Miss Card is showing her customers this week some exquisite patterns in Swiss embroidered gowns.

Don't forget the Mass Meeting for men and boys on Sunday afternoon at the Opera House at 4 p. m.

The R. A. E. Club will meet at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) P. S. McGregor on Monday evening of next week.

See Strong's prices in his adv. and learn how much you can save by purchasing your groceries from a strictly cash store.

The members of Wolfville Division, S. of T., are planning to pay a fraternal visit to Cornwallis Division, at Canard, on Monday next.

Right in price, right in style, right in quality. Satisfaction goes with every order placed with us.

Rev. Dr. Spidle will address the Mass Meeting for men and boys next Sunday afternoon at the Opera House at 4 p. m. All cordially invited.

Miss Hopewell, of Halifax, has again arrived in Wolfville and will be glad to wait on customers desiring ladies' and children's tailoring. She is located at the Central House.

Mr. William Regan has purchased the store now occupied by Mr. E. J. Bowles, and will remove it to a site just east of his harness shop. The cellar is being excavated this week.

The Vitagraph reel, 'Swords and Hearts', a story of the war times in old Virginia, is worth going out of one's way to see at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The many friends of Rev. G. W. Miller will be glad to learn that he has practically recovered from his late illness. It is expected that he will occupy his pulpit next Sunday as usual.

WANTED.—Responsible person to assist in Tea Room for part of day. Apply to Miss Robinson.

We understand that Miss Margaret Baras has sold her fine property on Westwood avenue, recently advertised in THE ACADIAN, to Mr. Wright, who has charge of the construction of the new Baptist church.

The Kings County Baptist District Meeting will hold its next sessions at Waterville, commencing on Monday, March 4th, at 2 o'clock p. m. There will also be an evening service and a meeting on Tuesday at 8 o'clock.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from cramp. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by all dealers.

Rev. Prof. Falconer, of Pine Hill College, who occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church last Sunday, preached two very able sermons which were much appreciated. Good congregations were present at both services to hear him.

J. F. Porter reports the sale of a Model T Ford five passenger touring car, to Mr. C. H. Wright, Jr., of this town. Mr. Wright is the master builder on the new Baptist church and a mechanic, and he used his good judgment in selecting a Ford.

Patrons are respectfully requested to place their orders early so there may be no distressing disappointments when the busy season begins.

BOATMEN & CO. Avery, the little son of Mr. Norman Schofield, met with a painful accident on Saturday last. While coasting on Church Hill he in some way fell from his sled and broke his leg. The little fellow has suffered considerably, but is now doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Laura F. Crawley, of Yarmouth, specialist in Chloroform, Massage, Shampoo, Facial and Scalp treatment, arrived in town on Tuesday—Feb 27th, and will remain until March 5th, during which time appointments may be made by those interested. She is at Acadia Villa Hotel. Phone 5.

Next Sunday evening service of the Baptist church in College Hall will be of unusual musical interest. The regular choir will be assisted by a number of the young ladies of the Seminary under the direction of Prof. Fletcher, some of whose compositions they will render. The pastor's address will be on the subject, 'How we got our Bible?'

The recital given by the pupils of Acadia Seminary last Friday evening in College Hall was generally regarded as one of the very best pupils' recitals ever given. The attendance was fair though not so large as it should have been. A well arranged program was presented in a manner highly creditable and the whole affair was most enjoyable. Those who contributed to the program of the evening were: Misses Marcel Thomas, Lily Strong, Jennie Prescott and May Palmer, of the pianoforte department; Misses Mattie Pittmore and Susan Hall, of the department of voice; and Misses Evelyn Gossner and Lena Hopkins, of the elocution department.

Dante's Inferno at Opera House.

Speaking of this wonderful exhibition in St. John last week the 'Globe' of that city said:

'Not even the most ardent exponent of the fire and brimstone theory of the hereafter, among evangelists, ever expounded the tortures of lost souls in perdition to so good advantage as did the Italian poet Dante, in his immortal masterpiece, the Inferno.'

A representation of this poem last night cast upon the screen at the Opera House amazed the audience with the accuracy of detail and wonderful effect of the production.

Although some doubt existed in the minds of many as to whether or not a film such as this would constitute a desirable entertainment, those who attended the two performances yesterday were amply rewarded for their time. The production was in absolutely good taste and could not offend the sensibilities of the most sensitive.

The Inferno consists of five reels, comprising over 100 scenes. The pictures as thrown upon the screen are explained by a lecturer who is thoroughly familiar with the poem.

