An Appreciation

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—It was my good fortune to attend the church service referred to by a correspondent "Patriot" in your paper yesterday. In my opinion the sermon delivered was one of the finest, most logical and comprehensive that could have been delivered on such an occasion. The preacher referred to is not, I understand, one who will cater to the majority, but one who, having a will power of his own, uses it to the best of his ability and always in conformity with the doctrine of "Christ Crucified."
Can "Patriot" deny that the sermon contained anything but Christian facts, well thought out and placed before the large audience in such a manner as to command admiration for the noted preacher. If "Patriot" will study the history of past nations, he will find out, as the rev. preacher has found out, that the old method of government is not successful.
It may be true, Mr. Editor, that the sermon delivered did not suit some of the "flag flapping patriots," who will jump to any conclusion whether it be for the good of humanity or otherwise; but for the man who has a true love of his country and is looking to the future permanent peace of the world, a better sermon could not be delivered. These are days when we require real Empire builders, men of vision, men who can look into the past and see its failures, and into the future with the object of correcting past mistakes and promoting good will towards men and faith in the Christian doctrine.

If we would have this old world made fit to live in, other and higher ideals will have to be lived up to. The present war with its ghastly record of millions of human beings slaughtered in the prime of life, will ever stand as a monument to nations, particularly Germany, who promote secret treaties, and diplomatic propaganda. If we are to have a lasting peace a change will have to be made in our present educational system, especially those relating to war propaganda amongst the children as outlined by the rev. speaker.

Do not be narrow-minded, Mr. Patriot! Wake up out of the old rut of the past, look ahead and prepare for the new era of peace which can only come if founded on the principles laid down by the Master Himself and so truly laid before you on Sunday evening last.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
Nov. 20, 1918.

REPLY.
Lord Morris, Durrant's Hotel, Manchester Square, London.
Sincere thanks to you and all Newfoundlanders for their congratulations on victorious peace. Newfoundland has every right to be proud of the part they have played in the National war.

C.C.C. Grand Dance To-night.

The C.C.C. Band Dance takes place to-night in the C.C.C. hall, beginning at 9.15. As this is the last C.C.C. Dance until the end of the year no doubt there will be a large attendance. The price of the tickets, Gents (Double) $1.00; Ladies 50c. Ice Cream and drinks will be sold by the ladies and if at all possible a light supper may be served, but they cannot guarantee it as it is impossible just at this time to get donations of cakes, etc. But at future dances the ladies will be in a better position to serve a supper as all arrangements have been made to enlarge the supper room which at present is entirely too small, and when completed will measure 50 x 18. It will be ready for their next dance. The dance to-night starts at 9.15.—adv.

Colinet Island Celebrates.

At Mosquito to-day we celebrated Victory from 9 a.m. Tuesday until midnight by keeping holiday. Bunting was displayed in all directions. Amid volleys of musketry and cheers, the parade started from Mosquito to the hall. Our oldest inhabitant, Mr. Patrick Linehan, carried the foremost banner, the Union Jack and Old Glory entwined. As our hall is situated between the two settlements the parade stopped by it, and Mr. Linehan called for cheers for King and Country, which was nobly responded to. We then proceeded to Regina where young and old met us with hearty cheers and light hearts glad to know this cruel war was over and our brave soldier boys soon returning home. We have lately heard that one of our gallant lads, Pte. Thomas Doody, is among the wounded, somewhere in France. We had a big dance in the hall to celebrate victory. The flag that always carried the way, is the flag combined with those of the Allies, that we honor to-day. God save the King.

Obituary.

MISS CATHERINE GOFF.

A message was received in town yesterday from Harbor Grace, announcing the death of Miss Catherine Goff, one of the best known and most charitable ladies in this second city. Miss Goff was born in Harbor Grace about seventy years ago, being a daughter of the late David Goff, merchant tailor of that town. One sister, Mrs. Wm. Croke, predeceased her many years ago, also three brothers, Edward, lost in the brig Maggie, Capt. Knefe, with all hands about 1868; Michael, about thirty years ago, and Peter, about fifteen years ago. We think another brother David died in Canada some time ago.

Miss Goff was a most industrious and successful general business lady, and the fame of her products such as sweets, beer, etc., have not alone a local reputation, but it is a fact that they were sought after and shipped out of the country, the name being a household word. For about half a century, she conducted this business, and few were better known amongst the business people of St. John's, than was the deceased lady. Her sister and niece assisted her in her business, and are still in the employ.

For some months past Miss Goff has been in delicate health, and her passing did not come as a surprise. The fading moments of her illness were brightened by the presence at her bedside of her sister, nephews and niece. Conscious right up to the last, she gave a continuous example of heroic patience and calm resignation. Long years of solid piety and a unique Christian faith developed a spirit of prayer that was manifested by a continual use of ejaculations; thus strengthened by her own devotions, and fortified by the Sacraments of the Holy Church, she breathed forth her soul most peacefully, a fitting close to a most edifying life. Requisiteat in pace.

False Alarm.

For the first time in several years a false alarm was sent in from Box 224 last evening at 8.30, bringing the firemen of the Central and Western companies to the scene, the junction of Monkstown Road and Fleming Street. On arrival there they found the alarm to be a bogus one and on inquiries failed to elicit who had been the guilty person. This is most deplorable as well as a dangerous custom, for in addition to bringing the firemen out needlessly, it also endangers the safety of the town, for if a conflagration in another section occurred while the firemen were absent on a wild goose chase, the result may easily be imagined.

