At Grimsby Park,

The great convention of Christian Workers at Grimsby Park is becoming more interesting every day. On the programme are many famous preachers and musicians. This evening a fine light exhibition will be given by a converted Maori, from New Zealand, of the people of his native land. He speaks English beautifully, and it is said no sweeter singer was ever at the park. Dr. A. B. Simpson, of New York, will be at the park until the close of the convention. On Sunday the missionary offering will be taken, and many believe it will be the biggest ever received in Canada.

Well Worth Remembering.

A firm to be progressive must keep in touch with the requirements of the people. Messrs. Green Bros., the undertakers, have recognized this and have introduced a system to their increasing business by manufacturing their own burial cases, thus doing away with the middleman's profit. Their office is open day and night. Telephone, No. 955.

LAST DRILL HALL CONCERT.

Large Crowd Enjoys a Very Good and Varied Programme.

The hot weather did not prevent the usual large crowd from attending the band concert in the Drill Hall last evening. It was the last of the spring series, and as good as any the band has given. It included the always popular "William Tell" overture, and selections from Mascagni's opera "Cavalleria Rusticana." These, of course, were encored. The most pretentious number was the introduction to the third act of Wagner's "Lohengrin," and this heavy, difficult music was splendidly played.

The assisting artists were Miss Jeanette Lewis and Miss Alma Gayfer. Miss Lewis recited with strong dramatic effect "The Midnight Charge," with band accompaniment. She also told a Dooley story. Miss Alma Gayfer, daughter of Mr. Harry Gayfer, of the Custom-house, sang "A Spring Song" with nice expression. She has a sweet soprano voice and showed the result of careful study and training. Miss Gayfer is young, but apparently quite self-possessed, and her place among Hamilton's favorite soloists is assured.

CHEAPER THAN IN ENGLAND.

Hamilton is a Good Place in Which to Buy.

The usual or rather an unusual number of Hamilton people are, and have been in the Old country this season. Some of them are now finding their way back after having visited the Paris Exposition in early days, besides doing other parts. It is surprising with what unanimity they agree that Hamilton, after all, is a fine place, no matter how you take it. A Hamilton man, whose wife induced him to do shopping with her in both Paris and London, declared this morning that his wife had found that right here in Hamilton she can buy almost every class of dry goods, both staple and fancy, to as great advantage as in either of those great cities, and often much cheaper. That is quite a feather in the caps of Hamilton merchants.

PUPILS' RECITAL.

Miss Reesor's Closing Concert at Nordheimer's.

At Nordheimer's concert room last evening the piano pupils of Miss Reesor entertained a large audience of natives and friends. The programme included piano selections by the following: Master Gordon Gilkinson, Master Ewart Wilson, Master Arthur Gilkinson, Miss Violet Roberts, Master Jack Sullivan, Miss Hilda Burton, Miss Shirley Morris, Miss Edith Morris, Miss Pearl Montague, Miss Marjorie McPherson, Miss Helen Wainwright, Misses Harry Geddes and Eva Webster, Master Jo. Pigott, Miss Eva Webster, Miss Annie Wadiand, Miss May Pigott, and Miss Reesor.

Every number was warmly received and all the young people who contributed acquitted themselves creditably.

SMITH-MORRISON.

Marriage of the Popular Manager of Messrs. McKay & Co.

A very pretty wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mrs. Morrison, corner of Park and Barton streets, when Mr. Robert L. Smith, manager of the dry goods house of McKay & Co., and Miss May Morrison, daughter of the late Mr. G. C. Morrison. The ceremony took place at 5 o'clock. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and marguerites. Mr. W. A. Austin, of Toronto, gave away the bride, who was attired in a beautiful gown of Brussels lace, over cream colored accordion pleated silk, and carried a bouquet of roses and ferns. She was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie Morrison, who wore white organdie and carried sweet peas and ferns. Miss Kate Smith was maid of honor. Mr. Wm. J. Allan was groomsmen. Among the many beautiful presents was a fine cabinet of china from the employees of McKay & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left in the evening on their wedding tour.

Chiswell-Winder.

Yesterday afternoon a pleasant event took place at the residence of Mrs. S. Winder, No. 155 King William street, in the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mabel Winder, to Mr. Wm. Chiswell. Rev. J. A. Jackson performed the ceremony, in the presence of about 70 invited guests. The parties were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the ceremony taking place at one end of an aisle of ribbons. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Jessie Winder, and the groomsmen was Mr. John Broderick. The bride's gown was of white organdie, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and the bridesmaid wore blue organdie, with trimmings of white lace. Among the many handsome presents were a piano from the groom to the bride, and a pearl crescent from the groom to the bridesmaid. The newly-married couple left on the evening train for Rochester and Batavia, N. Y.

Foster-Graham.

Many friends of Mr. James Alfred Foster, formerly a popular young man of this city, and son of the late Mr. James R. Foster, will join in wishing him well upon his marriage, which took place in the Church of Christ, Grand Rapids, Mich. The bride is a charming young lady, Miss Carrie Belle Graham, of Grand Rapids.

Blueberry Pies.

And people are just as fond of them now as in winter. A certain up-town restaurant is catching the crowd with these pies. Maybe you might make some at home. One can make two large pies. They sell at 7c each, 4 for 25c. This brand is sold only by us. Carpenter's, 10 Market Square.

Markets Committee Will Have Report Referred Back.

TREASURER'S MONTHLY FIGURES

When a balance is struck between the Board of Works general account and the good roads by-law account, and between the waterworks general construction account and the third main by-law account, the overdraft which the monthly statement of finances shows against the Board of Works and Waterworks Committees will disappear and leave them good balances. The same cannot be said of the Parks Board, which has spent all its money and has no other account to balance up with. It will be seen, too, that the miscellaneous account is overdrawn. In view of the letter which the Cataract Power Company has written in regard to City Hall and clock tower lighting, Chairman Hill, of the Markets, Police and Jail Committee, will ask the Council, at its meeting next Tuesday, to refer the recommendations in regard to lighting back to the committee. The Chairman says that if the Cataract Company had put figures before the committee as plainly as it did in the newspapers the committee would have had something to guide them in getting at what electric lighting would actually cost. He complains that the Electric Light Company's figures may be interpreted in two ways and that the city may be asked to pay twice as much as it expects, unless something more definite is received.

Brick work on the Birch avenue sewer will be begun to-morrow, at the Wentworth disposal works. While the men are working close to the sewer line both pumps will be kept in operation for the comfort of the bricklayers.

Two civic committees will meet to-morrow night, the Sewers Committee at 7.30 to open tenders, and the Board of Works at 8 to deal with the Springer quarry report.

After the wages of the men working in the tar gangs in connection with road construction will be 17 cents an hour. The work is hot and hot and the men earn the extra pay.

At the meeting to-night the Finance Committee will consider the day nursery's application for a grant to help building fund; the Board of Public Park Management's proposal for a revenue and a number of applications for remission or reduction of special rates.

The attractions at the park are becoming more and more popular and the crowds that visit Pinafore nightly are handled to the satisfaction of all concerned."

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—Hope the meeting to be held in the Board of Trade rooms this evening in connection with the proposed regatta will be well attended. The older sports in the city certainly deserve well at the hands of the juniors, and on this account would like to see them do their share. The different boat builders and boat owners should also take an interest in it, as it certainly will materially help them to revive rowing. Yours truly, Hamilton, June 28th, 1900. "Sport."
