To Advertisers.

Owing to the large number of advertisers who desire changes in their advertisements in the Saturday issue, it will be necessary in the future to send in changes intended for Saturday not later than Friday at 4 p. m. The GAZETTE desires to accommodate its patrons in every way possible, but cannot be expected to change the entire advertising of the paper at an hour's notice.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. PETER'S.—The entertainment provided by St. Aloysius Total abstinence society at St. Peters' church, last evening was attended by about 1,000 people and proved very successful.

LUTHER PATTERSON, of Mactnaquack, had a pig on sale this morning, one year and six months old, which weighed 524 pounds. For the last three months it could not see out of its eyes for fat.—Fredericton Farmer.

THAT HANDSOME new residence of Mr. R. D. Wilmot, M. P., at Belmont, is rapidly approaching completion. The plasterers expect to complete their job next week, and Mr. Wilmot will probably occupy his new home in March.

JUVENILE CONCERT.—A grand juvenile concert will be held in the Baptist Mission hall, Haymarket square, this evening at 8 o'clock. The proceeds are to be devoted to church work. A good time may be expected at the entertainment.

SABATTIS, the Milicete sagamore from Pleasant Point, Charlotte county, is now paying a visit to Mr. C. C. Ward, the artist at Kolbeasy. We understand that Mr. Ward will shortly leave for a two months' trip to New York. Sabattis has frequently been painted by Mr. Ward in his pictures.

A BIG CROP.—Mr. Phair, the well known starch manufacturer of Presque Isle, says that the potato crop of this year in Aroostook county will realize $2,000,000. This is $400,000 more than the entire lumber product of the St. John river last year. Mr. Phair states that he has paid $100,000 for potatoes for starch this year.

LYTELL'S DRAMATIC Company begins its return engagement at the Institute on Monday evening next in the popular melo-drama "Hoodman Blind." This is a most interesting play and from the care taken in preparation ought to draw well. For the Christmas matinee "The Guv'ner" is to be played, and on Christmas night the bill will be "The Banker's Daughter."

UNCLE TOM TO-NIGHT.—The Boston Ideal Dramatic Co. open their short season at the Palace with "Uncle Tom's Cabin." As the company is a fine one, and make a specialty of this play carrying their own scenery, three large bloodhounds, a trick monkey &c., there will be nothing wanting to ensure the success of this old timed favorite play to-night. A crowded house should greet them.

MASONIC OFFICERS.—At the meeting of Carleton Royal Arch Chapter, held in the Masonic temple last night, the following officers were elected: Harold Gilbert, Principal Z; A. I. Truenan, Principal H.; G. R. Devitt, Principal J.; T. N. Robertson, (P. Z.) Scribe E.; John C. Miles, Scribe N.; W. C. Godsoe, T.; F. L. Tuffs, C. of H.; M. B. Dixon, P. S.; John Rubins, R. A. C.; R. I. Smith, M. of 3rd; D. Miller Olive, M. of 2nd; R. C. Farmer, M. of 1st; D. Scribner, tyler.

A PRAISEWORTHY EFFORT.—Misses Bella and Ethel Letson and Edith and Annie Fleiger of Chatham, collected $50 for the purpose of purchasing a Christmas present of an invalid's chair for a little girl at Escuminac, whose need of one appealed to the sympathies of these young ladies. The chair is a very complete one having modern scientific mechanism of the latest and best kind. Misses Letson and Fleiger deserve great credit for their kindness and we know the recipient will be very happy over the result of their efforts.—Chatham Advance.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.—The St. John school of music and elocution closed last evening for a short vacation. The closing entertainment was very largely attended and by a cultivated audience who were delighted by the manner in which the various pieces on the programme were rendered, the admitted gem of the entertainment being Mrs. Parker's statue recital. The term just closed has been a prosperous one, over sixty pupils being registered. The school will re-open on January 5th and the Saturday recitals will thereafter be resumed as usual. During the vacation Miss Hitchens will visit Boston, and purposes while there to secure a good violinist who, while being prepared to teach, will also be open to engagements as a soloist. A teacher of painting will also be secured.

PERSONS DESIRING BEAUTIFUL and faithful enlarged photos will find at Climo's all they require in price and truthful portraiture.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Lacrosse.

NO CHAMPIONSHIP FOR CORNWALL.

MONTREAL, Dec. 17.—After a whole season's hard work on the lacrosse field, many heart-burnings and recriminations, the much-vexed question of the larcrosse championship has at last been settled, not in a very satisfactory way, it is true, but in the only way that was left open for an honorable adjustment. It may appear a little rough on Cornwall, but Cornwall took chances in playing a protested man, and lost the chance when it came to show down. The Toronto club have given an example that might be followed with advantage by other leading clubs. They recognized that Cornwall had won the greater number of matches on the field, but they also saw the illegality of the way in which it was done, and to preserve the purity of smateurism, they contested Cornwall's right to the title. This, in the ordinary course of events, gave Toronto the right to claim the championship, but with an unselfishness seldom seen in lacrosse clubs, the Toronto representative made known his club's intention not to claim or even accept the trophy it offered to them.

At the meeting of the committee appointed to settle the matter a resolution was adopted to the effect that since the Cornwall club had won the most games with the assistance of one Jacob Leroux, whose amateur standing was protested by the Montreal and Toronto clubs, and who was declared a professional by the Amateur Athletic association of Canada, no championship for 1890, be awarded.

The Ring.

DEMPSEY AND FITZSIMMONS.

A conference was held at New Orleans yesterday, between the managers of the Olympic Club, Jack Dempsey and Jimmie Carroll, the latter representing Fitzsimmons, to settle arrangements as to the fight to come off between Dempsey and Fitzsimmons on Jan. 14.

