Official.

To the Members of the Grand Council of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada:

of Canada:

Owing to the fact that the last issue of The Canadian was delayed, and did not reach some districts until the middle of the month, it has been decided to extend the time of payment for the special assessment by members until the 15th March. This extension applies to the special assessment only. The regular assessment will be due on the 3rd March. Yours fraternally, O. K. Fraser, Grand President.

Branch 77. Lindsay, Ont.

Branch 77 is among the most progressive and prosperous branches of the association. Founded in 1887, it has gradually and steadily increased in membership and usefulness, until, to day, it is one of the most active and pronounced influences for good that exists in Lindsay. This healthy condition is largely due to the fatherly encouragement and patronage of the Very Rev. Vicar-General Laurent, who has been the constant friend and counsellor of the members, whom he delights to call his personal friends. The branch during the past year fitted up an elegant hall at considerable expense, the cost being defrayed from the profits of excursions and entertainments; and it safe to say that few branches of the C. M. B. A. in the Dominion have a home more worthy of our association or better calculated to justify the hope of a large and wealthy membership in the future. The members are successfully trying, by engaging in literary exercises and social reunions, to make the branch a sourse of instruction and profit, outside of the routine of the regular business meetings. Prominent members of the C. M. B. A. have addressed gatherings of the members and their friends, the last occasion of the branch, called in the past autumn during Branch 77, Lindsay, Ont.

meetings. Prominent members of the C.
M. B. A. have addressed gatherings of the members and their friends, the last occasion of this sort being an impromptu meeting of the branch, called in the past autumn during a passing visit of Bro W. P. Killacky, Grand Trustee, when that talented gentleman addressed a large andience, on the objects and advantages of the C. M. B. A.
The last public function given by Branch 77 took place on Feb. 13, ult., in the form of a dramatic and musical entertainment held in the Academy of Music. The weather was most unfavorable, as the recent snow-storms had entirely prevented travel from the country and were sufficient to prevent friendly townspeople from turning out to attend an an evening's entertainment. But such is the public esteem of anything Branch 77 has a hand in, and so favorable has been the public recognition of the high quality of the entertainments heretofore given by the branch, that a large and cultured audience was gathered in the academy when the time came for the rising of the curtain.

The first part of the programme was the amusing comedy, "A Terrible Tinker," followed after the musical portion of the entertainment, by the sparkling farce, "A Regular Fix." All the characters were taken by young people of the town, who compose the "Lindsay Dramatic Club." The leading part in each play was taken by Mr. Thos.
F. Lynch, a young gentleman who possesses the ease, versatility and elocutionary power necessary to produce an accomplished impersonator of graceful comedy. Another talented amateur, who figured in each part, was Mr. Wm. Baker, who portrayed to the life the elderly gentleman, good hearted, irascible, wanting to do right, but easily plunged into endless trouble. As the matronly person of the play, Mrs. A.
O'Loughlin was a pronounced success, and won admiration by her admirable bearing in trying situations of the play. The house maid in each conedy, Miss Jennie Macdonald, was a charming embodiment of the character, being smart, pert, and engaging, as su won admiration by her admiration cearing in trying situations of the play. The house maid in each comedy, Miss Jennie Macdonald, was a charming embodiment of the character, being smart, pert, and engaging, as such a person should be. Miss Norah Kennedy, as the niece in one play, and ward, in the other, of the irascible old gentleman, acted her part in a graceful and natural way, displaying a just sense of the dramatic requirements of her character, and winning the sympathies of the audience by her dignified and lady-like demeanor. As wife of the irascible gentleman in one play, and as cook, sister to the tinker, in the other, Miss Florentine O'Leary was a decided success, and won the applause of the audience in a most unmistakable manner. Of the remaining gentlemen actors, Mr. Peter Kennedy, as the dude admirer of the married lady in "A Terrible Fix," caught the audience by his elegant interpretation of the absurdities of his parts. Mr. A. O'Loughlin acted his character of the lawyer's clerk and the muffin man perfectly, and his friends, who comprised the whole audience, were delighted with his rendition of the part he assumed. Mr. Frank Shannon and Mr. Thos. Brady did their characters so much justice that lovers of the play hope to see them offen again on the local stage. On the whole, critics agree that no better amateur performance, and few better professional entertainments, have ever been presented on the stage of the academy of music.

