'I understand that she is separated from her husband.' 'Yes.' 'Oh, tell me all about it. What did she do?' 'Nothing, he died.'

We have to thank the Japanese for Menthol, which when applied in Davis' Salve is unequalled to soothe and heal insect bites and stings, sunburn, etc. 25c. in tin at druggists.

'I wonder why so many business men wear monocles?' 'I don't know.' 'Probably under the mistaken assumption that they can dictate to them as easily after marriage as they did before.'

For Rheumatism it is not necessary to go to Hot Springs. Just use the 'D. & L.' Menthol Plaster and results will be satisfactory. 25c. at druggists. Davis' Lawrence Co. manufacturers.

'Do you know that I got an awful fright the day I was married?' said Jones. 'Yes, I know you did,' replied Robinson. 'I was right there in the front pew and got a good look.'

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A couple appeared in a New Jersey court in search of a divorce. The man is said to have told his wife that her conversation was nothing but hot air, and it is understood that she retaliated by pouring hot water on him.

'How Croup is Dreaded.' If there is any warning in Dr. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it is the terrible struggle of the little one for breath. If you know nothing of it till the struggle comes, ease the child to rest and then use Dr. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This bill for $500 is altogether too high, said the client. 'But didn't I prove that you were insane and get you acquitted?' responded the lawyer. 'Yes, you did, but you haven't proved that I am insane enough to pay this bill yet.'

The Heart a Great Worker. What a wonder is the heart. Day and night it works away pumping blood through the body and never tires or wears out as long as it is supplied with oil, red blood, made by Dr. Chamberlain's Kidney Pills.

This one comes from Missouri where one editor 'showed' them why 'An evangelist—asked—all the men present who were honest and paid their debts to stand up. All arose but one. He said he was the local editor, and couldn't pay his debts because the men standing were his delinquent subscribers.'

'What are you crying about, dear?' inquired the sympathetic husband. 'Oh, George, the mice have got in to the pantry and eaten up a beautiful nut that I made myself.'

'There, there, my dear, don't cry over a few mice!' was the doubtfully complimentary rejoinder.

Retain Their Confidence.

Mothers are not infrequently grieved that their daughters, as the girls grow older, keep them from their thoughts and ambitions, giving confidence to others. In most cases this is the mother's own responsibility.

Confidence between mother and daughter is to be maintained at all costs on the part of the former, and a test of her success as a parent is the ability to strike the right note of sympathy with such gentleness and understanding as to influence the girl to a right way of thinking.

If your Stomach, Heart, or Kidneys are weak, try at least a few doses only of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost.

Genuineness Gives Power.

There is nothing which will add so much to one's power as the consciousness of being absolutely sincere, genuine. If your life is a perpetual lie, if you are conscious that you are not what you pretend to be—that you are really a very different person from what the world regards you—you are not strong.

If there is mud at the bottom of your eye, you cannot look the world squarely in the face. Your vision is not clear. Everybody sees that you are not transparent. There is a cloudiness, a haze about your character, which raises the interrogation point wherever you go.

Character alone is strength; deceit is weakness; sham and shoddy are powerless; only the genuine and the true are worth while.—Success.

Have you a weak throat? If so, you cannot be too careful. You should begin treatment too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another and the last is always the hardest to cure. If you will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the outset, you will be saved much trouble.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable remedy for throat and lung trouble. It quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerously sounding cough which indicates congested lungs. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

'I say, do you think that Wiggins is a man to be trusted?' 'Trusted?—Vergerath! Why, I'd trust him with my life!' 'Yes, but with anything of value, I mean.'

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never disappoints those who use it for obstinate coughs, colds and irritations of the throat and lungs. It stands unrivalled as a remedy for all throat and lung diseases. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

'Doctor, said the patient, who had been ailing for a long time, 'be frank with me. Why do you demand such a large fee for cutting out my appendix?' 'Well, the truth is,' explained the frank M. D., 'when I remove that appendix I cut off my chief source of revenue.'

Invest 25 cents in a box of Davis' Menthol Salve ("The D. & L.") and be prepared for a hundred ailments, which may not be dangerous but are very annoying and painful, like neuralgia, carache, sprains, burns, bruises, insect stings, cuts, piles, etc. It is a household remedy always useful for some trouble, and should be kept in the family medicine closet.

God's Appointed Beverage. Since the days of Paul Denton and his brilliant apostrophe to pure sparkling water, in contrast with the somnolence of the ordinary still, we have met with nothing finer than the following passage from an address delivered a quarter of a century ago, by Rev. A. E. Ballard, then State Temperance Lecturer of New Jersey.

None of them are of His making. He gives us the water. He mingles the pure gases together and produces it. Then He pours it into the rock fountains of the sea for preservation while He purifies it.

