Lines ON THE DEATH OF MRS. R. FLANAGAN. Dear sister you have left us

Too good to stay, He took thee, Who loved thee for the best To thy angel babes in heaven, And to thy eternal rest. Brothers and sisters, scattered far Did hear the news with grief.

Dear companion of my youth, Of all who loved thee well, There's one who'll mourn the longest. Far more than tongue cart tell. . Whose lot was far from friends And childhood's happy home, Who has no hope left now on earth

But live and die alone. Our heavenly Father sends us Those Crosses in our lives,
To teach us to remember
That death comes by surprise Oh! Father, in thy eternal mercy. May grace to us be given To do Thy holy will on earth, And thereby merit heaven.
