THE third volume of THE CATEOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA is just of the press. In contents and makeup it is fully up to the standard set by the first two volumes, and offers additional proof of our ability to fulfil our original promise: to deliver the most unique and valuable reference work on these subjects ever offered the English speaking people. The thousand copies of this volume are being printed to fill advance orders; and this shows, more than anything we could say, the wide increase which the work has awakened. Our advance subscription list includes the names of numerous men and women well known in social, business and professional circles, without regard to religion, and this is one more strong proof of the fact that this work is creating extraordinary interest and when completed will prove the most unique and valuable reference work, in many ways, printed in English.
