Thinks Bond Verbose.
London, March 11.—(C. A. P.)—Sir Robert Bond has sent the Birmingham Post a verbatim report of his speech protesting against the fisheries agreement with the United States.
The Post says it is a verbose, contentious production, and does not think the circulation of the protest in this country will result in the enlightenment of English opinion in his favor.

Mrs. Ginnett, a member of Charlton Board of Guardians, in protesting against the proposal to send several children to Canada, characterized Canadian farmers as no better than slave drivers. A Birmingham declared the consent of children a mere farce, as they were misled by unreliable pictures of the country and its possibilities, drawn up by paid agents of a Canadian railway. The Board decided to send the children. The Guardian regrets the strong protest did not meet with the success it merited.

Pay for Immigrants.
Ottawa, March 11.—Following the termination last fall of the contract with the North Atlantic Trading Co. for the encouragement of immigration to Canada, the Government has now arranged to pay a commission of ten shillings per head on each adult and five shillings per head on each child booked for Canada by the booking agents of the continental steamship companies. The immigrants so booked must be those who have signed their intention to follow farming or railroad work in Canada, or to accept positions as domestic servants in the case of females.

British Age Pensions.
London, March 11.—The Tribune on Saturday confirmed recent rumors that the forthcoming budget will provide a certain sum of money for some kind of old age pensions scheme, the Government having decided to make a start in this direction this year.
This start will be only tentative, however, as it will take two or three years to carry through the completed plans.

Raisuli Escapes Again.
Tangier, March 11.—The news that Raisuli has escaped again is confirmed. Kaid Mehalla, the representative of the Minister of War, dislodged the Beniaru tribesmen, burned several villages, killed twenty of the tribesmen and took a number of prisoners, but Raisuli got away.

"I am going to have a little girl baby, and when she is three years old I am going to kill myself."

This startling remark came from the lips of a seven-year-old north side girl and was made with no more demonstration than if she had remarked that she was going to take one of her dollies out for a walk.

"My, my!" said her father. "What in the world possessed you to make such a remark?"

"Well, papa," replied the little miss, "I have just been reading a lovely story about how a little girl only three years old put fresh flowers every day on her dear dead mother's grave, and her mother had killed herself, and I thought how nice it would be to have a little girl put beautiful flowers on my grave."

"I guess you had better play outdoors more and do a little less reading,"—

Jeweler's Bit of Advice.
"I think I'll have to bring her in and let her choose," said the embarrassed young man as he looked hopelessly at the diamonds spread out on the table.

"Pardon me for a bit of advice," the jeweler said earnestly, leaning forward. "But I've had a lot of experience in such matters. If you pick it out yourself and take it to her she'll surely be satisfied. Always are. But if she comes here and sees bigger, handsomer rings she won't be contented with the one you can afford. The $500 or $800 ring she sees will stay by her. We've often lost sales that way. I've frequently seen the young woman pick out a ring that the man obviously couldn't afford, and he would find some excuse for not buying it."

Then the young man said he thought he might as well decide on that $110 trifle at once. —Kansas City Star.

Do You Open Your Mouth Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?
Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people nowadays insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine.
Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and what they do to the body. This he feels he can well afford to do because his medicines are made of the ingredients of which his medicines are made and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy.
It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, paralyzing child birth safe and common. It is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular.
It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuritis, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attending the distinctly feminine organs.
A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet or a postal card from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V.
Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

BANK CLERK ARRESTED.

Will Be Taken Back to England to Face Charge of Theft.

Winnipeg, March 11.—Chased thousands of miles and having escaped pursuit for nearly seven months, Henry Douglas Anderson, former clerk in the branch of the Bank of England at Manchester, Eng., was captured Saturday Dominion City by Provincial Constable Waddell.
Anderson has been working these weeks for a farmer about twelve miles from the town. When arrested he made no attempt to deny that he was the man wanted. He does refuse to admit the charge of theft on which he will be arraigned when he is taken back to stand trial.

It is alleged that Anderson, while employed by the bank at Manchester, stole £1,000. Large quantities of coin passed through his hands, and it is supposed he substituted copper coin for gold.

Before the alleged theft was detected Anderson left the employ of the bank coming to Winnipeg last August and putting up at the Imperial Hotel, where he stayed for about a month.

He returned to the old country until about six weeks ago, going to work for the farmer near Dominion City on his return.

The provincial police authorities were notified shortly after Anderson's first departure from England, and a search was made for him, but without success.

On the second arrival here, the police got a clue that led to his arrest.
The authorities in England have been communicated with, and an officer will be sent here to take the prisoner back to stand trial.

Anderson is about 42 years of age, quiet and unassuming.

TO PROTECT PERSIA.

