Help Wanted—Male
WANTED—In every ward an energetic man or woman, commencing work at once; experience unnecessary; our high-grade specialty sells on sight in every part of the world. For article to-day with the brush had not been known until the ajller sent him to beautify the premises by whitewashing the high board, hence. His skilful attracted attention and high commendations were expressed by his guards. Joe had been a model prisoner, attentive and obedient and he was given liberties sometimes denied the average prisoner. It was while engaged with the whitewash that he observed his freedom from surveillance. The transition mania was evolved in a fertile brain, and Joe proceeded to whitewash the striped convict trousers.

Admirable was the effect. The leather shoes were next treated to a liberal coat. Sealing the wall the happy "tourist" walked leisurely down Main street, and the general impression was conveyed everywhere that the "tourist" trade was opening up nicely.

But the thought of recapture stimulated Joe's activity and he took a "tie" passage to Huntville. He is now in the woods a few miles out of town enjoying the fullest liberty Muskoka affords to the summer visitor. Meanwhile Brucebridge discusses the effect of the innovation on the tourist trade generally and the jailer is to petition Hon. W. J. Hanna to disallow the use of whitewash as a summer decorative agent.

ALLIES OF DAN CUPID.
Spokane Physician Will Not Charge For Examination of Those Seeking Marriage Licenses.

Spokane, Wash., July 5.—If there is a sudden rush of business in the office of the marriage license clerk it will be attributed to the Spokane County Medical Society, which is Dan Cupid's latest ally. The members of that organization, by a two-thirds vote, have decided that during the remainder of the present year they will not charge a fee for physical examinations to those seeking marriage licenses as required by the new law. Physicians have been charging from $5 to $8 for examining couples. This extra expense, it is said, has made some prospective groomsmen think twice before taking the step.

TWO KILLED BY LIGHTNING.
Denver, Colo., July 5.—Lightning killed two children, set half a dozen fires in the residence district and temporarily delayed street car traffic on Saturday. The children, Rose Garland, 8 years old, and Edward Henry Garland, 9 years old, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Patricia Garland, were in their home when killed.