Then they go down the mountain side in the sportiveness of gladdened childhood; they leap in cascades; they rush over the rocks foaming with laughter; they hide among the ferns; they reappear in streamlets; they murmur between fringes of fern; they find the hidden paths of nature and go down secretly to the mountain's foot, where they bubble their joy in springs, or seclude themselves in the cool, damp caverns of the earth.

For luxuriant life he puts it into the mouths of the roots, and draws it through the sap veins into the juicy juices of the grape, and the berry, and the peach, and all the luscious torus of vegetable life.

For our sense of beauty He causes it to diamond the dewdrop, and sparkle in the raindrop, and flash in the streamlet, and sparkle in the cascade, and whiten in the waterfalls, and color in the rivers, and emerald in the ocean; shimmering everywhere in bushes of gladness under the sun smiles of the Creator.

Fifteen Years of Agony

"Fruit-a-lives" Promptly Cured Him After Doctors Had Failed To Give Relief.

CHARLES BARRETT, Esq. Harbor at Bonche, Antigonish Co., N.S., March 24, 1909. "I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the great benefit I received from taking 'Fruit-a-lives.' I suffered from Biliousness and Dyspepsia for fifteen years and I consulted physicians and took many kinds of ordinary medicine, but got no relief. I was in miserable health all the time and nothing did me any good. I read the testimonial of Archibald Stewart of Ottawa, and I decided to try 'Fruit-a-lives.' I have taken a number of boxes of 'Fruit-a-lives' but before I had taken one box I felt better and now an entire well. 'I am thankful to be well after fifteen years suffering, and I am willing to have this statement published for the sake of other sufferers, and to them I strongly recommend 'Fruit-a-lives.'

(Signed) CHARLES BARRETT. See a box, 5 for $2.50—trial box, 25c. At all Dealers or sent post-paid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

'Young man,' said the surgeon to the patient as the danger was passing away, 'do you use alcohol in any form?' 'No, sir.' 'Do you use tobacco?' 'No, sir.' 'With a wave of his hand said a nod of his head, the surgeon said: 'That is what has saved your hand.' Tissues degenerated by asthmatics cannot resist the attack of accident and disease, as can tissues that are formed only of wholesome and nutritious food.—Crusader Monthly.

'That husband of mine has gone too far. I can't stand him another day!' 'Why, what's the trouble now?' 'Why, last night he actually complained that my mustard plasters were not as hot as those his mother used to make!'

Womanly pains, head aches, in fact any pain anywhere can be completely stopped in 30 minutes with one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pills Tablets. Ask your Doctor or Druggist about the formula. It is printed on the box—it can't be botched. Try one dose and be convinced. Box 25c. 50c by A. V. Rand.

'Graveyard of shattered hopes, is what the Chicago Tribune calls the saloon. Well named.'

Are your hands chapped, cracked or raw? Have you 'cold sores' which creep and fester when the skin is down right? Have you a cold sore, frost bite, chilblains, or a 'raw' place, which at times makes it agony for you to go about your household duties? If so, Zee-Bals will give you relief, and will heal the frost-damaged skin. Anoint the sore places at night. Zee-Bals' rich healing essence will sink into the wounds, and the smarting, and will heal quickly.

Mrs. Yellen, of Portland, says: 'My hands were so sore and cracked that I had to wear mitts when I washed. When I did so they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. I cannot describe the relief I received when I put on them until I tried Zee-Bals. It is wonderful when all else had failed. I should like to give you some more, but I have none left. I have a box of Zee-Bals, and will send you one if you will send me the name of the nearest druggist to whom you can order it. I will send you one free of charge. I will send you one free of charge. I will send you one free of charge.'

A lightning bolt was brought to a hospital with a body heated to 103. An old woman took her good services through the pain, carrying with a rust and dirt. As time passed on the hand became very much swollen, turned black, and the surgeons feared that the hand would have to be amputated. As the hand became so swollen, the surgeons feared that the hand would have to be amputated. As the hand became so swollen, the surgeons feared that the hand would have to be amputated.

Doing and Undoing.

A young man lay dying in a London hospital. The Chaplain stood beside his bed, and, seeing the jock of trouble in his face, stooped over him, and said, kindly, 'Can I do anything for you?'

The young man, looked up at him, with sad eyes, and answered, 'Can you undo?'

Dear friends, will you think of these words, and in all your doings remember—you can never undo? Another death-bed scene: A young man was passing away from a world which has been made, not better (as it might have been), but worse, by the time he had spent in it. He said to those standing by his bed, 'Gather up my influence, and bury it with me! Remember, O remember, your influence can never be gathered up, can never be buried with you.—The Visitor.

Why It Healed. A lightning bolt was brought to a hospital with a body heated to 103. An old woman took her good services through the pain, carrying with a rust and dirt.