It is understood that all the arrangements were made and a referee agreed on. Dempsey and Fitzsimmons posted their forfeit money of $1000 each.

LOCAL "PUGS."

Some of the local boxers got at each other last night in the ship laborers hall, Germain street, and made fun for a large number of spectators. The first set-to was between James Whalen and Pat Murray, Whalen proving himself the better man. Whalen then sparred three rounds with Frank Campbell, and a wind up between Jim Stack and Billy Savage then took place, 4 rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules. Both men proved themselves good and the mill was declared a draw.

The deposit posted by Kemp in the O'Connor match will be forfeited.

Wedding at Rothesay.

The wedding of Mr. Henry Gilbert jr. and Catherina Parks, daughter of the late Thomas Parks, was celebrated last evening in St. Paul's church at Rothesay. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. G. Knowledge: A Weekly Magazine.

Knowledge is a unique little magazine which ought to have great popularity among all owners of Cyclopedias. It undertakes to supply the information which one ordinarly seeks in his Cyclopedia and fails to find there, because it is not up to date. "The world moves," and the most important questions are of today, not of yesterday; Knowledge answers, during the year, several thousand such questions. It is published for the amazingly small sum of 50 cents a year. John B. Alden, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York.

THE COVAY CASE.

The Cross-Examination of Covay Finished—Captain Rawlings on the Stand—Adjourned till Saturday Morning.

The cross-examination of Covay was finished yesterday afternoon shortly after the GAZETTE went to press. The court room was crowded all day and great interest was displayed in the proceedings. Covay, while in the witness box giving his statement looked as easy as possible under the circumstances. Most of the time he stood with his right foot on the seat in the box while he held a firm grip on the railing each side of him with his hands. He denied almost everything that had been charged against him and was on the alert in the cross-examination, glancing quickly from one lawyer to the other.

After Covay's cross examination was finished, Captain Rawlings was called. He testified as to knowing Covay and Mrs. Woodburn and told of the making of raids on Mrs. Woonburn's place repeating the statements Covay had made in regard the answers they had given Mrs. Woodburn when she said she owned the police force body and bones. The patrol book was produced and from it Capt. Rawlings proceeded to show that Covay and Burchill were not together on the Sheffield street late in August but for the week ending 17th of August Burchill was detailed for night duty on Sheffield street and Sergt. Covay was day patrol sergeant. Next week Burchill was on day patrol on Sheffield street and Sergt. Covay was night patrol sergeant. Next week, ending August 24th, Burchill was on night duty, Market square, and Covay was day patrol sergeant. He had shown the book to the chief, J. L. Carlton and Covay. Had looked at it himself to see if Mrs. W's statements had been correct. The men on the beats might be changed in an emergency and he would not know anything about it unless it was incorporated in the report made to him by the patrol sergeant in the morning. Covay had a right to change a man, and he would not know of it unless he visited the beats himself. He would not swear that men were not changed at this time, unless he could examine the book and find out. He would not swear that Covay had not transferred Burchill in June. He did not remember that Covay ever reported to him that he had transferred Burchill. If such a report had been made the books should show it.

Adjourned at 6.15 p. m. till Saturday morning.

The Irish Delegates.

Major Stephenson writes from Charlottetown P. E. I., on the 16th Dec.—

"I hope to have the pleasure of seeing more of St. John at no very distant date. After leaving you, Murphy and myself had a pleasant day at Amherst, where we visited the ship railway and had the honor of being the first outsiders carried over this work. We spent the day with Colonel Blair at Nappan experimental farm, and from there to Halifax. Murphy sailed in the Sardinian on 13th and I go by the Toronto on 20th for dear old Derry. Wishing our St. John friends all good till I see them again, for we are are coming back."

We are glad to hear from Major Stephenson and Mr. Murphy and hope they will send out to this province a few hundred as bright and handsome young Irishmen, as they are. If they do the next question here, will take the prize for good looks and good fellowship.

Notice to Mariners.

Washington, D C, Dec 16—The Lighthouse Board gives notice that on and after Dec 31, 1890, a fixed red light of the fifth order, with a fixed white sector, will be exhibited from the structure recently erected on the ledge, which about half tide, known as Goose Rocks, on the northerly side of the main easterly entrance to Fox Island Thoroughfare, Me. The light will illuminate the entire horizon. The white sector will lie between the bearings, from seaward, NW ¼ W and NW ¾ N, one and one-half points of the compass, and will mark the fair way between Channel Rock and Bradstreet's Rock. The focal plane is 56 feet above mean sea level, and the white light may be seen in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 15 feet above the sea 13 nautical miles. The structure consists of a black cylindrical foundation pier surmounted by a brown conical tower, above which rises a black lantern. A gallery, with roof, surrounds the base of the tower. The approximate geographical position of the lighthouse as taken from Chart 311a of the US Coast and Geodetic Survey, is: Latitude, north, 44 deg 0 min; longitude, west 68 49 (52). Bearings and distances of prominent objects are approximately as follows: Tripod on Channel Rock, SE by E ¼ E, 1 nautical mile; bell buoy off Channel Rock, SE ¼ E, 1 7-10 nautical miles; Bradstreet's Rock, SSW ¾ E, 1 nautical mile; flagstaff on hospital, Widow's Island, S by W, 5-10 nautical miles; spindle on Iron Point Ledge, WSW ¼ W, 1¼ nautical miles. All bearings are magnetic and given approximately. The fog bell is not ready for operation. Due notice of its establishment will be given.

OATS. OATS.

Our faith in high prices led us to purchase very largely early in the season. Our stock is now coming forward rapidly, and can offer dealers at lowest prices, with the advantage of having a large number of cars to select from. We predict sixty cents per bushel later and would advise our friends to put away all they require for winter and spring,
