

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEPT. 5, 1919.

Our New Home.

THE ACADIAN is now fully established in its new home, formerly the Graham studio, which will in future be known as THE ACADIAN Building. This building stands within a few feet of where The Acadian, established by the late Major Theakston, was published over fifty years ago when the writer first knew Wolfville. When the paper was established in May, 1868, it occupied part of a building on the site of what is now Calkin's drug store. Two years later the plant was moved to the building now occupied by Mr. E. S. Crawley and Dr. A. deW. Barrs. Here the paper was published regularly until in May, 1899, when it moved to the McKenna Building then just completed. For twenty years this has been THE ACADIAN's pleasant home but increased business made another more necessary and when this spring Mr. Graham decided to sell, the proprietors of the paper took advantage of the opportunity to secure better and more spacious quarters. By the move we have been able to secure what we have long desired an office on the ground-floor in one of the most centrally located stands in Wolfville.

We have selected this occasion to install an entire new stock of type which will enable us to get out a much better appearing paper and add greatly to our facilities for turning out all kinds of high-class job printing. This has involved a large expenditure as prices for all kinds of printing material have advanced greatly since the war began and are to-day from two to three times as much as they were in pre-war days. Our desire to give our readers and the public the best possible service has induced us to undertake this expense at what might seem to be a most inopportune time.

We are also planning other changes which will be made public when our plans are perfected, and which will be in the interest of our patrons.

In the future, as in the past, and even in fuller measure, we hope to merit and receive the support of the public in our effort to publish a real newspaper that will be a credit to our town and county and a helper in everything that tends to the uplift and welfare of the community.

Editorial Jottings.

Parliament opened at Ottawa on Monday. The chief business of the session will be the ratification of the Peace Treaty.

At the Union of Nova Scotia Municipalities at Yarmouth last week the town of Windsor was chosen as the next place of meeting.

His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, laid the corner stone of the peace tower of the new Parliament building at Ottawa on Monday.

The United States Public Health authorities no longer require vaccination against smallpox, nor do they examine passengers proceeding to Boston via any route. This requirement was abolished on Friday, August 29th.

The Boy Scouts.

The Scoutmaster wishes to thank all those who helped in making the County Boys' Camp the great success that it proved to be. Boys from Canning, Berwick, Waterville, Aylesford, Auburn, Port Williams and White Rock were present.

Good fellowship and enthusiasm prevailed throughout.

Many visitors were present and all spoke in highest terms of the conduct of the boys. It is hoped to make this County Camp an annual event and steps will be taken to secure a suitable camp site and improved facilities.

The finances were satisfactory, the receipts being $360 and the expenses $200.

Mrs. A. D. Elderkin is offering at private sale a few choice pieces of furniture including dining table in solid oak (6 extra boards); handsome buffet in solid quartered oak; 4 parlor pieces (mahogany frames, upholstered in silk tapestry); quartered oak rocker; Morris chair in quartered oak, with cushions; handsome princess dresser, with 36x18 in. oval mirror (British bevel plate); antique mahogany combination cabinet desk, very elegant; solid walnut desk and bookcase; solid walnut hall stand with mirror; two good mattresses; 1 bedspread. These pieces will be shown at the residence of Robert Sydney during the week beginning September 8th next.

Starting February 1st McLean's Magazine will be published twice a month. Subscribers now at the old rate of $2.00, or those desiring to subscribe at the new rate of $1.50, should do so at once.

Dinner for Returned Boys.

The reception and dinner given by the citizens of Wolfville in honor of the returned men from this vicinity last Friday evening was a very pleasant and successful affair.

The dinner was given in the Northard and Lowe apple-house, which was tastefully and handsomely decorated for the occasion. Mr. Sanford, the proprietor of the Royal Hotel, catered and furnished a repast that was done ample justice to by a goodly assemblage of soldiers and citizens. Places were provided for 135 guests, more than half of whom were returned men. The Give Service Girls served in a most creditable manner, and excellent music was furnished by the Wolfville orchestra.

