It was expected that the Ottawa representatives would lead a live argument regarding the reinstatement of Ryan, but his name was not brought up during the meeting. The Ottawa men, however, tried to get the meeting's views on the matter indirectly. They wanted to know what stand the Inter-Provincial would take regarding men whose athletic of what stand the Inter-Provincial would take regarding men whose athletic of fences would be condoned by the new amateur definition of the C. A. A. U. Otherwise, would the "Big Four" reinstate these men? The question was discussed at some length, and finally it was decided that the Inter-Provincial would not bind itself to follow the rulings of the C. A. A. U., and any men whad been reinstated by them could not play in the Inter-Provincial until their cases had been taken to and so decided by the Board of Governors.

the Hamilton Riding and Cross Country Club was opened on Saturday afternoon, when an enthusiastic party of equestrians and equestriennes met at the Limestone Ridge, on the mountain, for the inaugural run, which was, without doubt, the most auspicious in the history of the club. The weather was ideal and though the roads were a trifle dusty, this did not interfere with the pleasure of the riders, as their path lay through newly harvested fields, pasture grounds and the unbroken woods. The grounds and the unbroken woods. The distance covered was between seven and eight miles, and approximately twentyfive fences and other hurdles were jumped. Everything passed off in the most happy manner, the horses being all on their best behavior, clearing the umping in excellent style and without persuasion. The riders, too, were for unate, no falls, spills or accidents of any nature occurring to mar the pleas While these are records of the above-named champions, these men do not make this time often, and all were made while the runners were pressed. The St. Patrick's defeat will new tie them with the West End Pleasure Club, with only one more game to be played in this series. Next Saturday the W. E. P. were many features with a few sensational catches that made the fans stand up. Although the score was large it is by no means an indication of the fast ball that was played. Time and again, the fielding of the Irishmen saved what looked like sure runs for their opponents. The Irishmen got an early lead, scoring their only inning on a fluke. In the eighth the fireworks started, and a safe bingle, coupled with errors by St. Pats, the G. S. & M. team managed to finish three runs to the good.

Till the eighth inning the game was a pitcher's battle, and too much credit cannot be given to both twirlers. Willie Simpson was back to form after his

The St. Patricks could not find th speeders, and one after another sumcumbed to three strikes.

When St. Patrick's scored their only run on a fluke in the third, things looked bad for the G., S. & M., but hard, consistent bail playing pulled them out victorious. While the Saints were playing good ball they were nervous and lacked confidence. When the balloon ascended in the last two innings, it was no surprise as it was evident all through the game that something was going to happen. In the latter part of the eighth inning, after the G. S. & M., had scored their first two runs, with nobody out, Hughy Brennen hit a three-bagger, but failed to score. The next three up gave a good imitation of a gate on a windy day. This disgusted the fans, and after that, all hope was given up. In the next innings the Irishmen tried hard to hit, "but could not touch the ball."

The work of both teams in the field was excellent, and could hardly be improved on. While the G., S. & M. had little opportunity to show their worth, little opportunity to show their worth, what chances they did get were accepted in fine style. The team seemed to be

The loss of Padden effected the infield alw, and without "Black Joe" on short, the St. Patrick's were crippled. White played a good game on second, and Alex. McLeod was as good as usual on first. Fred Howe, on a minute's notice, was asked to fill Capt. MacDonald's place in right, and, considering that he has been out of the game for so long, he acquitted himself with credit. The star of the G. S. & M. was Dubby Shea. He caught, and his work could not have been improved on. Shea also used his wing to good advantage, and allowed only one stolen base. He only made one mistake, but that was costly. Trying to nip the player coming back to first base, he threw the ball wild, scoring Brennen. ## THE SOCCER FOOTBALL SEASON IS NOW OPEN.

First Games of Fall Schedule Were Played on Saturday and Drew Big Crowds.

For the opening of the fall series of soccer football a better day could not have been wished for than Saturday. and the players are looking forward to a successful season. Not only were the players all out, but a large number of the soccer fans attended the games. The Toronto. Sept. 13.—The Canadian National Exhibition field day was a huge success in every way—well attended, an excellent track and well managed.

In the 220 yards dash, Bobby Kerr smashed the old Canadian record and made a new one of 212-5 seconds, which is certainly going some. In the two-mile walk, Goulding, the scratch man, won the race in the fast time of 13.39, which makes a new Canadian record, the old record being 13.45. Every event brought out a classy field of competitors, and every race was run in good, fast time.

The big event was the Foster Marathon, a race that ought to prove a big drawing earl in future years. The chief of the stand and strong at the finish.

but it is thought by the fans who witnessed Saturday's games they will not have an easy time to capture the championship this season. New players are beginning to show up on some of the teams, and the brand of football they play is well worth seeing.

The game at Cotter's field between the Independent Labor Party and the Lancashires proved a good game from the spectators' viewpoint, and the kind of football played was pleasing, although a little loose at times. The Lancashires, the old favorites, who generally give the Westinghouse a hard run, aithough they played good football on Saturday, failed to win from their opponents. The Labor Party has some very classy players, and at times had things their own way.

When the ball was put in motion the Labor Party started to display ability, but the Lancashires soon got away with the ball, and their opponents had hard work to check them.
