His Claim.

Honors were flying thick and fast through the Government office, which was closing down. This is only a humorous story, remember! In real life they never do this.

to seize the chance for a little joking. So he addressed a letter to himself at the office, adding the letters "O.B.E." after his name.

"What does this mean?" demanded the senior official, to whom the matter was reported. "You are not entitled to this!"

"Pardon me, sir," replied Wilkins; "But I think I am, as I am the Only Blooming Exception."

Our Baseball Column.

PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

THE CITY TEAM.

Manager Montgomerie will likely pick the home-team this afternoon.

NEUTRALITY.

I love to see the batter crack. The pill from here to Hackensack. Providing that fence busting like is busting for the club I like.

I like to lamp a fielding guy. Propel his fin against the sky. And grab a four-ply circuit clout. When with the club for which I shout.

I'm quite delighted when I see. A pitcher winning fluently. That is, unless the lucky stiff. Should pick my favourite team to whiff.

HOW ABOUT IT?

The Children's Party and Sports at St. George's Field on Tuesday afternoon was a great success. Presumably it is the intention of the Peace Celebration Committee or the Government to come across with a liberal donation for the hire of the Field. It must be borne in mind that were it not for the efforts of the Football and Baseball leagues this historic Field would have passed into disuse some three or four years ago, and it has cost over a thousand dollars this year alone to repair the fences and partially replace the grandstand. Again, it should be borne in mind that a football or baseball game (or both combined) on that afternoon would have netted a considerable sum for the leagues. So, gentlemen, what about it?

YOU SAID IT, BO!

The Cubs' batting seems to have dropped off like a busted finger-nail, with the exception possibly of Claude Hall's. He gets a couple of hits off batters almost every time he pitches.

THURSDAY NIGHT'S FIASCO.

Just as we go to press we are in receipt of the following communication from a well known fan—one who really enjoys a game of baseball and who knows the game from A to Z. He is not one of those carping grouchy critics who fail to see any class in the game as it is played locally, and therefore his communication may be regarded by the City players as a just and sincere criticism of what happened on Thursday night last—when the editor of this column is glad he had the good fortune NOT to see, if one may gauge the sentiments of the fans correctly:

Dear Editor.—If last evening's try-out of the two City Teams can be taken as an indication of the brand of ball that will be served up at the coming Intertown series, then it seems a very safe bet that Grand Falls will have no difficulty in taking the Intertown Trophy back with them. In fact the game could hardly be classed as a good practice, for—excepting five players, the teams played in a most indifferent manner and put up an exhibition that could easily be excelled by one of the Junior League Teams.

It is all very well to advance the excuse that it was the first time they had played together and therefore could not combine for good team work, but most every man was in his regular position and had experience enough to adapt himself to any situation that might arise. Time and time again safe hits were made because the infielders were not in their proper position and base runners were permitted to steal bases at will. In fact on two occasions the third baseman just woke up in time to take the throw from the Catcher.

The Outfielders of both teams played fairly well with one exception. Once a ball passed this particular player he seemed to forget the game was still in progress and recovered same in a most leisurely manner. On several occasions the batters were too tired to run out their hits.

Now City Candidates, this is hardly good enough. All of you can play better ball than what you did last night. Those of us in the Grand Stand paid to see a good exhibition, and the majority were so disgusted that they left long before the game ended. Play the game and give the fans a run for their money at least.

Yours very truly,

Aug. 8th, 1919. C. T.

NEXT GAME.

Tuesday evening, at 6.30, Red Lions vs. B.I.S.

JUST SO!

The "squeeze" play, in the parlour as on the ball field, is great when it works, but looks awful foolish when it doesn't.

WHEN THE MAJOR GETS HIS PENCIL.

Ah! many fond hopes will be handed their shoves. And many blue skies will turn gray: When the manager puts On his gardening gloves And starts weeding out those who will play.

AVERAGES.

In Monday's issue we will publish the averages of the 18 players (fielding and batting) from whom the City 'nine' will be selected?

A tunic blouse of dark material is finished around the edge with a pleasing frill of contrasting shade.

Footer Game a Draw.

The result of the Star-Cadet clinch in last evening's football game was a draw, no goals at all being scored. The play was very good, and although a rather high wind was against the best of playing, a fair exhibition was offered. The players were:

STAR—Delahunty, goal; E. Kavanagh, Sullivan, backs; J. Kavanagh, W. Duggan and W. Hart, halves; Brien, L. Kavanagh, Power, Simms and B. Hart, forwards.

CADETS—W. Clare, goal; Power and Brown, fulls; T. Duggan, Gallagay and Thompson, halves; Callahan, Maddigan, Spurrell, Caul and Christopher, forwards.

The table now stands:

	P.	W.	L.	D.	F.	A.	P.
Saints	4	4	0	12	3	8
Star	4	2	1	8	5	5
C.C.C.	3	1	1	2	2	3
C.E.I.	3	1	2	0	2	5
Collegians	3	0	3	0	4	11
B.I.S.	1	0	1	0	1	3

Touring Battlefield.

Miss Ethel Darby, winner of the Halifax Herald Competition, leaves by the Digby for Europe, where she will visit the Battlefields of France and Flanders.

Miss Ethel Darby, the lucky winner of the Halifax Herald Tour of the Battlefields Competition for Newfoundland, left by the Digby this morning for Liverpool, whence she will proceed to France to enjoy the splendid treat that is in store for her. She will return on the Digby on September the thirtieth. Five Canadian ladies, four of them winners, and the other of the Herald staff, will accompany her throughout the tour.

Nfld. Mariner Ill.

Capt. John Smith, of the schooner Ella Blanche, and well known in this country, is now an inmate at Harbor View Hospital, North Sydney, where he is being treated by Dr. M. T. McLean of that place. The Captain is still suffering from the effects of an injury received ten years ago, when a fall from a spar, twenty-five feet high, resulted in his spine being injured.

Military Guard of Honor.

The guard of soldiers to take part in the ceremonies at the landing of the Prince of Wales will consist of 100 quarter guard of 8 men will be under men which will be in charge of Capt. Paterson, Lieut. F. Rendell, Lieut. Forsyth and R. S. M. Packham. The Sergt. Mitchell, with Bagley Kennel. Last night the men had drill and at 7 p.m. Monday will hold a full dress parade at the Prince's Rink.
