Fire On S.S. Lancastrian Halifax, Dec. 20—It was a case of life and death and a fight to finish.
said Captain W. F. Wood, D. S. O., master of the Leyland Liner Lancas-trian, Friday while relating the story of the fire on board the steamer. He highly praised the work of his officers and crew, who night and day fought the blaze.

"We were bound from Antwerp to New York," said the captain. All the way from across the Atlantic we encountered rough weather, picking up numerous S. O. S. calls from several ships, including the Carmania. About ten o'clock Sunday morning fire was discovered in hold No. 1 which contained a mixture of oil, rags and chemicals. We were then 400 miles east of Halifax and upon discovering the fire, the crew immediately commenced their gallant fight against the blaze, in danger of an explosion from the chemicals stored in the hold. Thursday morning after a fruitless fight, we flooded the hold with 400 tons of water. The Lancastrian is anchored in the stream, where the water in the hold will be pumped out, and the cargo likely discharged before she goes to New York.

Arrived Saturday

lengthened the trip across the Atlantic to seventeen days, the C. P. O. S.
