

Moving To-Day

But it makes no difference. Business is not suspended—only slightly obstructed—and this inconvenience will be more than made up by your having the first peep at our extensive fall importations in the new store.

A Big Store

It is singularly fitting just at this moment, when New York and Toronto are celebrating the opening of newer and better stores, that Brockville should also be in the procession. To the thoroughness and patriotism of Mr. Newton Cossitt, ably assisted under the foremanship of Mr. Wm. Grey, Brockville owes it that she has a store as worthy of her size and progressiveness as any to be found in the metropolis of Canada or of the United States.

In Perth council a resolution was passed expressing disapproval of the new act. Councilors do not disapprove of the reduction in their numbers, but object to the grouping of municipalities. It would be better to have one representative from every municipality. This is also the opinion of many leading men in Leeds county who think that the attempt to give the minority representation may lead to a dead-lock in the council.

On Sabbath next, at the anniversary services in the Baptist church, Rev. S. G. Boone of Smith's Falls will preach at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m., and Rev. S. Sheldon of Delta at 2.30 p. m. On Monday evening the annual tea which addresses, interspersed with music by the choir, will be given in the hall of the above named rev. gentlemen, local clergymen, and Rev. J. Putnam of Delta.

Miss Sarah Wylie leaves Athens tomorrow for her home in Belfast, Ireland. She goes to New York city, where she will remain for several days to see the sights of America's big metropolis, before starting on her voyage. Miss Wylie has been in this section for the past year, during which time she has been the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson, Athens; Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Spring Valley. She has been very favorably impressed with Canadian social life and has made a host of friends, who sincerely regret her departure. On Tuesday evening a tea given in her honor by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson was attended by several of her most intimate lady friends and a very pleasant time was spent.

Brace, Brockville; Mrs. Gardner, Lyn.

The Village Council of Athens met on Monday evening, 28th inst., in special session, to pass a couple of by-laws. All the members were present. A bill to fix and levy rates for village, county, debenture and school rates was put through its several readings and passed. The assessment of the village is a little higher than last year, while the amount to be raised will be a trifle less, so that the rate on the dollar will be lower than last year. The applications of Jos. W. Kerr, A. Derbyshire and Jas. H. Ackland for the position of tax-collector were laid before the Council. A by-law to appoint a collector of taxes and fix the remuneration for his services was introduced, read three times and passed, with the blanks filled in with the name of Jas. H. Ackland as collector at a salary of $20. There being no further business the Council adjourned to call of Rev. B. Lovans, Village Clerk.

He is weighing one colony every day for sixteen days he found a gain of 152 pounds of honey in that time or an average of 9½ pounds each day, rain or shine. The largest gain in one day was 18 pounds, and the smallest 4½ pounds, and this was an average colony.

The Reporter's Puzzle. There were five answers received to the question, how to cut a board which is nine inches wide and sixteen inches long so as to cover a hole twelve inches square. The envelopes, without being opened, were placed in a box and thoroughly shaken up. The reporter's devil wiped his hands on his apron and drew out an envelope. On opening it, it was found that Mr. Omer L. Buell, of Malton, Ont., had solved the problem. He will therefore be awarded the prize of a copy of the Reporter for one year. The other competitors were: Mrs. C. McClelland, Brockville, N. Y.; John T. Dickey, Caintown, Ont.; D. P. Sheppard, Perth, Ont.; Miss Nellie Scott, Athens, Ont.; Ephraim Robson, Athens, Ont.; Mrs. E. Knapp, Toronto; and Mr. A. Sherman, New Dublin, who were all correct. This puzzle was simply given to amuse, and many readers of the Reporter would read and compete. The trial is perfectly satisfactory to us and will be followed up by others.

DELTA FALL FAIR.

A Great Exhibit at the South Leeds Show—A Pleasant Day and a Pleasant Time.