The musical programme was an innovation in an evening's entertainment of this sort, but it was a most pleasing innovation. The artists who sang were the disses Murnhy are not strangers in Lindsay, since they spent most of their girlhood in the town, where their father, Mr. Eugene Murphy, resided for some years as Local Road Master of the G. T. R. But this, their first appearance in the role of trained singers, was an occasion of gratification to Branch 77, which had the privilege of introducing them to a Lindsay audience. Retiring in manner, and yet easy of deportment on th beforehand, so favorable and well deserving was the impression they created at the C. M. B. A. entertainment. The Misses Murphy were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Halloran, of St. Joseph's Convent, whose artistic skill contributed in no small degree to the success which accompanied the musical portion of the programme.

Resolutions of Condolence.

A FAREWELL RECEPTION TENDERED REV. FATHER SCOLLARD.

Peterborough Examiner, Feb. 25.
In view of the removal of Rev. Father Scollard to North Bay, the Emerald Beneficial Association, of which he has been the honored chaplain for years, tendered him a farewell reception at the Catholic Association rooms last night, and the enthusiastic character of this farewell must give the rev. gentleman a striking evidence of the love and esteem in which he is held; and not only by the members of that order, but by the congregation generally, which was numerously represented by the large company that crowded the hall, and even the aute-chambers. Upon the platform were seated the guest of the evening. Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Archdeacon Casey, Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Rev. Nather Phelan and Rev. Father Calnan, J. J. Daly, President E. B. A.; W. J. Devlin, chancellor; James Drain, insurance secretary, A. L. Giroux, past financial secretary; M. H. Quiulan, chairman of the Separate School Board, and L. M. Hayes, barrister, High school representative.

Mr. J. Daly, President of the E. B. A., occupied the chair, and explained that the object of the gathering was to pay a tribute of respect to their rev. chaplain, Rev. Father Scollard, who was about to leave them, and he thought by the large attendance that the audience sympathized with the E. B. A. in their desire to do honor to their departing chaplain. He then introduced a short programme:

A well performed pianoforte duet by Misses Anna Young and Louisa Sullivan.

A harmonica and banjo duet by Messrs. Hickey and Talbot was rewarded with a hearty encore.

This was followed by a recitation by Miss Lily Simons, "The Exile's Wishes," which was so excellently given that she was compelled to respond to an encore—"Dearest and I."

Mrs. Geo, Ball and Miss Lynch sang a duet entitled "The Minute Gun at Sea," which was excellently performed.

Mr. D. Gordon sang in fine style a baritone solo.

At this point Mr. Jas. Drain read the following address:

Rev. and Dear Father Scollard, Parish Priest of North Bay:

We the President, officers and members of St. Peter's Branch, No. 21, E. B. Signed on behalf of the E. B. A.,
Jas. Drain, J. J. Daly, J. W. Fitzgerald,
Thos. Cahill and A. L. Giroux.
Peterborough, Feb. 24, 1896.
At the proper time Mr. A. L. Giroux advanced and presented Rev. Father Scollard with a beautiful pair of otter fur gauntlets.
In reply Rev. Father Scollard, who seemed deeply moved at the evidence of respect he had had received, thanked the members of of the E. B. A., for their flattering entertainment and farewell address. As chaplain he felt that he had not at all times given the duties of the office all the attention they deserved—had not been present at all the meetings, but he knew that the society's interests were in good hands. He highly appreciated the address and entertainment which he felt had received the co-operation of the congregation. During the five years of his priesthood in Peterborough he had striven to do his duty as he saw it, though he felt that he had not always lived up to his ideal of the priesthood, and on this account this reception entitled him to feel all the more flattered. Referring to the handsome present made, for which he gave his hearty thanks, he had intended to handle his new parishioners gently with kid gloves—but the E. B. A. had equipped him for handling them with even a softer material. While he appreciated the flattering demonstration of the evening, it only emphasized the kindness he had received from the E. B. A., the congregation and the citizens generally during the past five years. He again returned his thanks and bade the company farewell and prayed the blessing of God upon them.

