Round-up

Hanson leads Pandas

Mississauga products accounted for 19 points, but it wasn't enough to stop the Sheridan Pandas from dropping below the 500 mark.

The Pandas saw their Ontario Colleges Athletic Association women's basketball record drop to 3-4 in a 69-45 loss to George Brown last week in Toronto.

Gordon Graydon graduate Pullan Hanson led the Pandas with 12 points while Port Credit's Lisa Stinson added seven.

Alice Roch had 11 points while Marilyn Pope contributed seven.

Desiree Lake paced George Brown with 29 points.

Indians get ready

The Mississauga Indians tuned up for the King Clancy Women's Hockey Tournament by practising their penalty killing and defensive play.

The Indians grabbed a six-goal lead in the first period and killed 11 penalties in the second in defeating Stoney Creek 8-1 in Central Ontario Women's Hockey League play last week.

Tracey Eatough led the Indians' attack with three goals while Norma Landry had two goals and two assists.

Laura Smith contributed a goal and three assists. Marty Holden and Grace Smith also had goals.

Schooners set sail

The Port Credit Schooners, who experienced some rough sailing over the past few weeks, hit calmer waters last week.

The Schooners scored wins over Meadowvale and Weston to pull themselves back in the race for first place in the Minor Bantam B division of the MTHL.

Bob Gianville scored twice and Mark Bird registered the shutout, as Port Credit tripped up Weston 2-0. In the 3-2 win over Meadowvale, Jim Latimer scored twice with Lindsay McWhinnie adding the other goal.

Port Credit is now tied with Weston, one point back of the league leading Meadowvale team.

Raiders split pair

Meadowvale Raiders blasted the Mississauga Terriers, 7-1, but forgot to save some of that fine power for their showdown with Port Credit. They lost 3-2 to the Schooners in MTHL Minor Bantam B play.

Bobby Schmidt scored twice in the win over the Terriers with singles coming from Greg Hayes, Brent McKean, Doug Lees, Chris Flora and Rob Semple.

Murray Levy scored twice in the loss to the Schooners.

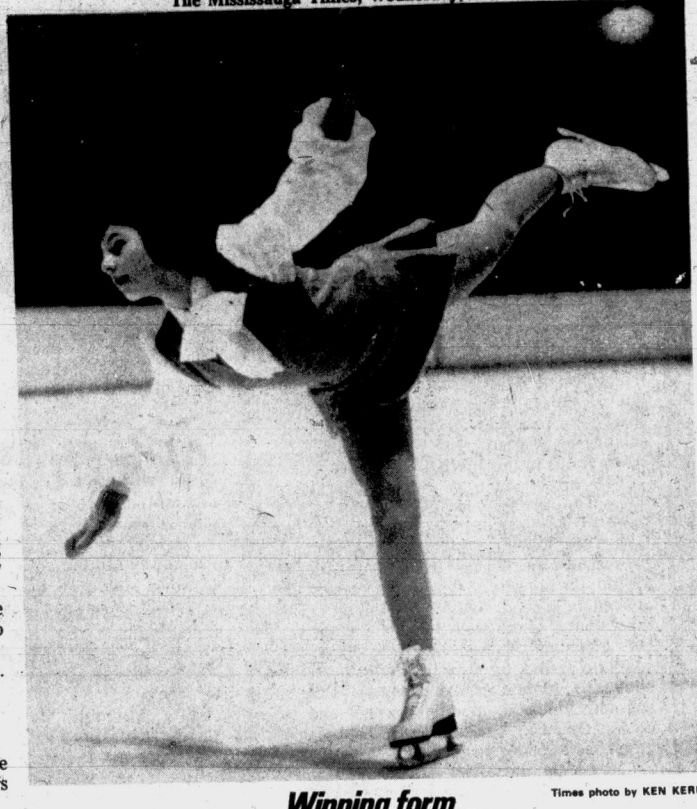

Meadowvale is still one point in front of both Weston and Port Credit, but hold a game in hand on the Schooners.

Daymond ranked fourth

Neil Daymond of Credit Valley Golf Club didn't let an injury stop him from being in the top 10 rankings for the 1977 Junior golf season.

Despite missing several tournaments with a hand injury, the 18-year-old Oakville resident played well enough to stand fourth among Ontario's Junior golfers.

Dan Kodatsky of Lookout Point was ranked first. Daymond tied for fourth place in the Ontario Junior tournament, was sixth at the Canadian championship, tied first at the Glen Eagle Classic, was third at St. George's Junior tournament and fifth at the Board of Trade Junior tournament.

Winning form

Nicole Perkovich shows the style that gave her first place in the girls' interpretive section at Port Credit Figure Skating Club's first competition of the 1977-78 season.

They cut fine figures

Port Credit Figure Skating Club's first competition of the 1977-78 season turned out to be a doubly successful one for Laura Besant and Michelle Lazzara.

Each picked up a first and second in the 50 skater competition held last week at Port Credit Memorial Arena.

Besant won the Beginner freestyle and placed second in the Intermediate Lazzara.

Lazzara won the Intermediate dance competition and placed second in the Juvenile freestyle.

Michelle Perkovich was second in the Beginner freestyle while Cheryl Davies placed third.

Debbie Anderson won the pre-Juvenile freestyle with Cheryl Black second and Eugenia Lista third.

The Juvenile freestyle was won by Lisa Greenwood with Lazzara

Corcoran is a heavyweight Paperweight

Brad Corcoran gave himself an early Christmas Present.

Corcoran scored four goals to lead the Brian Phillips Flyers to a 7-1 victory over the Marlin Motion Picture Penguins in the Texaco Red Wings Paperweight play.

Del Lessy added two goals and Brett Eyers one.

Chris Cuddy got the lone Penguin goal.

The Texaco Red Wings remained unbeaten with a 2-0 victory over the D. W. Ferguson Bruins. Paul Gillis and Shane Scott scored goals with Brett Proctor earning the shutout.