Thus far of last week, the opening of Delta fair, was anything but pleasant. Dark clouds, threatening rain, obscured the sun, and a cold wind prevailed; but it takes more than unpropitious weather to shake the confidence of the patrons in the success of South Leeds exhibition, and by eight-fall there was safely housed for the morrow one of the largest and finest range of exhibits ever shown at Delta fair. It was a busy day for Secretary Whaley, President Arch Stevens, and the efficient board of directors.

Tuesday proved to be a weather-breaker, and the particular strain in evidence on Wednesday was a pleasant surprise to all fair-goers—a bright sunny day with a cool breeze. The attention focused in storing the big early harvest, the session of Division Court in progress in the village, and the rival attraction of Prescott Fair, all militated against the attendance being a record-breaker, but the gate receipts will nevertheless be a fair average.

The exhibits in the hall first claimed attention. As usual, the ladies sustained their reputation for being fully up-to-date in the production of artistic work, fine art, and in the line of color painting, and in the planer but more useful arts, generally styled "Domestics." The display was one of which every one connected with the fair might well be proud.

The exhibit of the products of the soil was all that the past favorable season would lead one to expect. It was extensive and in quality equal to the best shown anywhere.

The system of vertical writing, originated by Mr. Newlands of Kingston, is being introduced into the manufacturing world. Mr. Newlands gave a practical exemplification of the system in Brockville last week and both teachers and pupils were delighted with it.

The Athens Debating Society still lives and flourishes, having now increased its membership to 18. The society is having serious trouble with its constitution, and the maximum limit determined upon. The meetings on Saturday evenings are well attended, and on every occasion, and in addition a number of invited friends and guests are present. Last Saturday night was the monthly meeting, and the election of officers was held resulting as follows:—Pres. F. S. Eaton, Secy. Treas. R. E. Mills; Critic, H. Franklyn.

A very sad and distressing accident occurred in Newboro on Monday morning (22nd), when Charlie, the younger son of George W. Gordon, a bright little fellow one year and nine months old, got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid and drank part of its contents. Notwithstanding all that could be done for him, he passed away, leaving, however, till Wednesday afternoon, with a death came and mercifully ended his sufferings. The funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon, and was largely attended by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon's sympathizing friends.

At the last meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist church, held last Monday evening, the delegates to the county convention at Lyn presented their reports. These were well prepared and highly appreciated. The report of Officers for the ensuing year also took place and resulted as follows:—Pres. Miss Stone; Ist. Vice, Miss Lillian; 2nd Vice, Miss E. White; Secy. Miss Emma White; Treas. Miss S. Stevens; Rec. Secy. Miss E. Blanchard; Cor. Secy. Miss Ransier; Treas. Mr. S. Kendrick. Mr. Selwyn Kendrick was elected representative to the Provincial convention at Ottawa, which will be in session from Oct. 24th to 29th.

The Directors of the Unionville Fair Association met on Monday last to wind up the business connected with the late exhibition. Nearly all the Officers and Trustees were present. Statements of the receipts and expenditures as far as possible, which showed that after paying all prizes and running expenses the Society would have a cash balance on hand of over three hundred dollars. A large number of bills were audited and orders were given on the Treasurer for the same.

Leeder was driving to the factory down Summerdale hill, when the wagon pole slipped through the ring of the neckyoke, letting the wagon onto the horses. Mr. Leeder was dashed to the ground, thus freeing the fiery team. At this time Miss Scott was returning home, and jumped from the rig just in time to save her life. Leeder's team ran right through it, demolishing it completely, and taking Miss Scott's horse with them, at a break-neck speed they dashed down Main street. Coming in contact with Mr. James Ferguson's delivery wagon, they smashed it to atoms, throwing Mr. Ferguson into the ditch. He quickly sprang to his feet, however, and stopped the four horses, which were in a very wild way. Mr. Leeder was very badly cut and bruised about the head and face and Mr. Ferguson was badly shaken up. It is with pleasure we report that Mr. P. Flood is gaining rapidly.
