Mayor Ellis Justifies.

At last night's meeting of the City Council a warm discussion took place over the Rooney incident. Mayor Ellis had been asked by the Engineer if he could recommend a good man for foreman on the sewer cuts. He replied at first that he could not, but a few days afterwards he saw Mr. Rooney, and knowing he would make a good foreman, sent him to the Engineer. He said that he would work for $2.00 a day. For the first part of the week he was paid $1.50 a day and the following week $2.00. He was credited with only four days the first week, but he had worked five days. The next week his time was put in as seven days instead of six, to make up for the previous week. As for being credited with seven days' work the third week, Mr. Ellis supposed that it was a clerical error. In reply to a question by Councillor Ryan, the Mayor said that it had been customary to leave the regulation of small details like employment rate of wages to the Mayor and Engineer. He repudiated the idea that the mistake in the pay sheets was made deliberately to cover up anything. There was no justification for the charges, he said. Mr. Rooney had been receiving only $1.50 a day since the mistake was discovered. Mr. Rooney was a better man on the cuts than any other foreman. He had proven it by results. He laid a sewer in Dunford Street that cost only 60 cents a yard, whereas that at Central Street and other streets cost from 75 cents to $1.40.

Councillors Ryan, Martin and Channing took exception to this comparison, as the cut on Dunford Street was in easier ground. The Mayor produced statements propounded by the Engineer to show a comparison between the work done by Mr. Rooney and the other foremen. Councillor Channing asked that the time book be produced, and repudiated the idea that there was any politics in his attitude. Councillor Mullaly justified the payment of $2.00 to Rooney and was glad that he had voted that way. That Mr. Rooney was a better man had been proved by his doing sewer work for 66 cents a yard that had cost 90 cents under other foremen. It was a pure business proposition, and if Mr. Rooney could do better work he was entitled to more money. Figures cut no ice with him in this matter. He believed the report of Councillor Ryan, who was a very competent official. As Councillors Martin, Channing and Ryan were not satisfied to let the question drop without further explanation, it was decided to bring it up at next meeting.

APC. Lecture.

We beg to call the attention of our readers to the illustrated Lecture being given in the British Hall, on Monday evening next, by Mr. J. M. Moubray, F.R.G.S., on "Some of His Personal Experiences in Central Africa." which should prove both educative and interesting. It will be illustrated by colored slides made from photographs taken by the lecturer, the lantern being manipulated by Mr. James Vey. As the lecture does not start until 9 o'clock, in order to give those working in the shops a chance to attend, and as the admission fee is only 10 and 20 cents, which is to be devoted to A. P. C. purposes, we speak a full house. His Excellency the Governor will take the chair at 8 p.m.—Nov. 26.

Child Terribly Scalded

Shortly before noon yesterday a little girl named Bertha Atwell, of Cookstown Road, aged 2 years, was scalded at her residence. Her mother was about to begin washing some clothing and took a boiler filled with boiling water off the stove and threw it into a washing tub which she had placed on a chair. The water then went to a closet near to procure a pail of cold water which she intended to throw into the tub to render the water it contained tepid. While she was gone the little one tipped up the tub and the scalding contents went over her. The child was terribly scalded about the head, face and body. Dr. Macpherson was summoned and quickly responded, and after alleviating the intense pain which the poor little girl suffered, sent her to hospital in the ambulance. She is very ill at the hospital and fears for her recovery are entertained. She was the only little girl in the family and was the pet of the household. Her parents are deeply afflicted over the painful affair.

Here and There.

Stafford's Liniment for Athletes—Nov. 25.

PERMANENTLY FULL.—The men's quarters in the Penitentiary are now full and there is no room for more male prisoners.

P. S. A.—Mr. A. Soper will deliver an address tomorrow afternoon at the P. S. A., in the Congregational Church, from 3 to 4. All men cordially invited.—Nov. 26.

RUMOR OF ASSAULT.—A rumor was circulated in the West End this morning that a young woman had been assaulted last night and that her clothing had been torn.

Have you tried the new condensed COCOA, MILK and SUGAR combined. Ask for Reindeer Brand. Rich and delicious, handy for the unexpected caller or afternoon tea.—Nov. 25.

HERRING NETS LOST.—Four herring nets in the recent storm. Three were the property of John Sheppard and the other belonged to George Cook. They were new and valued at $16 each.

GRAND CONCERT, under the distinguished patronage of the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland, in the Synod Hall, on Monday night, at 8.15. Tickets 20 and 30 cents; best local talent, both vocal and instrumental.—Nov. 26.

INJURED AT THE DOCK.—A workman named Batten was injured while working on the Phoenix discharging copper ore to-day. A piece of ore fell down the hatch and struck him on the head. He bled profusely and he had to go to a drug store to get the wound bound up. He was able to resume work again.

