

Prime Minister Returns

BUSY HOME-COMING. The Prime Minister, Sir R. A. Squires, after an absence covering a period of nearly six months in Engand, France and Spain, arrived home by special train, and in a private car 4.55 o'clock yesterday afternoon The following members of the Government and friends were amongs those at the station to greet the Pre-mier on his arrival: Hons. M. G. Winter, Dr. Campbell, S. J. Foote, W. W. Halfyard, Dr. Barnes, J. W. Davey, W. Mews, Dr. Mosdell, Messrs. B Scammell, R. Hibbs, I Clouter Fred House, P. Hanley, P. Raynes, H. Ford, R. Hopkins, Timo-thy Murphy, C. Sleater, Herb Par sons. It is stated that the Prime Minister stopped off at Deer Lake on the Humber to view the working conditions of those employed there, as it was reported that there was trouble in the camps over food. Richard, it is said, investigated the matter, and sampled the food, which apparently was not as bad as report-On arrival at Whitbourne Premier's car was held up for two nours, and he took advantage of the delay to pay a visit to the Grange. It is also stated that Mr. Morgan met the Prime Minister on the way to the city and demanded that he be released from his position as General Manager of the railway immediately. This request, it is understood, was not acceded to. Sir Richard is looking well after his trip.
