After some further interchanges the witness gave his statement. He disclimed any intention of protecting himself by his silence and declare I that he had paid no money to any member or senator of the House of Commons or public official. He could not conscientiously follow any other course than that which he had chosen. He placed himself in the hands of the House, feeling that he would get fair play and begged it to be magnanimous enough to withdraw the question.

Mr. Harvey, K. C., of Montreal, Mil's er's counsel, than addressed the House. His points were two :

1-The $41,000 in dispute had not been spent exclusively in getting government business. It had been handed to him to ge all the business obtained by the company in the four years between 1907 and 1911. 2-Miller's replies, privileged though they might be, would have an unconsciou influence upon the courts which would try the pending litigation.

When he had finished Mr. Middlebro moved that the witness and his counsel

Reasons Why The C. B. C. Is The Best

The Charlottetown Business College's claims of superiority are not based on hot air, bombast or broadside bragosity.

The equipment of this college is complete in every respect. There are enough typewriters, forms, etc, for every student, and therefore none are kept back and none especially favored. The teachers are the best that can be secured and the location idealright in the heart of the business district—the courses plain, practical and full of "usable" knowledge.

Students who graduate from this institution are QUALIFIED to cope with any problem that is placed before them in actual practice. This institution is the only one in the Province to turn out successful verbatim reporters.

The courses cover bookkeeping, auditing type-writing, shorthand, brokerage, banking, business correspondence, navigation, engineering and Civil Service preparatory exams.
