The wood house (where a goodly supply of meeting of the Westmordand municipall council the report of the auditor was submitted, showing the finances of the county to be in a very healthy state. The bonded indebtedness of the county has been reduced from $12,000 in 1890 to $8,300, and the sinking fund provides for the wiping out of the debt. in 1910. The receipts on general account last year were $35,135.74, and the expenditure $34,334.08. Arrears of taxes, etc., returned since the close of the year bring the amount at the credit of the county up to $2,639.79, as report Auditor Trueman tendered his resignation, which was accepted after the council had placed on record its high appreciation of the gentleman's every satisfaction for ten years past. In this connection a rather remarkable coincidence may be mentioned, the retiring auditor, the warden of the county (Mr. Kay), and the clerk of the peace (C. E. The several elements of society have each contributed characteristic peculiari-ties. The pulpit has spoken, the press has announced, there has been offi-cial fiddling and political pulling. Two justices of the peace, one police macompared with $2,620.28 same date last year. The liabilities of the county on current absolut amount to only about $2,000, and there are assets of about the same amount. After reading the more briefs have been circulated to excite the sympathy and benevolence of the populace, the result of which was a cause of satisfaction to some and of surprise and deep regret to others, as it lined up citizens in a manner surer than words can affirm, formoney talks. The latest and possibly the most spicy sensational ripple is just now stirring the social puddle. A few days ago, Williamson, who was confined in the county jail, was taken by the sheriff before Mr. Justice Wedderburn at Hillsboro, and given the option of a speedy trial, which he declined, as already stated in the Sun, and on being taken back to jail Williamson decided to give bail in the amount offered to be taken by the committing magistrate, and men-tioned Mr. Prescott of Albert and Mr. Pearson of Riverside as bondsmen. Before those gentlemen reached the shiretown word was received by one of them that the clerk of the peace had been heard to say that he had advised Williamson that, in the event of bail being given, he (Williamson) had better "skip or get out." Judge Trueman hearing the rumor, immediately wrote the clerk of the peace asking as to its truthfulness. The clerk of the peace replied promptly, emphatically denying the accusation against him, and stated that some conversation was had before a person whom he suspected of placing a wrong interpretation upon his words, and mentioned the name of the man in his letter. And in the Albert Maple Leaf of this date appears a communication from the clerk of the peace, which

abundantly speaks for itself: UNQUALIFIED DENIAL To the Editor of the Maple Leaf: To the Editor of the Maple Leaf:

I have just received a letter from a friend which says: "It is circulated around here that you advised or suggested to Williamson that he had better skip in the event of bail being put in." Permit me to give the statement a most unqualified denial.

It is wholly false, and it is most unfortunate that our county is cursed with some person or persons whose buriness in life seems to be the manufacture and dissemination of falsehood.

Yours truly,

(Signed) JOS. H. DICKSON, Clerk of the Peace, County of Albert. Hopowell Cape, Dec. 30, 1897. Mr. Prescott did not go bail for Williamson, but the same has been given and Williamson is out of jail.

Today the gentleman whose name was mentioned in the letter to Judge True. mentioned in the letter to Judge True-man called on Mr. Dickson, and after satisfying that gentleman that the matter complained of had neither directly or indirectly been communicated to Mr. Prescott by him, accepted the ample apology of that official, who claims to be far above making false accusations against any man.

It is probable that the matter will be fully investigated, and Mr. Prescott's informant will be called on to verify or retract his statement, and that Williamson will be interrogated as to the origin of this affair. HOPEWELL HILL, Jan. 6.- Miss ANDOVER, Victoria Co., Jan. 6.-The ratepayers of Andover met last evening to further consider the matter of providing a system of water and fire protection purposes in the village. The matter has been under considera-tion for some time, and last night a decisive step was taken. The report of the committee, F. N. Welling, A. E. Kupkey and M. S. Sutton, who had been appointed at a previous meeting to make enquiries and obtain information relative to the matter, was read and considered. A motion was made by T. J. Carter, seconded by M. S. Sutton that the necessary legislation be obtained for the incorporation of the village of Andover for fire and water purposes, according to the scheme sub-mitted in the report of the committee, with power to issue bonds to the extent of and not exceeding $10,000. The motion was carried almost unanimously, and votes of thanks were rendered to the committee and to W. B. Hoyt, who had given his time and services in making the necessary surveys. . .

ANDOVER, Jan. 3.—The members

dover met in their church on the evening of December 28th and presented Mrs. S. P. Waite with a chair, as a ! token of their esteem for her long services as the leader of church music in the village of Andover. The village of Andover is fortunate in having a lady of such rare musical talent as Mrs. Waite, especially as she has, during her whole life, devoted so much of her time towards the encouragement of musical education. The following address was also presented Mrs. Waite:

Mrs. Weaste:
Dear Mrs. S. P. Waite—Permit me on behalf of the choir and congregation of Saint dames Presbyterian church to present you with this chair, as a token of their appreciation of your services as leader of the choir.
We are not unmindful of the length of time you have filled this position, not only since the opening of the present church, where we now worship, but even before that date, when we were not so comfortably situated as we now are.
We also remember that in this work you have not spared any personal inconvenience, but have opened your house for practice during the winter, have zealously been at your post on all possible occasions, have had an eye to our needs and suggested and taken measures to secure the best selections of music, even outside of that prescribed for the service of praise in this church.
Moreover, we are not unmindful of the fact that you have brought into the work a rare music, even outside of that prescribed for the service of praise in this church.

Morrover, we are not unmindful of the fact that you have brought into the work a rare proficiency and ability. This, together with systematic drill and patience, which yourself and those associated with you have bestewed on the work, has done much to raise the standard of praise in this congregation. Your training has done and is doing much to prepare your associates to fill places of trecturess in this important part of the worship of Almighty God.

We may not omit to note the sacredness of that part of the worship which yourself and the choir are privileged to lead. The service of praise is higher than preaching or even prayer. It not only ranks with these in preparing the heart for communion with God, but in the highest and ideal form praise is the outgoing of redeemed souls in actual communion with God. Therefore, an able, efficient and godly choir is of great assistance in the worship of the sanctuary.

As a choir we doin in the warmest and best wishes to our leader; as a congregation we feel proud of our choir, and join in the warmest and best wishes to both choir and leader; and as choir and congregation we take much pleasure in presenting Mrs. S. P. Waite, the leader of the choir, with this token of our regard and appreciation.

Yours cordially.

H. G. GRATZ, Pastor,

FREDERICTON.

An Exchange of Pulpits-The Governor and the Capital of the Province.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 9.-The pastors of St. Paul's, the Methodist and Baptist churches exchanged pulpits this evening. Rev. Mr. Hartley, pas-tor of the Free Baptist church, is M, suffering from a severe cold. The York county court opens on Tuesday. Judge Forbes will preside.

The Assembly club lately organized for social recreation and the cultivation of the terpischorian art will rold its first function at Windsor hall Tuesday evening.

Fredericton has no record of Lord

Aberdeen's "visit to the capital of the province" during the tour in New Brunswick last autumn. As a matter of fact the governor general and his estimable lady have only paid one visit to the capital of this province during their term of office in Canada.