Ven Archdeacon Casey, in a brief address, expressed the pleasure it gave him to join in the graceful tribute to Rev. Fatner Scollard. But he thought he had miunderstood the object of presenting the gamutlets. The E. B. A. knew that Father Scollard had a warm heart, and, according to the old proverb, they wished to put his hands in the same condition. (Applause.) He was sure this evening would often bring Peterborough to the mind of Father Scollard. He wi do his duty in North Bay as he had done it in Peterborough.

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick felt that the congregation was losing a zealous priest, and that the clergy were losing a fellow-priest, who had won their love and respect.

Mr. M. H. Quinlan said that all united in endorsing the beautiful sentiments of the address, which were the feelings of the E. B. A. and Separate School Board. He was sure that the respect of St. Peter's and the E. B. A., which Father Scollard enjoyed, was a reflection of the feeling of the citizens of the town generally, irrespective of creed.

Mr. W. J. Devlin paid a hearty tribute to the fidelity of Rev. Father Scollard's services towards the E. B. A. His wise counsel was highly appreciated.

The musical programme then continued, Miss Louisa Sullivan performing a violin solo, "Irish Airs," and in response to an encore the appropriate selection "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgot."

Miss M. Ball sang, with good taste, "If the Waters Could Speak as They Flow."

Messrs. Hickey and Talbot greatly pleased the audience with a harmonica and banjod duet.

Mr. D. Gordon sang, by request, "Cal-

the audience with a narmonica and bangduet.

Mr. D. Gordon sang, by request, "Calvary;" and this number brought a delightful evening to a close.

The accompaniments of the evening were played by Miss Minnie Begley, Miss Lily Hurley and Miss F. Sullivan.

Before separating, "God Save the Queen" was sung by the andience, and as the audience passed out nearly all had an opportunity of personally bidding Rev. Father Scollard farewell.

ARCHDIOCESE OF OFTAWA

We learn from the Ottawa Free Press of the 26th ultimo that the formal welcome and reception tendered to His Grace Arch bishop Duhamel in the Basilica on the previous night was a magnificent affair in every particular. Long before 7:30, the hour set for the opening of the ceremonies, the church was crowded almost to the limit of space, but still people came pouring in. The side galleries were reserved for ladies, and, soon after the opening of the doors, every seat was occupied, with the result that some, not being able to secure a favorable position upstairs, braved the ordeal of commingling with the sterner sex on the floor below. The arrival of three hundred university students was followed by the filling of the aisles and the occupation of every available nock. Seldom indeed has such a crowd been seen in the cathedral.

L'Harmonie Band was on hand shortly before the appointed hour, and in their march through the church, rendered a very pleasing selection. This was followed by Lemmes' Marche Pontificale, played on the organ by Mr. Tremblay, and while this was in progress His Grace entered, accompanied by the canons and priests of the diocese and the seminarists from the college. Immediately upon the conclusion of the organ solo, Bonner's "Orate pro Pontifice" was rendered by the choir, with Messrs. N. Mathe, F. Breton and R. Saucier as soloists. The choir, very strong, both in numbers and in the pleasing renditions, was under the direction of Mr. Napoleon Mathe.

It was at this point that the addresses were presented to the Archbishop, the one in English being read by George O'Keefe, M. P. P., and the one in French by Dr. Chevrier, president of the St. Jean Baptiste Society. In them were offered the congratulations of the Catholics of the city to His Grace upon his safe return, for which, during his absence, they had earnestly and ceaselessly prayed. A reference was made to his meeting with the Supreme Pontiff, an experience which brought with it so much honor and consolation. They expressed their great pride in the thought that the Church of Rome was ruled over by so worthy, learned and holy a sovereign as the great Leo XIII., and that the archdiocese had as administrator such a distinguished chief prastor as His Grace. The addresses concluded with a renewal of religious submission to the Holy Father and to the Archbishop, and with a prayer that many happy and prosperous years would be added to those through which both had already passed.

