

L.C.A.S.

CONCERT CLOSURES SUCCESSFUL SALE.
The second day of the L.C.A. sale was a large attendance out yesterday afternoon and evening. The first day's proceedings, when a large amount was realized. The tea were largely patronized. To up the season's sale a concert was held at 8 o'clock when the following artists contributed:—Mr. Gordon L.R.A.M., Mrs. C. F. Garfield, Miss Maude, Mr. A. Lawrence, Miss Fraser, Mr. K. Trapnell, Miss Taylor, Mrs. H. H. Small, Mr. W. J. Outerbridge, Mrs. G. J. Outerbridge and Mr. Courtney. It was a pleasing for all concerned, and that the receipts for the two days will be in excess of last year's amount, which was heralded with interest and loud acclamation by the present. To Mrs. Albert, the President, and her able assistance a large meed of praise is due.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. H. A. Goodwin, Field Secretary, and Service Department of the Methodist Church, gave a most interesting and enthusiastic discourse in the Methodist Church here on Tuesday. The subject of the discourse was "Prohibition," and was dealt with by the speaker in such a manner as to attract the attention of the congregation. His subject—Prohibition—in Newfoundland, as well as elsewhere, was, in a degree, a big success, and that the time is not far distant when the liquor business will be wiped out.

The Rev. gentleman is on a tour, in connection with his church, in the interests of the above subject. During the inclemency of the weather the gathering was not as large as otherwise would have been, but those who were fortunate enough to be present, shall not soon forget the power and his message.

The death of Miss Lillian Peddie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Peddie, of Water Street West, occurred this morning. Miss Peddie had been sick for long, but her death was unexpected. Previous to a few days ago and for a number of years, she had worked as a dressmaker at Mr. J. J. Timman's. Beside her parents, she was mourned by her passing, two sisters and three brothers. To the bereaved family the sympathy of the community goes out. Funeral takes place Friday, and interment will be made in the Methodist Cemetery.

The death of Master Frank Dove, the old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Dove of Stephenson's Village, occurred Tuesday of last week. Deceased was taken down with scarlet fever on Monday and succumbed to the attack on Tuesday morning. The funeral was held the same day; interment being made in the Church of England cemetery. Mr. Dove and family have sympathy of the community.

The members of the Aero Tennis Club are holding a minstrel show in the Academy Hall to-morrow, Thursday night. The programme consists of songs, quartettes, medleys, choruses, and a laughable sketch has been arranged and promises to be very entertaining. The purpose of the Aero Club is to raise funds in order to purchase a suitable tennis court.

The Hammond Johnson, pastor of the Methodist Church, St. John's, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church here on Sunday morning, as well as at the missionary meeting in the evening, each time delivering a very powerful sermon, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large congregations present.

Mrs. W. J. Moore's schooner "Edna" left for the 17th inst., and after extensive repairs came off yesterday.

Schooner Violet H. was docked on the 17th, and undocked again yesterday.

F. J. Sullivan, accountant at the Commercial Bank, went out to the city by this morning's train on a few days' visit.

Wm. Hamlyn, representing the Job Stores Ltd., St. John's, was here to-day.

Marion Forsey, daughter of Mr. E. Forsey, Manager of the Star, arrived in town last week on a visit to her home. Miss Forsey has been working at Grand Falls for some time.

Harbor Grace, Nov. 29 1922.

Your Friends' Opinions.

You value them highly. Friends judge you by your thoughtfulness. In the selection of a Christmas Gift, there is room for a very fine display of good judgment and culture. By selecting Richard Hudnut's Perfumes and toilet requisites, you unmistakably show not only a sense of good taste but a sound sense of economy, for Hudnut's Perfumes, last longer, and gives fragrant odor until the last tiny drop is used. You can select Hudnut's Perfumes and Toilet goods at Drug Stores and toilet Counters.

You show good taste when you select Hudnut's.