Great Britain and Russia Make a Deal to Settle Differences.

London, March 11.—The internal affairs of Persia, which, according to official information, are far from satisfactory, are being closely watched by the officials of the Foreign Office.
Great Britain and Russia have already agreed on the steps to be taken by them. Great Britain anticipates that, should the condition of the country reach a critical stage, the Shah, who frequently called on Russia before he ascended the throne for financial assistance and sought the advice of the representatives of that country in other emergencies, will ask for Russia's help to restore order.

The Russian Government could comply with the request with the full knowledge that no objection would be made by Great Britain. Russia may even offer assistance without the consultation of Great Britain, which would advise the Persian ruler to accept.

Great Britain would do her part by sending war ships to the Persian Gulf ports, but she would not go further unless the landing of a force became necessary to protect foreigners in Southern Persia, which by agreement would be recognized as Great Britain's sphere of influence.

This condition is a result of negotiations that have been going on twelve months for the settlement of all outstanding differences between the two powers, which continue to progress satisfactorily, and which shortly may be brought to a successful close.

This better understanding has made smoother the negotiations between Russia and Japan.

PROPHET DOWIE DEAD.

Founder of Zion City Passes Away Unexpectedly in Delirium.

Chicago, March 11.—John Alexander Dowie died at 7:40 Saturday morning at Shiloh House, Zion City. There were present with him when he died only Judge D. N. Barnes and two personal attendants. It had been Dowie's custom to hold religious services every Sunday afternoon in the parlor of Shiloh House. About 350 of his original followers attended these services. Dowie always wore his apostolic robes and made a characteristic address. Seven weeks ago these meetings ceased and Dowie appeared no longer in public. The Sunday meetings, however, were still held by his adherents.

Since that time Dowie has gradually been failing. Friday afternoon, however, there was no indication of approaching death. He receives a few followers, and prayed for some people.
His Last Words.

His condition seemed to be about the same as for the last two or three weeks. One of the attendants remained with him until midnight and was relieved by the other attendant.
Shortly before one o'clock Saturday morning Dowie became delirious and his talk was the same as at a religious meeting in the days of his prime.
He denounced with the old-time vigor, ordered the guards to throw out disturbances, and acted just as he had on many previous occasions. He gradually became weaker and weaker, and the attendant telephoned for Judge Barnes, who reached Shiloh House at 7 a. m. Forty minutes later Dowie died.

Bomb Throwers Get $7,500.

Kutais, Transcaucasia, March 11.— Three bombs were thrown at the treasurer of the local revenue, two policemen and several local officers, while they were driving through the streets with $7,500 on Friday.

This attack was followed by a volley of revolver shots. The policemen, the driver of the carriage and one of the officials were killed, and the treasurer and four other officials wounded.
The robbers seized the money and escaped.

Russian Parliament Rests.
St. Petersburg, March 11.—Parliament adjourned Saturday night at the conclusion of the election of officers.
It accepted the suggestion of the president to take a recess for several days.

Sir Daniel Dixon Dead.
London, March 11.—The Right Hon.
Sir Daniel Dixon, member of Parliament for North Belfast, is dead. He was 63 years of age.

NEW YORK BY NIGHT.

The Spectacle of Its Lights From Rivers and Harbor.

By whatever route you reach or leave Manhattan Island in the evening the river lights are beautiful. On the North river the spectacle varies according to the hour and season, for the downtown lights in Manhattan are more numerous when the days are short and the tenants of the great office buildings have to light up to finish their day's work. Across from the lower Jersey ferries late in the afternoon of a winter day glow and sparkle the great company of tall shafts grouped against the sky, each one pierced to the top with regular rows of shining windows. A memorable sight they make, those shafts and huge blocks of gleaming holes, reaching far above their neighbors that come between them and the river. There is much in that spectacle to recompense a tired man for being a commuter, and nowhere else on earth is there the like of it.

And, besides the tall shafts and the intervening lower lights and the glow of the streets that run to the river and border it, there are all the river lights—the ferryboats, with their long rows of bright windows, hurrying on their various courses; the sound steamers going out, their steamers coming in; all manner of lights more sober on all manner of shipping; the street glare and the ferry house and wharf lights ashore and, higher up, here and there the obtrusive and commercial but none the less radiant advertising signs.

The downtown office building lights go out early, most of them, but up the river some of the tall uptown hotels confine, all the evening and in spite of curtained windows, to be lighthouses.

On the East river, besides the city lights and the river lights, are the high, curving bridges, very striking and beautiful, with their unobstructed outlines marked by the glow of the electric bulbs.

There is poetry in these river lights, bordered and framed by the dark shining water and reflected in it.—R. S.
Martin in Harper's.
