GLAD THAT THE END OF THE TRIAL IS IN SIGHT

NEW YORK, March 16.—"Thank God, the end is in sight." This was the fervent whisper of District Attorney Jerome at the Thaw trial yesterday, uttered loud enough for the reporter to hear, following a favorable decision by Justice Fitzgerald regarding the Hummel affidavit.

The strain on those attending the trial has been severe. This was the last day of the trial, and the lawyers for the defense and the district attorney, when Mr. Jerome asked for an additional fifteen minutes yesterday at the usual hour for adjournment, Mr. Delmas protested, declaring that his endurance had been stretched to the breaking point. He would not consent to another minute of extra session.

Mr. Jerome did his best to get from Mr. Delmas an estimate of the length of time that would be required to complete the rebuttal, but Thaw's lawyer declined to give any suggestion on this line. It is generally believed, however, that the trial will close on Monday. Lawyer Hummel testified only as to its tendency, and through other witnesses Mr. Jerome established the fact that photographic evidence of the affidavit were in existence. He then asked that the affidavit be read, but Lawyer Delmas objected as time for adjournment had come.

It is thought that he will object to its reading on Monday. The affidavit gives Evelyn Nesbit's story of the wanderings of herself and Thaw on the continent, during which time the affidavit says, Thaw beat her several time because of her refusal to sign papers charging White with drugging and assaulting her when she was girl of fifteen. The affidavit also states that Evelyn Nesbit submitted to the lash, declaring that White had never wronged her—a sworn statement directly contradicting what she swore on the stand she told Thaw in Paris. For a few minutes Evelyn Thaw was on the stand yesterday. Except for looking a trifle pale and thinner she was the same young woman in every particular who testified to the most sensational story of the trial.

RUSSIAN WORKMAN MAY #### BE WANTED FOR MURDER

MONTREAL, March 16.—John Griffin, 35 years of age, of 385 Leveaux street, is dying in the general hospital here from a fractured skull, the result of a blow given him over the head by a Russian who was employed along with him in the premises of King Warden & Co. The affair took place on March 14, and the Russian has since disappeared. The police are at work on the case.

A NATIONAL FUNERAL

FOR THE IENA VICTIMS

TOULON, France, March 16.—The victims of the explosion on board the battleship Iena, March 12, were given an imposing national funeral today. All business was suspended, the public and many private buildings were draped in black, and the lighted street lamps were covered with crepe.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 16.—The audience which Ambassador Leishman had of the Sultan yesterday mostly concerned the recognition of the American schools and missions in the Turkish empire. The question appears to be approaching a satisfactory settlement.

First Opening Spring Hats.

An early Easter this season means with us an early show of lovely hats.

The days appointed are Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Every effort has been made and no expense spared to make this a banner opening of dainty millinery.

Our milliner, Miss Trafton, spent some time in New York making a study of the season's styles, and attending the principal Millinery trade openings.

Every indication points to a far finer display of pattern hats than any season here-to-fore.

We would extend a hearty invitation to all who are interested in pretty hats to come and see this collection, even if you do not intend to buy.

There are so many unique designs and such vast changes in shapes and trimmings that from the point of view of curiosity alone you will be repaid for any effort made to attend on these opening days—Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Invitation Extends to the Ladies' New Spring Costumes.

When you are here on Tuesday or Wednesday next to see the Spring Hats, do not pass through the mantle department without looking at the new tailored Suits and spring Coats.

There are many remarkably pretty costumes in fancy tweed mixtures as well as fine plaid venetians and broadcloths.

Costumes, $10.95 to $28.00
Spring Coats, 5.00 to 19.00
Misses' Coats, 2.50 to 9.50

Then Don't Forget all the New Things Down Stairs.

Before you pass out on coming down stairs from Millinery and Mantles take a look at the new Silk Waists at the centre counter. There are some mighty pretty waists and the prices make them really leaders in the city trade. You would also be interested in the new "Saxony" laces that come with allovers, Wide laces and insertions to match—a thing so hard to find, and just in the daintiest of designs.

There are a hundred of the newest veils to show you, too. You may like to find something out of the ordinary.