In his reply Mgr. Duhamel returned his thanks for the hearty welcome given him and for the splendid demonstration of their affection and esteem. He said that he had spoken to the Holy Father of the good work done by the people of his diocese, and of the generosity shown by them, although their share of this world's goods was not super abundantly large. He spoke of his pleasure at being able

DIOCESE OF HAMILTON.

His Grace Archbishop Walsh of Toronto, His Grace Archbishop Cleary of Kingston, and Very Rev. Dean Gauthier, V. G., of Brockville, were the guests of His Lordship Bishop Dowling last week, and they paid a visit to a number of the Catholic institutions of Hamilton.

Mr. J. Israel Tarte, M. P., from Quebec, Hon. D. C. Fraser, M. P. of Guysboro', N. S., ex-Mayor J. J. Mason, ex-Ald. Henry Arland of Hamilton, and a number of other gentlemen, visited the Sacred Heart Separate schoollast Friday. The children entertained their visitors with songs and recitations. Mr. Tarte dictated a letter to the class in stenography and Mr. Fraser dictated a letter to the type-writers class. The visitors expressed themselves as highly pleased with the good work done by the pupils, who are under the charge of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

ST. MARY'S BRANCH, TORONTO.

At the last meeeting of this society the fol-

At the last meeeting of this society the following committee, with their respective conveners, were appointed, viz.: "Church distribution," convener, Mr. Jno. Doyle; "prisons" (men), convener, Mr. L. P. Walsh; "hospitals," convener, Mrs. Winnifred Madden; "Reformatories, etc." (women), convener, Mrs. Haites; "Magazine collecting," convener, Miss K. Clarke.

The work of these committees will be as follows; that of the church distribution—to see that all non-Catholics attending any of the services of the Church are supplied with Mass books or other explanatory literature. The magazine collecting committee will gather religious and other literature, news papers, magazines, etc., for use amongst the Catholic inmates of our hospitals, etc.; and the other committee will personally visit Catholics in these institutions and supply them with devotional and lighter literature as required. And in this way much good, it is hoped, will result. Any Catholic family having any such literature, and willing to help in this work by giving same, will confer a favor by sending a postal card to Miss K. Clarke, 550 Adelaide street, west, Toronto.

It has also been decided to fix the prices of the society's literature to non-members as follows: devotional, controversial and bio graphical pamphlets, 5c. each, or 40c. per doz.; controversial tracts, for distribution among non-Catholics, 59c. per hundred; Father Searle's book "Plain Facts for Fair Minds," 15c. per copy, etc. etc.

Members of the society receive any publication at cost; and as the membership fee is only 50c. per annum, and members are received from any place in Canada, the advantages of becoming associated with the society are quite manifest.

Lists of publications and other information may be had from the Secretary, St. Mary's Branch, Catholic Truth Society, P. O. Box 576, Toronto.

DEATH OF FATHER HOGAN.

We regret exceeedingly to announce the death of Rev. James Hogan, P. P. of Uptergrove, which occurred on Tuesday, Feb. 25. Father Hogan came to the Archdiocese of Toronto from New York. He was a most popular priest, and gained the love of his people because of the possession of a lovable and saintly character.

The funeral of the late Father Hogan took place at the parish church, on the 28th ult. Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Vicar-General McCann. Rev. Dean Egan, of Barrie, was deacon, and Rev. Jas. Walsh, of Toronto, sub deacon. Immediately after Mass Rev. Fr. Ryan, of St. Michael's cathedral, Toronto, delivered an able and impressive funeral oration, in which he recalled the high intellectual qualities and the saintly and devoted life of the late pastor of Uptergrove. The "Libera" was then solemnly chanted by the choir, under the leadership of Father Murray, of St. Michael's college, Toronto; while Rev. Father Rohleder pressided at the organ. A large and sympathetic gathering thronged the church, and many were visibly affected when the remains were borne to the grave. Among the other priests present were: Fathers Edward and Patrick Kiernan, Cantillon, McRae, Ninphau, Laboureau, Kilcullen Moyna, Duffy and Hart.

DEATH OF FATHER PROULX.

DEATH OF FATHER PROULX.

