Fester says...

fester bangs

for the benefit of first-year students i have tracked down a substantial bunch of reasons why life at york is fab:

- 1) we get jewish holidays off even if we happen to be practising buddhists or cultists.
 - 2) drinks are basically cheap in the numerous pubs. (note: clientele is not unconditionally endorsed.)
 - 3) all the buildings look like rear projections at night and you can pretend that the whole thing isn't real.
 - 4) excalibur is free and w/encouragement and help might even develop into a great rag.
 - 5) the gangs hanging out in central square are guaranteed to make you laugh. their knack for/love of trendy but bad fashion is remarkable and must be seen to be believed. tours available.
 - 6) tait-mckenzie has great facilities if you can put up w/the jocks.
 - 7) there are tons of plays, films, art exhibits and musical events (often free!) for anyone w/the good sense to patronize them.
 - 8) contrary to popular belief downtown can be trekked to quite easily by subway. passports are not necessary.
 - 9) lyceum is finally providing a long-overdue alternative to the central square bookstore.
 - 10) bagels are great, sort of nourishing, and available everywhere on campus.
- will keep in touch. fester. (you hope so—ed.)
