairman of the appeals, and bills and by-laws committees.

It is probable that Ald. McGoldrick will remain in charge of the board of works; Ald. Potts is head of the ferry, and Ald. Hayes in command of the finance department. Alderman Elkin is said to be resigning that the harbor board be revived and that he be given the chairmanship over that also hang up.

There has been little talk as to the position of deputy mayor, but it is thought that Alderman Russell or Seely might be given the honor. The indications are that the caucus will not be by any means satisfactory to all, however it turns out.
