Do You Believe in Saving Money

This is a Notice of Real Opportunities to Save

Opportunities impossible to duplicate elsewhere because some of the articles are offered at prices that we could not begin to buy them for at the factory

If You Have a Dollar to Spare It Will Buy About Two Dollars' Worth Today

We simply have to make room for a very heavy spring stock soon to arrive. It's against this store's principle to carry goods over from season to season, although this particular year of advancing prices it might pay us well to do it. But balance of winter stocks are placed at prices to clear quickly.

Be straight! If Charles Darwin had only looked in the right direction he might have found the missing link. There are men in business who trail their manhood in the dust and go on all fours to make a dollar. These are the moral chimpanzees, who chatter about it being impossible to be successful in business and be honest. To cover their ness and be honest. To cover their own hideous deformities they spread broadcast the slander upon those who are as tar their superiors morally as Adam towered physically, morally and spiritually above the swinging apes of Eden. Sooner or later the scoundrel who utters sentiments like this will be in the place where he belongs—the cage. This is the kind of doctrine with which the Father of Lies sought to over-Ont.

Further particulars on application to Grand own hideous deformities they spread broadcast the slander upon those the Father of Lies sought to over throw old Job, and the result was the imperishable record of a man who would die rather than touch the slime of the pit. The grandest sight in the physical universe is a man, but the grandest sight in the physical or moral universe is a man whose eyes "look right on" and whose eyelids "look straight before him."—Ex.

Liacoln's sentiment:—"I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives and I like to see a man live in it so that his place will be proud of him," is a sentiment that each of us would do well to ponder deeply and endeavor to live up to during the present year.