Broken Promise.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—No doubt some of your readers can remember of seeing some months ago, a letter in the Daily News from Milton, Trinity Bay. That letter gave an account of Mr. Simon Adams' effort at wheat raising. It also stated that he had already planted six gallons of Newfoundland raised wheat. Now, Mr. Editor, to use a common phrase: "The proof of the pudding is in eating." That the seed has germinated and grown in spite of the depressing season, with its frost, chill winds, rains and dull gloomy weather, proves that the Newfoundland seed is of a good quality. In spite even of the severe frost of August 30th which utterly spoiled the great-er part of the potato crop in this locality, the wheat grew and ripened, and by the last of September Mr. Adams had a goodly lot reaped and stored. Encouraged by the success of his venture in raising wheat from native grown seed, Mr. Adams made an appeal to the Board of Agriculture for an outfit for converting the wheat into flour. He received an answer from the President of the Board promising to send a flour mill within a fortnight. Many fortnights have elapsed since then but he has heard nothing further of the flour mill. He naturally feels disappointed and aggrieved.

Surely if our Legislative men are as patriotic and philanthropic as they would have us believe they are, they would present Mr. Adams with a flour mill, not merely for his private use and benefit but for the benefit of the public. Others with plenty of land at their disposal are waiting to see how Mr. Adams succeeds ere they sow it with wheat. The true meaning of patriotism as I understand it, is one who renders some service of benefit to his country. Surely a man who produces food in these strenuous times is a patriot, and I think that all right thinking people will agree with me that Mr. Adams should receive some encouragement from the powers that be for his service of proving that wheat can be grown in "The land of snow and ice and fog. Where sailors gang to fish for cod."

Klark-Urban Co.

Another crowded house greeted the Klark-Urban players at the Casino Theatre last night when the curtain rose on the repeated comedy-drama "The Misleading Lady." The cast appeared to have settled down in their places and the acting was greatly superior to that of the opening night. At the same time there was much room for improvement, particularly in Act 1, the speaking parts being rather weak, the audience in the back of the theatre not hearing distinctly. In Acts 2 and 3 a great improvement was discernible, both in enunciation and acting which pleased the patrons greatly. Miss Cecil as Helen Steel, was exceptionally good, and the support given her by Mr. Klark, in the portrayal of Jack Craig, the man from Patagonia, enhanced her exposition of the real woman. Mr. Billy Webb, the harmless lunatic, who imagined himself to be Napoleon Bonaparte, acted the part to perfection and kept the audience in constant roars of laughter. On the whole the play was very enjoyable and highly appreciated. The music by the C. C. C. band orchestra was of the usual class and excellence. The production for to-night is "Which one shall I marry?" a drama in Allegory, told in a modern way.

Fire Last Night.

A slight fire in the house of Mrs. P. Parrell, which was caused by her five year old son throwing a lighted match behind a trunk, thereby lighting a newspaper, called the firemen of the Central and Eastern companies to Cookstown Road and Freshwater Road at 10.30 last night. The blaze was extinguished by a few pails of water and the damage done was insignificant. Grays run all the way from silver to Oxford.

Personal.

Mr. W. Dave came to town yesterday from Bay Roberts.
Mr. C. B. Archibald arrived from Bell Island yesterday.

Mr. O. Leach is registered at the Crosbie.
Mr. L. Mullooney, Bell Island, is registered at the Crosbie.
Hon. Sir E. R. Bowring left by today's express for Florida via New York to spend the winter.
Mr. John Warren, the well-known Tack's Beach business man, is in the city transacting his fall's business.
Messrs. J. Black, Lloyd's Surveyor, and D. McFarlane, Boiler Inspector, left by yesterday's express on business along the railway line.

Hermitage Notes

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly allow me space in your well known paper to record a few words from this prosperous and thriving settlement of Hermitage.

The fishery here this year has not been as good as usual, partly owing to poor weather conditions, as well as a general scarcity of bait; still with the high prices given, everyone and everything seem to be in a fairly prosperous condition, notwithstanding the high prices asked for fishery outfit, as well as for everything in general.

This year seems to be a year of disease and sickness throughout this Dominion of ours. Last Sunday there passed away at Gaultois (a little settlement two miles from here) four children, victims of that dread disease diphtheria, to the parents of whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

The Spanish Flu which has played such havoc at St. John's, and around the coast has so far escaped here and as it now seems to be on the decrease, we trust that we will escape it altogether.

A few days ago we received the thrilling message that peace had been signed, and the great war which has been raging for more than four years, had at last been brought to a glorious and successful finish.

We at Hermitage were not behind in celebrating the great occasion; guns firing, bunting flying and bells pealing, not unequal to the artillery bombardment. A great time was also spent at the L. O. A. Hall the same night in honour of the great event.

Great thanks is also due to the Telegraph operators, whom an extra share of work has been thrown since the beginning of the war, and I think one operator, Miss A. S. H. Way, deserves credit for her noble work, and we are pleased to know that all operators were granted a holiday to celebrate the occasion.

Thanking you for space,
I remain,
CORRESPONDENT.

GRAPE-NUTS

Requires No Sugar

Whenever you eat anything that is "naturally" sweet, thereby saving the use of sugar you are helping just that much.

Most prepared cereals require some additional sweetening. Grape-Nuts requires none for it contains a considerable amount of its own, not put there in its making but developed by the famous Grape-Nuts method of baking, from the grains of which this food is made.
