

Pimples & Face Sores

are a common trouble. Impurities which should be thrown off from the body have a tendency to remain in the system, thus clogging the pores and giving rise to all sorts of disagreeable skin troubles. Zam-Buk applied to the skin has a most wholesome effect. It stimulates and helps the skin to throw off any impurity and restores the skin to a healthy state.

Zam-Buk is the best household balm ever brought into a home. Such is the opinion of Mrs. Sarah McDonald, of Blrri, Ont. She says: "My little girl had a severe and obstinate rash on her skin. I applied Zam-Buk a few times and the skin trouble which had defied all other remedies, went away like magic."

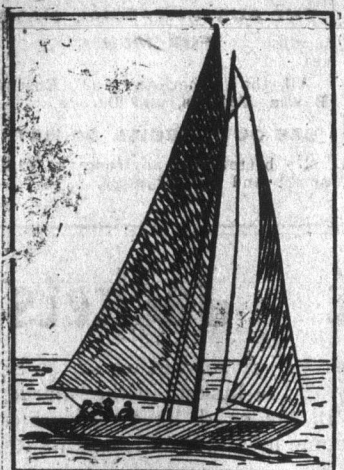

Zam-Buk cures Eczema, Ulcers, Scrofula, Poisoned wounds, Festering Sores and all Skin Diseases. Rubbed well in to Zam-Buk is the finest embrocation for Rheumatism, Sciatica, etc. Of all stores and druggists at 50 cents, or from Zam-Buk Co. (Toronto) for price, 3 boxes for $1.25. (C. E. S. Ford Limited.)

Held Canada's Cup

The Seneca was all out for the Canada's Cup. The series of contests proved beyond a doubt that she is the superior of Mr. Cawthra Mulock's challenger, the Adele, in any sort of weather.

The official time for the three races was as follows: First race—Start, Adele, 1.00.35; Seneca, 1.00.31. First stake, Seneca.

THE SENECA.

2.35.30; Adele, 2.42.35. Second stake, Seneca, 3.34.35; Adele, 3.45.45. Finish, Seneca, 5.58.29; Adele did not finish.

Second race—Start, Adele, 11.30.00; Seneca, 11.30.05. Turn, Adele, 1.05.31; Seneca, 1.05.36. Finish, Seneca, 2.51.18; Adele, 2.56.54.

Third race—Start, Adele, 11.15.10; Seneca, 11.15.15. First turn, Seneca, 12.46.4; Adele, 12.52.14. Second turn, Seneca, 1.38.19; Adele, 1.45.04. Finish, Seneca, 2.31.50.

Mr. Jarvis again proved himself to be a fine, cool, resourceful skipper but he had a hopeless task. It was a contest between designers, and the designer of the best racing machine won. It seems to be the opinion of sportsmen that English yacht designers, who know nothing of conditions of water and weather here, cannot be counted upon to design a winner for such a contest as that for the Canada's Cup.

Another in the Field. She was pretty, and the drug clerk was glad to sell her a stamp.

Also to lick the stamp and affix it to the envelope.

"Put it on upside down, please," she whispered. "What means something to Charlie."

Then the drug clerk lost interest.

I would as soon think of pulling the tail feathers out of a peacock as to interfere with the innocent vanity of a man.

APPEAL TO THE MIKADO.

Restriction of Passports Must Be Adhered To.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—A complete statement of Canada's argument against a continuation of the present large influx of Japanese immigrants into this country is being prepared by the Government for presentation to the Government of Japan.

No doubt a commission or commissioner will present the argument to the Mikado's Government at Tokyo. It will be pointed out in this statement that when the treaty with Japan was signed by Canada there was an express understanding that the Japanese law restricting the issue of passports to intending emigrants to a limited number each year would continue to be enforced.

In the Japanese immigration law it is expressed that any immigrant obtaining a passport under false representation is liable to a heavy fine in addition to the cancellation of the passport. The enforcement of this clause by Japan would have a large influence in stopping the influx of Japanese to British Columbia by way of the Hawaiian Islands.

Other points that will be emphasized are that public opinion in this country, as shown by the utterances of public men in the press, and by the resolutions of the Labor Minister, is unanimously opposed to any large or sudden influx of Oriental immigration, and that the present rate of immigration, if continued, will result in unnecessary racial friction in British Columbia, and will militate against the development of trade between Canada and Japan as desired by both Governments.