BOY WAS SMOTHERED

IN A HEAP OF SNOW

NEW YORK, March 15.—John Meara, the 16 year old son of Police Officer Meara, was smothered to death today in the ruins of a snow fort which he had helped other boys to build. His brother Edward, aged 12 years, was dug out only in time to save his life. Against a high board fence the boys had packed a square of damp heavy snow eight feet high into which they were burrowing when the roof collapsed.

MAN IS MISSING AND #### SO IS THE MONEY

BERLIN, March 16.—Cashier Speyer of the Mueller Industrial Bank of this city has disappeared, leaving a shortage of $150,000. It is considered probable that he lost the money in stock speculations. The bank successfully met a run on it, which began when the news of the disappearance reached the depositors.

STOLE CASH AND #### COMMITTED SUICIDE

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Rather than face prosecution for the embezzlement of $2,000 from the brokerage firm of Wade & Hedges of which he was manager, Charles Abbott, 29 years old, late tonight committed suicide by shooting. After Abbott had failed to make his weekly settlement today Mr. Wade, the senior member of the firm, visited the branch office tonight to examine the books. As he entered the office he stumbled over Abbott's body and at once notified the police, and corner.

Abbott's father attributes his son's downfall to the sudden fluctuation in various stocks in Wall Street.

Tonight at the Queen's Rollaway after the tenth band there will be two races. Dearborn and Olive, two evenly matched boys, will skate a half mile, and the first of a series of three one mile races between those two fast boys Olive and Hunter will be skated.

HEIRLOOM PICTURE

CUT FROM THEIR FRAMES

English Country Mansion Raided and Many Objects of Art Stolen.

LONDON, March 16.—Following the robbery of valuable old masters from Park Lane, and a few days later from an art gallery at Fwihell, comes news that a similar theft of heirloom pictures has taken place at Lydiat Hall, near Ormskirk, a mansion belonging to Charles Weld-Blundell.

In addition to the paintings, the thieves took away some beautiful carved paneling work, which formed part of the ornamentation of the principal rooms. The house has been unoccupied for some time, and is unfurnished, but the pictures, being family heirlooms, had to be left in the house under a clause in the will of a previous Squire of Ince Blundell. Lydiat Hall stands in a secluded part of the country, and the thieves seem to have gone about their work with great deliberation.

Entrance was obtained by a window. The stolen pictures were cut out of the frames with a sharp knife. The police have the matter in hand.

Mr. Weld-Blundell is a member of an old Lancashire family. He has spent large sums in acquiring works of art, and his seat, Ince Blundell Hall, which is not far from Lydiat Hall, has a European reputation for its art treasures, which comprise by far the largest private collection of antique maps in the country. Mr. Blundell spends a great part of the year at Lulworth Castle, in Dorset, where he entertained the king some years ago.

TRAIN RAN IN OVER

TWO FEET OF WATER

Passengers on the Chicago Flyer Given a Refund of Passage Money Because Train Was Late.

CHICAGO, March 16.—Thirty-four passengers on the Pennsylvania eighteen hour reached Chicago nine hours late yesterday after varied experiences, including a rebate of $5 each from the railroad company for inability to make its schedule. The train came over the Panhandle route from Pittsburgh. Its troubles began sixty miles east of Pittsburgh where a freight wreck was encountered. It reached Pittsburgh in the midst of rising waters. Ten miles west of Pittsburgh it ran through water eighteen inches deep. Ahead was a stretch of five miles of deeper water which was rising rapidly. A second engine was destroyed by the street and the train pulled back to Pittsburgh through twenty-five inches of water.

Early in the morning the train started for Chicago over the Panhandle route.

A MILLION DOLLAR FIRE

IN LONDON THIS MORNING

Three Big Warehouses in the Industrial Centre Destroyed.

LONDON, March 16.—Three big warehouses in the Finsbury district, London's busiest industrial centre, were destroyed by fire this morning, causing damage to the extent of about a million.

Starting in Featherstone street, in the premises of Cox & Co., hat manufacturers, the flames, fanned by a strong wind, jumped the street and were extinguished by the establishment of the Maxim Co., wood turners, and spread to the adjoining warehouses of Green & Co., shoe manufacturers. Owing to the strength of the wind it appeared for a time as though the whole block of adjoining property would be devastated, but after three hours of hard work, the firemen gained control of the situation.

