

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train of Thought Inspired by a Letter About "Fruit-a-Lives"

MR. D. McLEAN
Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.
"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-Lives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relief of everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-Lives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends." DAN McLEAN.
"FRUIT-A-LIVES" is daily proving its priceless value in relieving cases of Stomach, Liver and Kidney Trouble—General Weakness, and Skin Diseases. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-Lives Limited, Ottawa.

June.

June is upon us in a burst of fragrance and glory, and sorrow. The death toll in May, among our brave Canadian troops, the horror on land and sea, has brought heart break to many a home. To the Kachels who mourn for those who are not, how our hearts go out in this bitter hour.
"We are quite sure, that He will give back Bright, beautiful and pure. We know He will help keep Our own and His until we fall asleep. He does not mean—though Heaven is fair— To change the spirits entering there that they forget The eyes upraised and wet, The lips too still for prayer The mate despair. I do believe They will receive Us—yet you and me—and so I would To meet us what when most I grieve grow sad, I just begin to think about that gladness And the day When they shall tell us all about the way That they have learned to go— Heaven's pathways show, when we awake I am quite sure, we will be very glad That for a little while we were so sad."

The Sale of Drink to Native Races.

An alarming increase in the consumption of drink by the native population of Central and Western Africa was reported and discussed at a gathering of members of the British House of Commons of all parties assembled recently to hear addresses from Bishop Twagell, of Western Equatorial Africa, and associate clergy members on the subject of the drink pest among the native races in Africa. Bishop Twagell, in the course of his remarks stated that during the past seven years the consumption of rum, and gin in the districts under his charge had increased from a 500,000 gallons to a 1,000,000 gallons. The traders dealt in spirits because the natives who brought down the produce to the coast, preferred to back rum or gin rather than cash, because there was much demand for spirits in the interior.

Feeble, Aged Woman

Says Vinol Made Her Strong
Grand Saline, Texas.—"I am an aged woman and for a long time was weak and feeble but Vinol restored my health and strength so that I feel almost young again and am doing all my household work. Old people who are weak and feeble should try Vinol and know its merits as I do. It is the best medicine to create strength and for chronic colds I have never taken."—Mrs. FANNY B. ROSSIGNOL.
"Vinol, our delicious and liver and tonic, is sold on our guarantee to benefit or your money will be returned."

A. V. Rand, Druggist, Wolfville, N. S.

Attention was called to the fact that in Northern Nigeria, where prohibition existed, smuggling was actively proceeding, and that more rigorous enforcement of the law was necessary for the welfare of the people of that country. The meeting resolved to ask the Earl of Crewe to receive a deputation on the subject of the sale of liquors to the natives.

Thos. A. Edison on Cigarettes.

A writer in Harper's Weekly says: "Cigarettes are not mere rolls of tobacco. They are drugged with expensive poisons as charged but they have a peculiarity. The combination of burning paper and tobacco makes smoke not paper smoke but has a smell which chemists know and a smell which everybody knows. There is not much of the new compound, but in what there is of it lies the idiosyncrasy of the cigarette. Thomas A. Edison may be supposed to know what he is talking about when he says: 'Acroline is one of the most terrible drugs in its effect on the human body. The burning of ordinary cigarette paper always produces acroline. That is what makes the smoke so irritating. I really believe that it often makes boys insane. We sometimes develop acroline in this laboratory in our experiments with glycerine. One whiff of it from the oven drove one of my assistants out of the building the other day. I can hardly exaggerate the dangerous nature of acroline, and yet that is what a man or a boy is dealing with every time he smokes the ordinary cigarette.'"

Thin-Blooded People

Often become seriously ill before they realize it. Some people have a tendency to be thin-blooded just as others have an inherited tendency to rheumatism or nervous disorders. The condition in which the blood becomes so thin that the whole body suffers comes on so gradually that anyone with a natural disposition in that direction should watch the symptoms carefully. Bloodlessness can be corrected more easily in the earlier stages than later, begins with a tired feeling that rest does not overcome, the complexion becomes pale, slight exertion produces breathlessness and headache and backaches frequently follow. In the treatment of trouble due to thin blood no other medicine has had such a great success as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They go right to the root of the trouble, make rich, red blood, thus restoring the weakened system to health and strength. Mr. R. P. Ashford, Peterboro, Ont., says: "Four years ago my condition became so serious that it seemed to me I possessed every pain and ache and every morbid feeling possible. For months I had been overworked, and heavy-laden added the last straw necessary to break down my constitution. I had a severe ever-pressing headache and pains in the back of the eyes, and at the same time I was seldom free from severe neuralgic pains. I was rarely hungry, and when I was it seemed to create a morbidness which made me ill harder to bear. Of course I consulted a doctor, and he told me a rest and change of air, just the thing I was unable in the circumstances to take. I had a particularly bad spell on the day my daughter returned from college, and she insisted that I should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was decidedly skeptical, but she got some and to please her I took them. The result—after the first box I was compelled to admit that I really did feel better. After the second box I ungrudgingly admitted that they were doing me good, and after the sixth box I felt free from every ache and pain and in gratitude I began to praise the pills to others. I am feeling as fit as I did twenty years ago and I owe it to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Children Cry

FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The Folly Of It.

A woman whose mind and heart are big enough to give her some genuine interest in her fellow creatures was teaching, recently in a Philadelphia restaurant. She noticed that the girl who had waited upon her stood leaning wearily against the wall, shifting her weight from one foot to another, and looking not merely tired but worn and worn from exhaustion. A throb of pity shot through the woman's breast. Her eyes rested on the waitress—on her frayed face, her unsteady body, her shuffling feet, and then she saw that the girl wore high-topped shoes—shoes with French heels that sloped viciously toward the centre of the sole so that it afforded a space about the size of a half dollar to support that frayed and drooping frame.

HIS "FALSE FRIEND"

Time Proved Him to Be All Good, but Very Easily Influenced.
By GEO. ELMER COBB.
"I will never trust a friend again!" It was a broad and bitter declaration for a man, young, ambitious, in love with life and all its pleasant promises and rewards to come; yet at that supreme moment of disappointment and loss, Lane Percival meant every word he spoke.

CRICKETS SING FOR JAPANESE

Males Are Kept in Cages to Furnish Amusement for Their Owners.
One of the most curious things to be seen in Japan, alike in the houses of rich and poor, is a small cage of bamboo fibers which houses the singing cricket. The male only has the "voice," which can hardly be called a singing voice, because the sounds emitted are much more metallic than those which ordinarily proceed from the throat of a bird.

All mothers should know of this remedy, and all young girls who suffer should try it."—Mrs. MATILDA KURTZWEG, 529 High St., Buffalo, N.Y.