THREE PITS CLOSED.—During the week three pits were closed at the Bell Island mines, necessitating the paying off of over 200 men, as each pit employs 70 men. Yesterday and to-day about 100 men came home via the Cove, returning to their homes on the Southern Shore and other places.

A DANGEROUS PROCEEDING.—Usually when steamers are moored on the harbour front people come on the piers evidently ignorant of the danger they run from the possibility of bursting moorings. When the Fort yesterday morning one of the after springs burst and barely missed hitting several standing near. The severed line swept over the pier and those near it were in great danger.

Ask the price of Stafford's Liniment.—Nov. 25.

Railway News.

Mr. W. D. Reid President of the R. N. Co., and Hon. R. Watson, Colonial Secretary, returned here from Trinity by the S. S. Fife at 10 a.m. to-day. In an interview with Mr. Reid he informed the Telegram that the men on the branch work were now laying rails there at the rate of a quarter of a mile per day. They are now at Salmon Cove with the end of the rails and are building a bridge across there to-day. The rails are laid with a 14 mile of Catfallina. The gravelers will be paid off by the end of next week and will have by then completed there work right down to Bonavista. The men are being paid off according as they finish the different jobs so that gangs of 20 and 50 are leaving every day since the middle of the month. Mr. Reid and Mr. Watson also went to Catfallina in the Fife and remained there till 4 p.m. yesterday. The steel bridge at Shoal Harbor is being put up this week. The two iron bridges that were built here in St. John's at the R. N. Co. shops will be shipped out on Monday or Tuesday next. The new station is finished at Goose Bay.

McMurdo's Store News

SATURDAY, Nov. 26, 1910. Formold Magnesia is an alkaline and antiseptic mouth and tooth wash. It is designed to neutralize the acids often present in the mouth as a result of the fermentation of minute portions of food which cling to the crevices between the teeth etc., and which the tooth brush is powerless to dislodge. These acids undoubtedly affect the teeth prejudicially, and the preparation in question is powerful to prevent or counteract the effects of such acids. For those troubled with sore, or spongy gums, Formold-Magnesia is a real boon as its use puts the parts in a wholesome and healthy condition. A bottle should have a place on every toilet-table. Price (4oz. bottle) 35c. and (10oz. bottle) 60c.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaves and belching, I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden. Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, Theatre Hall, Small slice 25 cents, postage 5c. extra; large size, 50 cents, postage 10c. extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance.—Oct. 23, 1910.

Make Beds by Electricity.

More Wonderful Things in Edison's Electric Utopia.

How would you like to have your work done by an electric motor? The windows put down and locked at night, for instance, and the beds made in the morning? Wouldn't it be fun to have even the sausage grinder turn itself and a machine that buttoned the children's shoes and stockings and combed their heads in the morning?

More wonderful things than this are outlined in a Utopia that Edison says will surely be brought about by electricity. It will be a happy land where nobody will have to work, not even horses. Best of all it will work for the emancipation of women from housekeeping.

It was Florence King, the patent lawyer, who said before an assemblage of club women not long ago, "Invention has done more for the emancipation of women than legislation ever will," and from Edison's outline of the housekeeping of the future in popular electricity, this Utopia is nearer than anybody has imagined it is.

"I am ashamed of the number of things around my house that are done by animals—human beings, I mean," says the inventor. "They ought to be done by a motor without any sense of fatigue or pain. Hereafter a motor must do all the chores."

AUCTION OF FISH.—This forenoon about 100 qts. of fish taken out of the hull of the wrecked schooner Minnie was sold at auction on the premises of Jas. Baird Ltd. The fish was of a very inferior quality and was sold for 45 cents a qt.

STONAWAYS RETURNING.—When the Ballaventure reached Trinity yesterday to take in guano, 4 young wharves who stowed away in her were found on board. They will be sent on to the wharves. Hump, which should arrive this forenoon or night.

THE HERRING FISHERY.—Bonnie Bay to-day reports that herring continues plentiful and that the scho. Miranda has cleared for Gloucester, making the fourth cargo of herring to date. Herring are scarce at Curling and there is none at the Humber.

SURVEYED THIRTY MILES.—The work of surveying for the Southern Shore railway is progressing quickly and up to Thursday the men engaged at the task were within four miles of Cape Broyle. The most difficult section to be surveyed was about Lemauche and the rest of the surveying will be comparatively easy.

MAN BECAME INSANE.—Saturday last while proceeding to his home at Flat Islands, P. B., in his boat a man named Wm. Masters, became suddenly insane and the sch. put into Aquaforte, where he was landed and placed under restraint. He was brought here overland last night by Mr. Grady and was taken to the Lunatic Asylum.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.—A couple of nights ago a motor car containing several persons passed through Howe's Cove on its way to the city. Though the night was dark it came along at a fair speed when in taking Brian's Bridge a fatality was barely averted. The machine collided with the bridge and tore away two lengths of rail. The car barely escaped going into the stream, 30 feet below, and had this occurred all on board would have been killed.
