The Secretary,
Indian Affairs Branch,
Ottawa, Canada.

Dear Sir:

Yours of June 14, File 41058-2, has been received. In connection with the order for 12 doz. baskets, I am sorry to say that all I could get at the time was the 7½ doz that I have sent to Ottawa. If the Indians of our agency could expect a future order, I could get them started at the work now. As you say in your letter, they need to be organized and I will do my best in that line if you can assure me some more orders will be given in the near future.

In the meantime, if you could send us the price of the baskets already sent, it would be greatly appreciated.

Your obedient servant,

E. Chiasson

Rev. E. Chiasson,
Indian agent.
