LUCKY FIND

Colonel Young, of London, and Mrs. McGregor, were out shooting Raleigh just a year ago when Colonel lost his gun case. Mr. Young, of the seventh concession, high, found it, and did not know whom it belonged. He took good care of it, however, and in a conversation with Mr. McGregor later mentioned the fact that he had the case. Mr. McGregor went to it and found it to be the long case. He will forward it to Colonel Young. The case is a very valuable one.

McGregor reports that he is a considerable business in the same line. He also expects to see it, and will forward it to Colonel Young. The case is a very valuable one.

To-morrow there will be a matinee at 2.30, and in the evening "A Convicts Daughter" will be played.

The electric lights throughout the city were out last night because there were no carbons for the lamps. The carbons were ordered in December, but have not reached here yet. The ice blockade in the Detroit river has so congested freight on the river that it is impossible to tell when the carbons will arrive. The railroads for some time have only been moving perishable goods and the city's carbons are held at Detroit. Wednesday the Engineer ordered carbons from Blenheim, but they did not reach Chatham till five o'clock last night, too late for use. There are enough carbons for use to-night and to-morrow. The Engineer has telegraphed to the General Electric Co., Toronto, to have 1,000 carbons sent on by express and 4,000 carbons shipped by freight.

Thomas B. Linton, of Rosland, B. C., an old Chathamite, who left this city for the west about 20 years ago, was in the city to-day en route to Chicago. He was a caller on The Planet.

Mr. Linton speaks enthusiastically of the growth and development of the Maple City and congratulates its citizens upon their splendid progress. With his brother James he now operates two large stationary houses in Calgary and Rosland respectively. He says the west is booming and affords splendid opportunities for the young man.
