

Have You Got $5.00?

Understand me now—I didn't say:

"Have you got $5.00 that you can SPARE?"

What I did say was:

"Have you got $5.00?"

You have? Then, let's go on.

You are living at home, I take it—with your family—in your own home—with plenty to eat—sleeping warm o' nights—and with a job and a salary.

And you have $5.00!

And the war has interested you. You woke early mornings to see how many more Huns our boys had taken. Unless you are a rare being, you talked war whenever you met more than one acquaintance at a time.

You were thrilled when you read the boys' letters home—how this corporal took a machine gun all by himself, etc.

And you have $5.00—And—

But what I want to know is—how you can keep that $5.00 you have? Bought bonds? Of course you have. But you've got $5.00 haven't you? And you'll have another $1.00 every week, won't you? And you can smother some little, selfish, foolish, useless indulgence and SAVE that $1.00 towards ONE MORE BOND, can't you?