AMBASSADOR PUT HIS #### FOOT IN IT THAT TIME

HAVANA, March 16.—The French minister to Cuba, M. La Falvrie, went on board the French steamer La Champagne yesterday to pay a visit. When he came to leave the vessel he was told she was in quarantine and that he could not go ashore. Efforts were made to get into communication with Governor Magoon, but it was so late when he was found that M. La Falvrie was compelled to spend the night on board. It is said that the steamer had not been declared in quarantine.

TRIED TO SHOOT A MAN

WHEN HE WAS IN BED

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 15.—Several shots were fired to the bedroom of Thomas G. Watson, son of Thomas E. Watson, the former presidential candidate of the Populist ticket, at their home at Thomas, Ga., early today and while it was later claimed that the investigation indicates a plot against Thomas E. Watson or his family, no definite clue was obtained.

Several shots were fired late last night in the backyard of the Watsons, former presidential candidate's son-in-law, but none of the shots were directed at the house. At 2 o'clock this morning two loads of shot were fired through the younger Watson's room but did not go near the bed. Watson immediately summoned Sheriff Hayes and the premises were searched but without result. The affair caused considerable excitement.

COMMERCIAL

WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Prices continued their upward course in the opening dealings. While the rise was violent in many of the prominent issues, there was a scattering of losses among less conspicuous stocks. The report followed the opening dealings, running to 1 to 1-1-4 in several of the active stocks.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The European crop report of the department of agriculture, which has just been issued, shows that throughout the greater part of Europe the autumn crops have lain during February under a covering of snow. Widespread injury is believed to have been thus averted, the weather having been everywhere more or less severe. The report adds: "Officially it is reported that in the United Kingdom the condition of winter cereals is fairly satisfactory. In France and Germany, however, no little anxiety has been felt over the frequency of reports of winter killing from unprotected localities."

"In Austria-Hungary and the Baltic states confidence is felt that ample snow protection has saved the plants. In European Russia the crops are reported to have withstood under snow, but late reports indicate some deterioration in conditions."

"Official reports on crop conditions speak of old in many countries this spring with more than ordinary anxiety."

STOOD THE SHOCK WELL. NEW YORK, March 16.—Men in the financial district were still marvelling today over the way the "Street" had stood the shock of the past two days of the worst liquidation the Stock Exchange has known for years together prices. Not a firm is reported in difficulties. This is attributed to the long period of prosperity which the country has enjoyed.

The cheer that was heard at the close of the session on the Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon, following a day of substantial rally was echoed across New Street, for the "little board" too had weathered the storm. The consolidated report did not claim the proud record of the "big" exchange, since there was one failure on Thursday, but, as every broker met his obligations yesterday at the clearing house. President Ogden C. Budd insisted that the smaller exchange, like the larger, had displayed an endurance and resistance unprecedented in Wall Street's history. There were many reports, however, regarding the source and backing of yesterday's rally. Some credited it to E. H. Harriman, others to the Rockefeller family, and so on. It is known pretty definitely, however, that those of the Ryan and Morton Trust Company put very close to $4,000,000 in the purchase of securities. Mr. Ryan, it is said, had not previously been in the market for three years. E. H. Harriman, speaking of the market's aspect last night, said:

"I think the worst is now over. It has probably left a good many lame ducks in the Street, but I anticipate no failures. I used to say, when I was in the Street, and it will probably prove true this time, that the first failure after an event of this kind is likely to be a bear failure."

CHICAGO FLYER RAN

INTO AN OPEN SWITCH

DURAND, Mich., March 16.—The Atlantic express on the Grand Trunk Railroad, due here at 5:55 this morning, en route for Port Huron and Sarnia, ran into an open switch at Bancroft, five miles from here, and struck a freight train. Five persons were badly injured, two of them perished fatally. Engineer A. B. Schram, and fireman Frank Connor, both of Battle Creek, Mich., suffered broken limbs.

If advertising did not pay advertisers would not keep on expending thousands of dollars per year for it. All the people cannot be fooled all the time. If advertising did not pay, its demerits would have been exposed long before this. The best proof that advertising pays lies in the fact that advertisers continue its use year after year.—Advertiser.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Leonard Smith of Sussex, are spending a few days at the Royal.
Walter E. Stockton left on the steamer Calvin Austin Thursday morning for Portland, Maine, where he will visit his brother, F. C. W. Stockton. Before returning to St. John he will visit Boston and Providence, R. I.