The Quebec Chronicle of Feb. 22nd an nounced the death of the Rev. Louis Antoine Proulx, which occurred at his residence, No. 7, Hebert street, the previous evening.
Father Proulx, who was born in Quebec on the 31st January, 1810, was ordained priest in the Basilica on the 22nd September, 1832, and was the doyen of the clergy of the Arch diocese. The lamented priest served in several parishes in Quebec diocese from his ordination up to 1817, when he volunteered to go to Grosse Isle to render spiritual and material help to the thousands of poor Irish immigrants who were landed there sick and dying, and his memory will be treasured by the children of the Green Isle throughout this continent for the many sacrifices he made during the trying period of the ship fever.
Father Proulx was a great friend and companion at Grosse Isle of the lamented Father MeGauran, for many years pastor of St. Patrick's, and the Irish pastor invariably spent a few weeks every summer with his old friend at St. Vallier, where Father Proulx was parish priest from 1854 to the end of 1879, when he retired from the active ministry, owing to failing health.

The funeral ceremonies of the Venerable Father Proulx took place at the Basilica on the 25th, and was attended by a large number of clergymen. The sacred editice was filled by a large congregation. The body was placed on a catafaque erected within the sanctuary rails. The church was heavily draped in black cloth and mourning emblems. The principal mourners were the brother and nephews of the deceased. The body was received by the Rev. Mr. Faguay and the clergy, over one hundred in number. The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. N. Parent, parish priest of St. Fidele, Charlevoix, nephew of the departed, with the Rev. Messrs. Grandbois and Clavett as assistants. In the absence of the Coadjutor Archbishop through illness, Mgr. Marois, V. G. presided at the Libera, and after the final prayers for the dead the remains were deposited in the vault under the Basilica.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ISAAC CLARKE, LONDON.
Died, on Thursday, Feb. 20, Jane, beloved wife of Isaac Clarke, in the twenty-seventh year of her age. Naturally of a joyous disposition and possessed of a kind and true heart, Mrs. Clarke made friends without number, all of whom will regret to hear of her untimely death. The funeral took place from her late residence to St. Peter's cathedral, on Saturday, February 22, High Mass of Requiem being celebrated for the repose of her soul by Rev. M. J. Tiernan; thence to St. Peter's cemetery, where all that was mortal of an affectionate wife and mother was consigned mother earth. May her soul rest in peace! MRS. ISAAC CLARKE, LONDON.

MR. James Dunn, Simcoe.

It is our painful duty to chronicle the death of another of Simcoe's ploneers. On Thursday 28th Feb., 1886—in the seventy-third year of his age—Mr. James Dunn received the final summons to meet his God, which we trust he was well prepared to do, having received all the rites of our holy mother Church a few days previous to his death. About two weeks ago he received a stroke of paralysis, and gradually grew weaker, until death's grim hand snapped the cord of life. James Dunn was born hear Killigh, King's county, Ireland, and came to Canada about forty one years ago, when he settled on a farm near where he died. He married Mary Ann O'Mahoney, who preceded him a number of years. Sincoe parish will miss him very much, as he was always genial and ever ready with a joke. He also filled the position of collector in the church. The chief mourners were his daughter, Mrs. P. Albitz, and his only sister, Mrs. Elliott. Mrs. Albitz has the sincere sympathy of all her friends, having also lost her husband only a few months ago. The funeral took place from his daughter's residence to St. Mary's church, where Requiem Mass was sung by the Rev. Father McMenamin. Requiescat in pace!

WM. DEWAN, LONDON. WM. DEWAN, LONDON.

A few days ago a very sad message reached the family of Mr. J. D. Dewan, of this city, announcing the death of his son, William, in South Bend, Indiana, on Sunday last. Deceased was attacked with influenza while sitting at his desk, and, despite the greatest attention of his mother and the medical men, he succumbed. Mr. Dewan was one of the most estimable young men of our city. He began his business career as a telegraph operator, and, step by step, rose to a high position in the service. He was a dutiful son, a sincere Catholic, and in every respect a model young man. To the afflicted family we offer our sincere sympathies.
