His Excellency was then pleased to close the Session with the following Speech, viz:

Mr. President, and Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council;

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

The public business for which you were assembled, being now brought to a close, I am enabled to dismiss you to your private avocations.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

In His Majesty's name, I have to acknowledge the apparent adequacy of the Supplies to the exigencies of the Government, and you may rely upon their being applied by me with a due regard to the purposes for which they have been granted.

The Grant of Three Hundred Pounds voted to me as Lieutenant Governor in the last Session, I am now induced to avail myself of;—not for my own immediate benefit in enabling me the better to sustain the dignity of His Majesty's Representative in this Colony, but to be appropriated to such other purposes as I shall direct the Treasurer to apply it.

After which, the President of the Council, by His Excellency's Command, declared the General Assembly to be prorogued until the Twentieth day of May next.

God save the King.
