

C234961

of the peoples of the United Nations, that this Conference may respond to their expectations and to the challenge which is made to the statesmanship of the eminent representatives assembled here.. May we not fail them!

Before closing I desire, in the name of my Government, to express our fervent wishes for the success of this Conference!

MR. MOLOTOV (translation): I now recognize the Resident Commissioner of the Philippines to the United States and, Chairman of the Delegation of the Philippine Commonwealth.