This makes it possible for the audience to follow the pictures, and also to acquire some knowledge of the original poem.

The films are a masterpiece of the photographer's art and in the scenic effect no pains have been spared.

Boy Scouts.

His Worship the Mayor (Mr. Chambers) presided over a meeting in connection with the Canadian Boy Scouts (Baden Powell's) at the Town Hall, on Saturday evening. Scoutmaster Percy Brown briefly reported the progress made in Wolfville since April of last year when he started with a patrol of eight, which he afterwards registered as the 'First Wolfville Troop.' The boys were very keen on the work and their discipline in camp was really admirable. They had all passed their Tenderfoot tests and had, by their persistent energy, succeeded in earning all the funds required by the Troop to date.

District Commissioner, the Rev. George T. Bryant, of Berwick, picking up the thread where Scoutmaster Brown had dropped it, pointed out that the Wolfville Troop had reached the point where it no longer could be carried on by one man, and the scoutmaster was face to face with two alternatives: (1) to organize the necessary local association, or (2) to disband the Troop. He (Mr. Bryant) was there to help form an association and he congratulated them on their good fortune in having the Mayor present on a Saturday night which must have involved considerable sacrifice and inconvenience to himself.

The Commissioner then outlined the functions and constitution of such an organization as was essential and invited the audience to regard him as a target at which to fire questions. An interesting discussion followed, in which Dr. Archibald, Rev. Mr. Webber, Scoutmasters Brown and McKinnon and the chairman took part.

The ten laws which a scout pledges his honor to obey, and the scout's three promises as indicated in the 'Scouts' Salute and Secret Sign, having been impressively recited and explained, Mr. Bryant enumerated the various tests for efficiency badges, which reminded him, he said, of a request which he had to make to the Mayor. He had just received the badge won by the Berwick Troop, which had arranged an entertainment for next Tuesday night, when these badges were to be distributed. But Leader Morgan Tamplin was now in Wolfville and it occurred to him that the present was an opportune moment to make a presentation. This young man had also won his first class and King Scout badges—the first King Scout in Nova Scotia (applause), but these latter badges had not yet arrived from England. He therefore asked the Mayor to put on the right arm of Leader Tamplin, one above the other, these three badges, namely, (1) Ambassador; (2) Marksmanship, with 90 marks (3) Path finding.

The Mayor having done accordingly, addressed the much badged scout, congratulating him upon his record and heartily welcoming him to Wolfville. It occurred to him that a boy with such qualifications would prove a very useful acquisition to the fire brigade of the town. He wished the Boy Scout movement in Wolfville every success and as far as he was able he would heartily support it. He wished every boy to realize that there was work for a boy as well as for a man, and especially that the one could not discharge the duties of the other. Each must perform his allotted task.

On the motion of Scoutmaster Brown, seconded by Rev. Mr. Webber, it was resolved to form an association for Wolfville on the lines indicated by the District Commissioner. Subsequently the following nominations and elections were duly made:

Honorary President:—His Worship, the Mayor of Wolfville, ex-officio.

Hon. Vice President:—Dr. G. B. Cutten, President Acadia University.

President:—Dr. W. L. Archibald, Principal Horton Collegiate Academy.

Vice Presidents:—Reverends R. F. Dixon and E. D. Webber.

Scoutmaster:—Percy Brown.

Secretary-Treasurer:—Morgan Tamplin (Sr.).

Council:—R. W. Ford (Principal High School), T. L. Harvey (ex-Mayor), Joseph Howe (H. C. A.), Dr. E. Fraser Moore, Dr. McKenna, Scoutmaster McKinnon, Rev. G. W. Miller, Rev. J. W. Prescott, Councillor Wm. Regan, H. Stairs, Mr. Stems and Captain Tingley.

A draft copy of regulations in vogue elsewhere was read and submitted by the Commissioner and provisionally adopted by the meeting, the Council being left at free hand to amend and confirm so it may be deemed expedient after due examination at its first meeting, which was fixed for Tuesday evening, March 27th, in class room no. 2, Acadia College.

The usual votes of thanks closed the proceedings, after which a number of interesting charts and photographs descriptive of the movement in Kings county, were closely inspected.

His Sister's Children.

Good nature is a valuable asset. Here is a chance to see what a good-natured brother got for taking care of his sister's children when she went to the country. He had some trouble, a bunch of fun and the youngsters enjoyed themselves. He got lots of experience and a stunning little wife as a reward. When this refined comedy is run at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow night you will see more fun and get more enjoyment from it in twenty minutes than you could possibly get in any other way.