Mayor Hales presided and after reading an address to the boys announced the programme. Toasts were proposed and responded to as follows: The King, proposed by the National Anthem, by the orchestra; 'Our Fallen Heroes,' proposed by Rev. G. W. Miller, and responded to by Mr. Eugene Stackhouse, M. M.; 'The Wolfville Boys,' proposed by Coun. Edson Graham, and responded to by Mr. G. H. Ruffee; 'The 219th Battalion,' proposed by Coun. Sherwood, and responded to by Dr. Cutten; 'The Nova Highlanders,' proposed by Mr. W. H. Chase, and responded to by Lt.-Col. Ralston. Musical numbers were furnished by Mr. Wadsworth Provandie, Miss Evelyn Duncanson and Miss Marie Wilson, all being much enjoyed.

Handsomely printed 'Recognition Cards,' signed by the Mayor and Town Clerk, were presented to each of the boys present.

Colonel Ralston gave a most practical address which was greatly enjoyed by all present. He spoke of his connection with the Highland Brigade, but said that we should not forget the great record of the 25th Battalion, which record the Highlanders sought with difficulty to follow. Continuing he sought to interpret the too often misunderstood views of the returned soldiers. He said that the returned men did not wish to be received back as soldiers but as citizens, to co-operate with their fellow citizens in the greatest and grandest of all causes, the building of Canada—a Nation in accordance with those ideals for which they fought and sacrificed in the Great War.

Before they went overseas, they remembered, people worked for the sake of the dollars and cents they received in return. They also remembered while they were overseas, the people at home worked and sacrificed their very utmost in order to contribute to the comfort of those who were 'doing their bit' on their behalf. But when they returned they saw a general slackening of production and a greed for profits.

What the returned men now wanted was to experience a change of motive, to see work being done for work's sake, being assured that the more work was done from such a motive, the more remuneration would be for all, with the pleasure felt in the performance and the satisfaction felt in the inevitable outcome of such a condition would be reflected in the life of the community made up of such individuals.

30 Years Ago.

The following items were taken from the files of THE ACADIAN of 30 years ago:

The rails for the Cornwallis Valley railroad are being brought up by special trains of the W. & A. R.

The governors of Acadia College, we understand, have increased the salary of President Sawyer from $1500 to $1800.

Mr. Alfred Elderkin is ahead this week with a cucumber that measures 13 1/2 inches in length, 1 1/2 inches around, and weighs 3 lbs. 12 oz.

Mr. John C. Jones shipped yesterday fifty-four barrels of cucumbers from Grand Pre station, consigned to Skilton, Foote & Co., Boston, and has ordered a car to be ordered for the same firm on Monday next.

After being manager of the Peoples' Bank Agency at this place for over twelve years, Dr. A. deW. Barrs has tendered his resignation of the position. It is not known yet who will succeed the Doctor, but we believe the appointment of Mr. G. W. Munro, who has been Dr. Barrs' assistant during his whole term of office, would give general satisfaction.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Collins left on Saturday last to spend the winter in California. En route they will visit in Boston, Winnipeg, Vancouver and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins have been residents of Wolfville for over thirty years and have many friends who will wish them a pleasant winter and a safe return to Wolfville.

Grand Opera Concert.

Don't forget the Grand Opera concert in College Hall on Friday evening, Sept. 5th.

Mr. Wadsworth Provandie sings in the Metropolitan Opera of Boston. He has sung in Covent Garden, London, and in the leading opera houses in France and Italy.

The great de Reszke, of Paris, called him the 'King of Baritone.' Professor Villoni, of Milan, said of him: 'Provandie is as great a baritone as was ever heard anywhere.'

Miss Marion Linn Tufts is a pupil of Antoinette Szumowska, the favorite pupil of Paderewski, and also of the celebrated Alexander Lambert of New York, who studied under the great Liszt.

Paderewski called Antoinette Szumowska his 'daughter,' and Marion Tufts his 'granddaughter.' You will be delighted with these high class artists.
