

Course of Instruction.

The course of instruction includes all the usual branches of a sound Christian education, namely, Scripture History, Prayer Book and Catechism, Classics, Mathematics and Book-keeping, English, French, German, Music and Drawing.

Pupils are prepared for Matriculation at the Universities, and the Entrance Examinations of the Law and Medical Schools, the Royal Military College, and the British Navy. In the Modern Department pupils are prepared for Commercial pursuits, and instruction is given in Shorthand and Type-writing.

The Religious Teaching and daily worship are in conformity with the doctrines and services of the Church of England, and under the immediate control of the Head-Master.
