Price of Fish

The price of fish is now $5.80 in St. John's and $5.50 in the outports. West India is quoted at $3.50 in St. John's. The catch in sight will no doubt be larger than last year, and the Norwegian catch is far greater than for 1910. We would advise those having fish to market it as quickly as possible.

Home's Report

The S. S. Home arrived at Bay of Islands Wednesday afternoon, from Battle Harbor and Straits ports. Captain Keen sent the following report to the Reid Newfoundland Company:
 "Arrived at Battle Harbor at noon, Saturday; met fine weather the whole trip. Fishery still poor in the Straits; nothing doing whatever from Battle Hr. to Bonne Esperance. The same conditions apply to the Newfoundland side, except at Ha Ha Bay. Traps here are doing well, and getting 30 to 60 quintals each haul. At Battle Hr. there is an improvement with both hook and line and traps."

 Fishery Warden.

Big Drop in Fish Prices

Yesterday there was quite a drop in fish prices, which, in some cases, lessens the value to the catcher as much as 70 cents, compared with last week.

The decline is around, Mercantile and Madeira fish, all qualities—or talqual—being quoted at $5.80 in St. John's and $5.50 in the outports.

Salmon has dropped one dollar for all grades.

Cod oil has also lessened in price, the quotations being $90.00 hardwood casks; softwood casks, $84.00.

The prices were decided upon by the purchasers after a lengthy discussion of a message received yesterday forenoon, that Cholera was reported very bad in Italy and Sicily, and that French and Norwegian were offering at lower prices than last week.—News, Aug. 10.

$25,000 Damages

W. H. Taylor vs. Dr. E. Lehwiss

In consequence of a statement made by Dr. Edward Lehwiss, representing the London Financial News, owned by Horatio Bottomley, Esq., M. P., of England, in the Dept. of Agriculture and Mines last week, Mr. W. H. Taylor, broker, has instituted proceedings against the former, claiming $25,000 damages. Dr. Lehwiss it is alleged, stated that he had seen an affidavit made by Taylor to the effect that the latter had expended the sum of $22,000 on the property which is held by the Nfld. Oil (Parent) Development Syndicate, and plaintiff claims that this is s'andorous and calculated to do him injury. Mr. Martin W. Farlong, K. C., has been engaged as plaintiff's counsel. The writ was served on Dr. Lehwiss yesterday afternoon and will not be returnable until four days expire.—Chronicle, Aug. 8.

The Hand at the Wheel

Sent The Guardian by A. Snow, Manchester, Mass.

It matters not what course my ship may go,
 That leaves the port 'neath skies so calm and clear;
 Though, later, threatening winds may wildly blow,
 Of harm I have no fear.

The storm may beat in fury round my barque;
 The ocean's spray up to the mast-head leap;
 The way be long, the night be starless, dark,—
 Secure my course I keep.

It matters not how swift may be the tide;
 Tho' lightning cleave with lurid flame the sky;
 But that my ship will every storm outride,
 On this I can rely.

Nor does it matter when the goal I gain,
 Nor if the ship be stript of every mast;
 My heart nor lips will murmur or complain
 When safe the anchor's cast.

Why, there is such a flood of hope in me,
 To doubting hearts this much I will reveal,
 The hand that launched my barque on life's great sea,
 Is ever at the wheel.

Rumors Denied

(Editor the Guardian).

Dear Sir,—I want to deny the rumors that have been circulated of late that salmon and trout have been taken at Shearston Pond and Brook by other means than by hook and line.
