cent years. Her cargo, which is made up of agricultural implements, machinery, hardware and merchandise, is alone valued at $400,000. As this prize lies but a short distance off shore and directly in the track of vessels making their way to the United States from South American and West Indian ports, it is the opinion that she will be picked up by some lucky shipmaster and towed nto a harbor on the southern coast of the United States. No particulars concerning the derelict craft other than the fact that she was passed abandoned and with a heavy list to starboard by the British steamship Hubert, at Barbados from New York, could be learned. Capt. Good cabled that the Kelvin was sighted

The British Army Council, says a cable from London, has issued an important order under which recruits, instead of enlisting three years with the colors and nine in the reserve infantry of the line, will in future enlist for nine years with the colors and three in the reserves, thus practically abolishing the short service system. War Secretary Arnold Forster foreshadowed this change in a speech last July, in which he declared that the existing system had proved a failure, because so few men volunteered to extend their service with the colors. Some critics, however, declare the existing difficulty of obtaining recruits will be greatly enhanced under the new order.

A well known naturalist, Dr. Peckham, watched a wasp dig a hole in the earth and deposit therein an egg, together with a spider which she had stung into paralysis to feed the grub which should be hatched in due course. Then she filled up the hole with sand or earth and jammed it down with her head.

When at last the filling was level with the ground she brought a quantity of fine grains of dirt to the spot picked up a small pebble in her mandi-bles and used it as a hammer in pounding them down with rapid strokes, thus making this spot as hard and firm as could recover from our asto at this performance she had dropped her stone and was bringing more earth. In a moment we saw her pick up the pebble and again pound the earth into place with it. Once more the whole process was repeated, and then the little creatures fiew away.
