Wedding Bells

(Ayre-Dawe)
Topsail, the popular seaside resort, witnessed the performance of a very pretty wedding ceremony on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 18th, when Miss Marion Isabella Ayre, of St. John's, daughter of the late Geo. and Isabella Ayre, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Geo. Dawe, I.P., of Port de Grave. The bride wore a travelling costume of cream serge, trimmed with chamoise satin and pretty picture hat, trimmed with ostrich plumes. The bridesmaid, her sister, Lilian, wore a beautiful gown of pink nixon, with heavy overlace, and a large picture hat of black. Mr. John Dawe, of Fay Roberts, capably performed the duties of best man. The bride was given away by Mr. William Piercey, of Jas. Baird's Ltd., an old friend of the family.
Mrs. Harold Andrews presided at the church organ, accompanying the singing of that beautiful hymn, "The Voice That Breathed Over Eden," whilst the ceremony was being performed. The happy couple marched down the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, proceeding therefrom to the home of Mrs. Butler where the wedding supper was partaken of. Rev. Mr. Bailey toasted the bride and groom. Many valuable and useful presents were received by the happy couple.
The Guardian extends its heartiest congratulations, and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Dawe many happy years of married life.

All Attacks Failed
Paris, Oct. 26.—The Germans made four successive violent attacks on the Verdun front against Donamont position today, but all failed according to a bulletin by the war office tonight. The number of prisoners to date is 5,000.
Petrograd, Oct. 26.—The pressure of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army in Dobrujda against the Russian and Roumanian forces has weakened somewhat the war office announced today.

NEWS IN A LINE

Fence Posts for sale. Apply to C. E. Russell, Bay Roberts.
R. Churchill's schooner Ellen left port for Harbor Grace this morning to load a quantity of refined cod oil for St. John's.
Since last issue our Labrador vessels have all arrived home. Some of them have been stripped and laid up for the winter.
The schooner Kitchener, which sunk in the harbor about three weeks ago, was raised by a crew of men during Wednesday and Thursday and now swings at her anchors again.
By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the annual Sale of Work and Tea, held by the Salvation Army, will take place on November 7th and 8th next.
The linemen of the U. T. Electric Co. have been busy in town during the past week connecting houses with the system. The wires were strung as far as the new C. of E. Rectory and connected therewith.
Holdups occur nightly on the streets of St. John's, according to the daily press. It would seem as if the low down ruffians that infest the city are taking undue advantage of the conditions of darkness existing to practice their ruffianism with high handed effrontery. No mercy should be shown those caught or who have cases proved against them.
Died
On Oct. 20th, Susanna Gertrude, darling child of Arthur and Lizzie Wipsor, aged 8 1/2 months.