FOUGHT WITH SWORDS.

Affair of Honor in Old Style Excites French Colony.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 1.—Contrary to expectations the duel between Dr. "Masse" of the Revell and Dr. Dupuy was fought in the rink at the Pierre Mignelon.

It was believed that the differences had been settled in court, but the opposing factions clamored for satisfaction in the ancient French style and the two met. There was a large gathering in the rink. Swords were chosen as the weapons. After ten minutes of fierce fighting the editor received a bad thrust of the sword in the right breast. His second, Dr. Thibault, seeing the condition of his friend's wound, declared Masse unable to continue the fight.

The duel was the result of an article in The Revell, questioning the honor of Dr. and Mrs. Dupuy.

It is reported that Masse will be compelled to accept another challenge to a duel from Leclerc, a prominent shipowner of St. Pierre.

GRAIN SHIPMENTS.

Show Big Falling Off as Compared With Last Year.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—The Department of Trade and Commerce has received from Mr. C. C. Coad, of Winnipeg, a statement of the shipments of grain by vessels from Port William and Port Arthur from the opening of navigation, April 29, 1907, to Aug. 31, 1907, and also for the crop year of 1906, which is from Sept. 1, 1906, to Aug. 31, 1907.

From April 29 to Aug. 31 last, there was carried in Canadian vessels from these ports 20,721,617 bushels, and in foreign vessels 5,238,069 bushels, making a total of 25,959,686 bushels of wheat.

For the crop year 1906, Canadian vessels carried 51,719,952 bushels. There was in store on Aug. 31, 1906, 507,574 bushels, and on Aug. 31, 1907, 6,460,919 bushels, an increase of 5,953,345 bushels of wheat.

The new vessel has accommodation for 125 first class, 223 second and 1,493 steerage passengers. She has a crew of 210 would make 2,068 souls on board. Her cargo carrying capacity is 7,000 tons.

Gave Life to Save Wife.

Rome, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. William Salsower, of New London, eight miles west of here, were drowned in the Erie Canal yesterday. A man fishing some distance away saw the woman run out of the house near the canal and jump in. She was immediately followed by her husband, who attempted to rescue her, but failed.

TRICKS OF THE TYPES

Wicked Deeds Done by the Imp of the Perverse.

AMUSING ERRORS IN PRINT.

Examples of What is Liable to Happen When the Compositor Blunders or When the Usually Alert and Careful Proofreader Nods.

Sometimes the proofreader nods, and in this connection the late Lord Goschen told at a public dinner a story of a reader who worked for his (Lord Goschen's) grandfather and who, in answer to a denunciation from his employer, cried:

"Let some other man work at correctness of typography, I despair. My own thoughts often hinder me as they write and held the authors otherwise than they ought to do. It is quite possible that giggling about words and syllables may often go to the wall when my soul cannot tear itself loose from some thought or picture. Errors have been found in sheets which I thought I had worked backward and forward with the greatest particularity. I read always as it should be."

It is when a reader is in this doubtful condition that the general public are permitted to read, as they did once in a morning paper not given to humor, a celebrated politician, in a speech, described some one as "sitting at the feet of the game bird of Birmingham," instead of "Gansel." In the same journal, too, the following startling announcement appeared under the heading of "Birth":

NICHOLSON.—On the 12th inst. at Belton road, Skepp, the son of Alfred Nicholson, of a daughter.

In another newspaper a most pathetic account appeared of a doctor who died owing to having accidentally infected himself while injecting some plague virus into a "gnat." The mystery was solved the next day, when an apology was printed explaining that the word should have been "rat."

"Come over and try some new soup," a lady novelist did not write; "songs" was the word. "It is a sickly kope of the real article" was perhaps excusable. It appeared in a paper during the Beer war.

These mistakes are curious enough, but they pale into insignificance before some of those that never reach the printed sheet.

"Cold milk, father" once demanded a compositor in cold type, and he was aggrieved to have to alter it to "Caled milk falthe!" "Brer Fox" was made "Beer Fox"—that was also during the South African war.

On a hot summer's day another tired typesetter turned "The Idea of March" into "The Idea of Work."

In a sermon a celebrated divine was made to say, "And they erected a marine store at the mouth of the sepulcher." "Massive stone" were the correct words.

Abbreviations are at times the bane of the compositor, but he had no excuse in setting up, in an account of a Mansion House function, that among those present were "Old Isaac and Old Trehear." He should have known that "Ald" was an abbreviation of "Alderman." In the same "take" of copy the "Lord Mayor was received with a crash" (should be "ecia") and was followed by the sheriffs in their "margarine (margarine) gowns."

"Let the gullied Judy wink" appeared in another first proof, and the proofreader wearily made it the "gulled jade wince." "Die, lousy platter!" has quite a transpositional flavor, but the "copy" said "Die Lustige Blatter" (a German weekly paper).

"Piguet of the emundation" does not seem convincing; "Argument of the imagination" is better. "Petticoats long on Sunday morning is a disgrace" is all right when the first two words are read "Petticoat lane."

In a police court assault case the prosecutor was made to say that the prisoner had given him "twins." What the prisoner really did was to give the prosecutor a "turn" (a fright). "The government were suffering from mental aberration," must have been set up by a compositor of the opposition politics. The real charge was "mutual admiration."

"De mortuis nil nisi bonum" would trouble a Latin scholar. "De mortuis nil nisi bonum" is more correct. "Jim the Pieman" is easily recognizable as the hero of a play, and "Patty Polty," the racehorse, would throw up her pretty head in disdain to see herself so described.

For a pair of scandals completed the costume read "sandals," and for "Have is indeed a sundial" substitute "scandal." He lived in the "Bubblers" should be "suburbs," and "Call her, Herr, in" is understandable when printed "Call her in."

A well known descriptive writer was startled to read in a rough first proof that he had described the fields surrounding the Derby course as "covered with boots and shoes." He was placated when informed that it had been altered to "booths and shows."

Columns could be filled with the amazing and amusing blunders of the compositor, but here space forbids more than a final "howler," which is a classic in the printing world. "O tempora, O mores!" wrote a leader writer at ten minutes to 1 in the morning.

"O Moses, indeed!" exclaimed the proofreader a quarter of an hour later when he "caught and bowled" the compositor who had improved the phrase into "O Tomyson! O Moses!"—London Express.

It is by presence of mind in untold emergencies that the native metal of a man is tested.—Lowell.

Liver Pills

Ask your doctor if he knows a better pill for a sluggish liver than Ayer's Pills. Then follow his advice.

It is impossible, simply impossible, for any one to enjoy the best of health if the bowels are constipated. Undigested material, waste products, poisonous substances, must be daily removed from the body or there will be trouble, and often serious trouble, too. Ayer's Pills aid nature, that is all. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

A Crestfallen Inspector.

When former Minister Wu Ting Fang left this country he was accompanied by an extensive retinue and attended to the steamer by a delegation of local Chinese merchants. The customs officials, who then were also immigration inspectors, carefully took the names and count of the local Chinese as they went on board. This precaution was to prevent some deported or otherwise not welcome Celestial from effecting a landing by joining the merchants as they came ashore after taking a ceremonious farewell of their distinguished countryman. Half an hour or so after Wu and his friends had gone on board one of Wu's secretaries arrived on the dock and was hurrying up the gangplank when a customs inspector seized him by the arm and pulled him back on the wharf.

"Wahamalia you, John? I no takes name, you no can come back. Who you belong?" said the inspector, snuffing at some girls with whom he had been talking.

The Chinese shook loose the inspector's hold on the loose sleeve of his silk robe and with quiet dignity remarked:

"This violence is unnecessary, sir, and my name is a matter of no interest to you. I am a member of his excellency's suit. I go on board this steamer to leave this country never again, I hope, to return."

That customs inspector is still on the force, but never since has he tried to be funny with a Chinese gentleman.

THE PUMPKIN.

It is born beneath the shadows of a field of waving corn. From a flower whose golden color outshines the glow of morn, Where the bumblebees are working, their rough backs all bright with gold.

And we learn the wondrous secret their busy hum has told. They say this flower sometime will take a different form. And be the yellow pumpkin. When autumn sun shines warm. When some skilful housewife turns it by some necromancy keen.

Into the pie so toothsome, with a color bright and clean. As the yellow of the pumpkin as it lay the corn among, Has a flavor sweet whose richness by poet is unsung.

So give to me the pumpkin. With the good old-fashioned pie. All hail, all hail King Pumpkin! Long ye live and never die.
